MEETINGS OF THE GRAND LODGE.
The G. L. holds its meetings in New-Orleans, at Perseverance Lodge No. 4, corner of Saint-Claude and Maine streets.
The G. L. holds annually four regular sessions, which are fixed on the fourth saturday, in each of the months of January, March, June and November, and may adjourn from day to day, until the business of the session is completed.
Provided that the G. M., or in his absence, the Deputy G. M., shall have the power of convening the Grand Lodge in extra-session, whenever he deems it proper, or whenever the good of the craft may require it, but in no other than a regular session shall any amendments or alterations be made to the rules and regulations of the G. L. The election of the grand officers shall take place at the grand communication, on the fourth saturday of January and the installation of them, on the following saturday.

Affinity of the G. L. with the LL. of the Jurisdiction.
Each LL. meeting in the city of New-Orleans must at the end of each year, and before the election of the G. O. of the G. L., send to the Grand Secretary:
1st. The extract of the minutes of the election of the Master, and Wardens, and of their installation.
2nd. A list of its active members, stating correctly the amount of dues paid in the past year.
This communication has two months from the day of Saint John the Evangelist to despatch themselves of this duty.
