FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION

AUDITORIUM—MASONIC TEMPLE

333 St. Charles Street

NEW ORLEANS, LA., FEBRUARY 8, 1954.

The One Hundred and Forty-third Annual Communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana, in New Orleans, on Monday morning of the eighth day of February, Nineteen Hundred Fifty-four at 9:15 o'clock A. M., was opened in the Third or Master's Degree, in due and ancient form, by M:W: Brother Alex L. Stephens, Grand Master, after prayer by Brother (Rev.) Herman T. Sullivan, Chaplain.

OPENING PRAYER

Our Heavenly Father, matchless in power and glory, Gracious Creator of heaven and earth, maker of all things and giver of all good and perfect gifts, look down upon Thy people, our brethren, here assembled today and grant unto us both wisdom and blessing in all our works done in Thy name and for Thy glory. Life begins and ends with Thee. Help us to use it wisely with discretion, and may all our deliberations in this and other sessions conform to Thy purpose and Thy good pleasure.

Wilt Thou cement our relations with brotherly fellowship, and abundantly bless all our meetings with that heavenly spirit of brotherly love which should characterize Thy children in every place.

Help us that our faith in God shall be the unshakable foundation stone upon which we build our hopes for a brighter tomorrow, and may charity, peace and holiness be the fruit of our lives. Let this session of our Grand Lodge be guided by Thy unerring council, and may all duties be dispatched with wisdom, discretion and honor.

When our craft shall have finished their labors on earth, walk with us through the Valley of Shadows, and receive us into the more stately mansion "made without hands, eternal in the heavens".

Amen.

FLAG PRESENTATION

The Flag of the United States was presented West of the Altar when the Pledge of Allegiance was given. The Flag was then placed on the Dais at the right of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, while the Organist played the National Anthem.

The colors were presented by three United States Marines; M/Sgts. Sidney W. Platt (394), Ed E. Richardson, Jr. (307) and Wallace L. Simmons (188).

ADDRESS OF GRAND MASTER

To the Officers and Members of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana, Free and Accepted Masons.

Greetings:

Only one short year ago, through the generosity of my Brethren, I was the recipient of the highest honor in your power to bestow on any Mason. As the sands run low in the glass, I come, in all humbleness, to render you an account of my stewardship of the high office of Grand Master.

It is my happy privilege and pleasure to welcome you, my Brethren, to the 143rd Annual Communication of our Grand Lodge. Once again we are assembled to review the progress that it has been ours to enjoy during the year that is now history and to carefully provide for the future of our beloved fraternity. It is my earnest prayer that our meetings shall be harmonious and profitable to you and our Grand Lodge. May God, who watches over all men and all things, be with us and direct and guide us in all of our deliberations in this Grand Session.

I would remind you that this is your Grand Lodge and that the responsibility for the conduct of its affairs and its welfare and prosperity is yours to bear. Forget not that how well you bear that responsibility will, in the years that are to come, be reflected in the respect and esteem with which our glorious fraternity is held in the hearts and minds of men everywhere. Let me admonish you that if you would not have this responsibility bear too heavily on your shoulders in the future, you will lay aside all that is mean and petty and selfish while you are here. You will dedicate yourselves, as men who are inspired, to the high teachings and principles of our Order; you will, by your conduct here and in your lives, cause the banner of Freemasonry to be held high, and ever higher, for all men to see and admire; you will—

“Be strong, we are not here to play, to dream, to drift,

We have hard work to do and loads to lift;

Shun not the struggle, face it, 'tis God's gift,

We are grateful for our many distinguished guests who have come from afar to enjoy for a short while with us lovely Louisiana. It is our sincere hope that they will gain as much pleasure from their visit in our midst as we will in having them with us. We are also happy for the presence of our honored Brethren from other Grand Bodies in Louisiana. On behalf of each of you, my Brethren, I extend to all of them our cordial greetings.

NECROLOGY

"The young may die—the old must die" is the dreadful Mandate that hangs over the head of every mortal and the Grim Reaper is continually in our midst. We mourn the loss of our Brethren who have gone on to their reward, and we extend our most affectionate sympathy to their loved ones in their hour of bereavement, commending them with earnest hearts to Him whose strength will uphold us evermore.

Shortly after the close of our 1953 Grand Lodge Session, the Grim Reaper entered the home of our Grand Organist, Brother Earle S. Rice, and he passed to his reward on March 30, 1953 in New Orleans where he resided for many years. The remains were interred in his native state, Kentucky, in the city of Richmond. Peace to his ashes.

The Committee on Necrology will pay suitable tribute to our departed brethren.

STATE OF THE ORDER

I am happy to report that peace and harmony prevails throughout our Grand Jurisdiction. It is my opinion that the great majority of our Lodges are in healthy condition and that they are active and vigorous. I find that in most Lodges the esoteric work of our ritual is being properly presented to initiates and that the officers of our Lodges are competent and are endeavoring to give to every candidate as much Masonry as is possible. In every Lodge that I have visited during the year, I have tried to impress upon them the necessity of providing education to our brethren in order that they might better understand what Masonry is and what it is not. In almost every instance, I have found that the brethren are eager for instruction and will welcome help from whatever source. Our Grand Lodge, through the Committee on Education, has done a great deal this year to fill the need of the brethren in this respect and I urge you to make use, full use, of the splendid material that has been furnished by the Committee. Avail yourselves of the opportunities that are yours for the asking from this Committee—call on them and they will help you to solve some of your problems in regard to furthering the education of our Masons. Remember your Lodge exists for the purpose of making men Masons and not for the purpose of accumulating members only.

I find that many of our Lodges are giving consideration to new construction of Lodge halls and the repair of our present Lodge halls. Some of our Lodges are buying land and planning for the day when they will be able to construct new halls in which to meet. Proof of this statement is in the permission to the eleven Lodges that I have granted for new construction and repair during the year. Further proof is contained in the fact that I have laid the cornerstone in seven new Lodge halls this year.

There is one matter that has disturbed me greatly and that is in a number of instances, I have noted the laxity of those who are appointed on Committees of Investigation. Too many times these brethren have failed completely in their duty and those who are unworthy have been allowed to enter our fraternity. It is inconceivable to me that a brother will accept appointment on a Committee of this nature and then be so neglectful and careless in his duty as to run the risk of burdening his brethren and his Lodge with a member who is unworthy and who, may later, cause trouble and embarrassment to the Lodge. There is one instance on record during my term wherein a Lodge received a petition and conferred all three degrees on a candidate who for more than six years had not lived in this State. Certainly the Committee in this instance made no investigation at all. I urge all Masters to exercise great care in the appointment of brethren to serve on these committees in order that we may know that every applicant is proper material for our Lodge before the degrees are conferred.

THE WASHINGTON CONFERENCES

Accompanied by Mrs. Stephens, Deputy Grand Master, Clarence Beasley and Mrs. Beasley, Grand Secretary, D. Peter Laguens, Jr. and Mrs. Laguens, I attended the meetings of the Grand Masters' and Grand Secretaries' Conferences and the annual meetings of the George Washington Memorial Association and the Masonic Service Association held in Washington, D. C. in the latter part of February, 1953. While in Washington, we were delighted to have with us during part of the functions, P.G.M. Otto E. Passman, and Mrs. Passman.

Programs were presented during each of the conferences that were very interesting and instructive and we appreciate the many opportunities that were given to us to meet and discuss with the several Grand Masters present the many problems that concern our respective Grand Jurisdictions. We feel that the many acquaintances that we made during the week of the conferences were of great value to us during the year.

Our Grand Lodge has been signally honored in the appointment of M:W: Brother Oliver H. Dabezies, P.G.M. as a member of the Commission on Information For Recognition by the Conference, and we are happy to note that he will have a part on the program this year.

VISITS TO SISTER GRAND JURISDICTIONS

(APPROVED. See page 203.)

On October 13, 1953, I attended the 114th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Illinois which was held in the City of Chicago.

On October 27, 1953, I attended the 167th Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Georgia which was held in the City of Macon.

On November 17, 1953, Right Worshipful Brother D. Peter Laguens, Jr., Grand Secretary, represented our Grand Lodge at the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Alabama which was held in the City of Montgomery.

On December 2, 1953, Most Worshipful Brother Oliver H. Dabezies, Past Grand Master of Masons in Louisiana, represented our Grand Lodge at the Quarterly Communication of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania which was held in the City of Philadelphia.

On December 2, 1953, Right Worshipful Brother D. Peter Laguens, Jr., Grand Secretary represented our Grand Lodge at the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Texas which was held in the City of Waco.

In each instance we were extended every courtesy and consideration by the brethren in our sister Grand Jurisdictions and we shall always be grateful for the opportunity of enjoying their fine fellowship and hospitality. We hope that we may be able to reciprocate by having some of these good brethren with us in lovely Louisiana.

VISITS TO OTHER GRAND BODIES

(APPROVED. See page 206.)

On March 15, 16, 1953, I attended the Sessions of the Grand Chapter of Louisiana, Royal Arch Masons and the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Louisiana.

On March 23, 1953, I visited the Grand Session of the Grand Chapter of Louisiana, Order of the Eastern Star.

On April 6, 1953, I attended the Grand Session of the Grand Commandery of the Knights Templar of Louisiana.

On November 9, 1953, I attended the Grand Session of the Grand Order of the Amaranth of Louisiana.

In each instance, I was given a very cordial reception and extended every courtesy due the high office of Grand Master of Masons.

MASONIC EDUCATION

This has been a busy year for Masonic Education in our Grand Jurisdiction and our Committee on Masonic Education has done a most commendable job for us this year. We are grateful to those faithful men who have given so much of their time in the preparation of all of the educational material that they have made available to our brethren. I am especially indebted to them for they have most certainly made my job as Grand Master much easier. They have made it possible for me to satisfy to some extent the great yearning of our brethren for enlightenment and knowledge.

During the year, the Committee has distributed to each Lodge a set of the Booklets entitled—

Preparation
Entered Apprentice Degree
Fellowcraft Degree
Master Mason Degree

and it is our earnest hope that each Lodge will adopt the policy of presenting to each candidate a set of the books and that they will assure themselves that the material is read by the candidates before the degrees are conferred.

The Committee has also prepared an Officers Handbook. This you now have in your hands.

I am sure that you will agree that the Committee has provided you with new "Working Tools" which will enable you to better discharge the duties of your office and that study on your part will make you a better leader of your Lodge.

As I have said to you many times this year, avail yourselves of the help that our Committee is prepared to give you for the asking.

GRAND LECTURERS

During the year past it has been my pleasure to work very closely with our Grand Lecturers and I am very happy to report to you that they have been doing their best to bring to our Lodges perfection in our ritual. They furnished to me monthly reports of their visits to the various Lodges in which they gave certain information such as attendance by members and officers and performance of ritual, etc. It is amazing to me that so many of our Lodge Officers absent themselves from the meetings when the Grand Lecturer is present to instruct them in how to properly exemplify our ritual. This is especially true when we consider that almost twenty percent of our Grand Lodge budget is set aside each year for salary and expense of our Grand Lecturers. In order that we may justify this expenditure, it is imperative that our Lodges use to the fullest extent the services of these two brethren.

During the early part of the year, I enlisted the help of the Grand Lecturers in compiling a number of lectures that might be used in addition to our ritual in the conferring of the degrees and had them printed in book form. The lectures, when used in conjunction with our ritual, are very beautiful and instructive. A number of the books have been distributed to the Lodges and anyone wishing a copy may secure same from the Service Department.

MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN

During the years that I have served in the official line of the Grand Lodge, it has been my privilege to become intimately connected with the affairs of the Masonic Home, and the many hours that I have spent in the Home in the last few years has brought to me a greater realization and appreciation of this great thing that we Masons of Louisiana have wrought. Contemplate, my Brethren, that for more than a quarter of a century we have lovingly cared for dependent and helpless children who, through no fault of their own, were left stranded. We have watched over them as we would our own and have given them every opportunity to develop, and when the time came have sent them into the world in the glory of manhood and the beauty of womanhood to live useful lives and to adorn happy homes. Who knows but for us they might have been lost in the gutters of a busy world. Surely God, in His Wisdom and in His Mercy, was at the helm when the hearts and minds of the Masons conceived this haven wherein the tears of the hopeless might be dried and where they might be given security, sunshine and happiness.

For some years now our Home has not been operating near capacity and because of this fact our cost per child per year seems excessive at first glance. Further study of the matter brings to light that overhead charges remain constant regardless of the number of children in the Home. It would cost us very little more to double the number of children that we now have, and this statement brings me to a suggestion that I would like to make.

At the present time only those children with Masonic connections are admitted to the Home and this regulation has brought criticism to our fraternity in the past. A great many of us feel that we have a facility that we are not using to its fullest extent and that, under those circumstances, it is very selfish for us to deprive some orphan child of our help simply because they do not have Masonic connections. I urge that our Grand Lodge give serious consideration to amending our regulations for admittance to the home so that a certain percentage of children might be taken in who do not qualify in regard to Masonic connection.

GRAND LODGE LIBRARY

Last year Grand Master Dabezies found our Grand Lodge Library in a very disorganized condition with many of the books in need of repair and in order to correct the condition, appointed a Library Commission to work with our Grand Secretary, who is the Grand Lodge Librarian, whose duty it was to improve the situation. These brethren did such fine work during the year, and as their work was not complete, I decided that the Commission should be continued. Accordingly, I made the necessary appointments and they have worked diligently again this year to continue the improvements to our Library. All brethren are urged to make use of this fine asset that is available.

DEPARTMENT OF LODGE EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES

(APPROVED. See page 218.)

Our Department of Lodge Equipment and Supplies continues to operate in a satisfactory manner and is making a profit. The department was set up in the beginning so that Lodges would be able to secure all necessary supplies at a reasonable cost. It has fulfilled its function very successfully and the brethren who operate the department are certainly to be commended for their faithful performance. We urge all Lodges to make use of the facilities for all of their supplies.

SPECIAL EVENTS

There were so many special events during the year which I attended that a great deal of space would be consumed in writing about them and would not add any value to this report. Suffice it to say that I certainly enjoyed every minute of every occasion that was arranged in my honor and in every instance the brethren could not do enough to make me happy. I shall always cherish those fine meetings and the fond memories will remain with me. I only mention one meeting and that is the one that Yellow Pine, my home Lodge, held for me on Alex Stephens day on May 31, 1953 in Oakdale, Louisiana.

On that day my Lodge was host to the 10th Masonic District Lodge and the brethren came from all corners of the State to enjoy with us the meeting. There were more than 600 present and because of the number, the meeting was held in the First Baptist Church. This is my own Church and you will understand my pride as I sat in that beautiful building while Most Worshipful Brother J. Luther Jordan, Past Grand Master of Masons, spoke to us of things that are near and dear to the heart of every Mason. I shall forever be grateful to my Brethren for the fine gesture of this meeting.

(APPROVED. See page 206.)

This fine organization continues to render service to brethren in distress as it has for nearly one hundred years. There is no way of calculating the great amount of good that the brethren of Louisiana Relief Lodge 1 accomplish for those unfortunate brethren who suffer distress and sorrow while in our midst. We sincerely commend this group for their fine work and wish for them continued success as they near the Centennial of their organization which comes on July 1, 1954.

I was very happy that it was possible for me to visit this Lodge on July 19, 1953 and enjoy the fellowship of these good brethren.

MASONIC RELIEF ASSOCIATION
OF THE
UNITED STATES AND CANADA

(APPROVED. See page 206.)

Our Grand Lodge has been a member of the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada since its inception in 1885 and I know that I need not recount again to you the great work that has been done by this splendid organization during its 69 years of existence. It will suffice to report that it continues to carry on in its traditional manner in restoring peace to the troubled bosom and relieving distress of worthy brethren wherever they may be without the hope of fee or reward other than the knowledge and satisfaction of a duty well done. The Brethren of these United States and Canada who are giving of their time and talents in this undertaking are worthy of our highest commendation and encouragement.

At our last Session, Grand Master recommended that the Masonic Relief Association be invited to hold its next biennial meeting in the City of New Orleans. The recommendation was approved and it was my pleasure, while attending the biennial meeting of the Association being held in Nashville, Tennessee, on September 14-15, 1953, to extend the invitation which was accepted and now we look forward to the pleasure of having these brethren in our midst in 1955.

For those of us from Louisiana who attended the meeting in Nashville last September, the highlight was reached when our own Grand Secretary, Right Worshipful Brother D. Peter Laguens, Jr., was unanimously elected President of the organization. We rejoice with him in this well deserved honor and offer him our heartiest congratulations and wish for him a successful administration.

SHRINE DIRECTORS ASSOCIATION

(APPROVED. See page 206.)

I am happy that I was able to visit the Shrine Directors Association of North America during their convention held in New Orleans on March 30, 31 and April 1, 2, 1953, and to extend to them the greetings and felicitations of the Grand Lodge and to offer them our encouragement in their laudable undertaking in behalf of crippled children.

This group of men is composed of active workers of all the Shrine Temples of the United States, Canada and Mexico and there were more than 2500 in attendance during the meeting.

While in their midst, I was officially received and extended every courtesy due the high office of Grand Master of Masons.

GRAND LODGE TEMPLE

A serious problem is now facing your Grand Lodge Hall Board in the matter of rental of the commercial space in our Temple. For several years now we have had all of the available space in the building with the exception of the ground floor leased to the Federal Government. This lease will expire in September of this year and at the time of the writing of this report we have not had an expression from the government in regard to their intentions upon expiration of the present lease. I am sure that you have full confidence in the Brethren who serve on your Hall Board and I know that they will continue to do all in their power to secure for us the best lease possible.

GRAND LODGE FINANCES

At our last Session a Resolution was introduced to increase the amount that each lodge must pay to the Grand Lodge for each member borne on its register by the sum of $1.00. The matter was referred to this Grand Session for action. In due time you will be called upon to render a decision, and I urge you to give serious consideration to the welfare of your Grand Lodge. Be not hasty in your judgment. Weigh all of the factors that are involved. Remember that whatever happens to your Grand Lodge, be it good or not, will, in the end, reflect on your lodge and on you. Mark well your decision for you hold within your power the future of your Grand Lodge.

COMMISSIONS ISSUED

LODGES CONSTITUTED

(APPROVED. See page 204.)

The Grand Lodge at its 1953 Session granted Charters to four Lodges. Emergent Communications of the Grand Lodge were called and the Lodges were constituted in accordance with Masonic Law as listed below, to-wit:

February 15, 1953—Sunset Lodge No. 438, Shreveport, La.

February 15, 1953—Lebanon Lodge No. 440, Shreveport, La.

March 8, 1953—Cameron Lodge No. 439, Cameron, La.

DUPLICATE CHARTERS ISSUED

(APPROVED. See page 209.)

Request received from Eros Lodge 295 for a duplicate Charter for their Lodge as the original had been severely damaged by a storm. The request was granted and a duplicate Charter was issued.

Request received from Caddo Lodge 179 for a duplicate Charter for their Lodge as the original was in such condition that it was impossible to read same. The request was granted.

Request received from Unity Lodge 267 for a duplicate Charter for their Lodge as the original was in such a deteriorated condition that it was impossible to read same. The request was granted.

LODGE HALLS DEDICATED

(APPROVED. See page 207.)

On invitation, Emergent Communications of the Grand Lodge were called and the following Lodge Halls dedicated, to-wit:

June 27, 1953—Hall of Montgomery Lodge 168, Montgomery, La.

August 22, 1953—Hall of Vivian Lodge 314, Vivian, La.

August 23, 1953—Hall of Cypress Lodge 89, Benton, La.

October 25, 1953—Hall of Amite City Lodge 175, Amite, La.

December 11, 1953—Hall of St. Helena Lodge 96, Greensburg, La.

It was impossible for me to be present for the Dedication Ceremony of St. Helena Lodge and our Deputy Grand Master, Clarence Beasley officiated in my stead. I am appreciative for his help in this instance.

CORNERSTONES LAID

(APPROVED. See page 207.)

On invitation, Emergent Communications of the Grand Lodge were called and the following Cornerstones laid to-wit:

April 11, 1953—Laying of cornerstone of Cypress Lodge 89, Benton, La.

April 12, 1953—Laying of cornerstone of Vivian Lodge 314, Vivian, La.

May 24, 1953—Laying of cornerstone of Andrew Jackson Lodge 428, Arabi, La.

June 24, 1953—Laying of cornerstone of Amite City Lodge 175, Amite, La.

August 15, 1953—Laying of cornerstone of St. Helena Lodge 96, Greensburg, La.

October 4, 1953—Laying of cornerstone of Assumption Lodge 307, Thibodaux, La.

December 5, 1953—Laying of cornerstone of Spring Creek Lodge 184, Spring Creek, La.

These were all enjoyable occasions in the lives of the respective Lodges and attest to progress of them.

CENTENNIAL PLAQUES

(APPROVED. See page 207.)

The following Centennial Plaques were presented during my administration.

June 6, 1953—Urim Lodge 111, Calhoun, La.

August 23, 1953—Cypress Lodge 89, Benton, La.

January 17, 1954—Delhi Lodge 120, Delhi, La.

January 24, 1954—Milford Lodge 117, Hope Villa, La.

I accepted early in the year an invitation from Acacia Lodge at Plaquemine to present to them their Plaque and so I was not able to be present when Delhi celebrated their centennial. I appointed as my representative for the presentation, Brother Howard C. Wailes, D.D.G.M. of the 7th Masonic District.

I was grateful for the opportunity of making the presentation to the other four Lodges and shall always cherish fond memories of these splendid occasions in the lives of these fine old Lodges. As they enter upon their second hundred years of service, we wish for them success and happiness along with growth.

DISPENSATIONS

(APPROVED. See Comments by Committee, pages 208, 209.)

Seventy-three dispensations have been granted and two refused during the year. File covering these matters have been turned over to the Committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence for review and report to the Grand Lodge.

DISPENSATIONS GRANTED: 414, 408, 413, 300, 96, 102, 231, 402, 440, 231, 364, 89, 301, 242, 300, 425, 110, 188, 302, 314, 406, 89, 96, 47, 243, 175, 47, Central U. D., Baker, U. D., 251, 174, 175, 350, 312, 101, 338, 70, 261, 174, 413, 84, 356, 248, Westlake, U. D., 184, 98, 240, 261, 96, 84, Metairie, U. D., 417, 231, 24, 106, 102.

Blanket to remove Charters to be Plastercized—28, 47, 51, 111, 179, 191, 208, 267, 282, 295, 324, 373, 397, 399, 425, 428, 437.

DISPENSATIONS REFUSED: 337 and 411.

(APPROVED. See page 209.)

ONE STORY LODGE BUILDINGS

The erection of One Story Lodge Halls was authorized at our 1953 session. Accordingly, in order to assist our Lodges in the preparation of plans for these types of structures, I appointed Brothers Robert L. Miller and Frank L. Miller on a committee to prepare suggested plans, which they did and several were furnished Lodges on request.

My thanks and appreciation are extended them for this fine service.

PERMISSION GRANTED

(APPROVED with one exception. See page 209.)

To secretaries of Baton Rouge Lodge to furnish mailing list of members to Grand Consistory so that they might be invited to annual banquet with understanding that no solicitation would be made or that Grand Lodge sponsorship would not be inferred.

To Baton Rouge Lodge 372 to purchase lot on Florida Avenue in Baton Rouge, Louisiana for the purpose of erection of temple.

To Capitol Lodge 399 to purchase lot on Florida Avenue in Baton Rouge, Louisiana for the purpose of erection of temple.

To Grand Consistory of Louisiana to mail invitations to Master Masons in Baton Rouge area for a supper meeting to be held in Baton Rouge on July 20th.

To Grangeville Lodge 231 to purchase building from the St. Helena Parish School Board for $1,000. Said building to be used as Lodge room.

To Greater New Orleans Masonic Assembly to write member Lodges in New Orleans for contributions to finance operations.

To Jerusalem Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S. to mail books of tickets to all Masons in the New Orleans area for the Shrine Circus.

To Jerusalem Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S. for the Baton Rouge Shrine Club to mail books of tickets to all Masons in the Baton Rouge area for the Shrine Circus to be held in Baton Rouge.

To Baton Rouge Lodge 372 and Capitol Lodge 399 to purchase lot on Florida Avenue in Baton Rouge for the purpose of erecting a building thereon. Said permission given in lieu of first request granted because of fact that first lot was not purchased.

To Springcreek Lodge 184 to meet in their new building before completion so that old building might be torn down and materials salvaged to be used in the new building.

To Baton Rouge Lodge 372 to purchase lot on Florida Avenue alone since Capitol Lodge did not wish to enter into the transaction at this time.

To District Deputy to talk to Lodges in the 13th Masonic District in behalf of help to St. Helena Lodge 96 in the building of their temple. Approval having been obtained from said Lodge.

To 13th District for adoption of resolution asking brethren to register and vote their convictions and to mail members of the district copy of said resolution.

To St. Helena Lodge 96 to sell a portion of its property to the Town of Greensburg.

To Springcreek Lodge 184 to sell old Lodge building instead of wrecking same to use in new building.

To Vivian Lodge 314 to make loan at local bank for $5,000.00 to complete air-conditioning in new building.

To Broadmoor Lodge 432 to pass second stated communication because it came on Christmas day. (NOT APPROVED. See page 209.)

To Committee on Recreation Room in the Grand Lodge Building to mail letter to New Orleans Lodges asking for help for maintenance.

For new construction and repair of Lodge Halls: 89, 428, 164, 96, 175, 282, 432, 307, 184, 263, 314.

REQUESTS REFUSED

(APPROVED. See page 209.)

Of the Grand Consistory of Louisiana to place posters in the ante rooms of our various Lodges in the Temple. It has not been our practice to allow posters of any description in our ante rooms in the past and we do not wish to start now.

Of Eastern Star Lodge 151 to own and operate a perpetual upkeep cemetery. I felt that this Lodge should not obligate itself in such a manner.

Of Sunset Lodge 438 to participate in a booth to be operated by the Ladies Oriental Shrine of Shreveport wherein food would be sold at the State Fair.

Of Saints John Lodge 153 to predate a 50-year certificate as of April 23, 1954 in order that the presentation might be made to the brother in December, 1953.

Of John C. Ayers Lodge 437 to contact other Lodges in the Lake Charles area in order to learn what contributions would be made should they decide to build a Temple.

Correspondence in connection with the above matters has been filed with the Committee on Law and Jurisprudence for their review and report to the Grand Lodge.

NEW BY-LAWS AND AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

(APPROVED. See page 209.)

The following Lodges have submitted By-Laws and Amendments to By-Laws which have been handled as follows:

BY-LAWS APPROVED: 120, 156, 135, 268, 372, 436, 277, 437, 439, 65, 46, 340, 217, 31, 240, 9th Masonic District, Central Lodge, U. D., Baker Lodge, U. D.

AMENDMENTS APPROVED: 89, 191, 160, 314, 311, 98, 253, 412, 307, 414, 243, 19, 305, 396, 419, 426, 144, 282, 24, 400, 383, 437, 165, 24, 314, 308, 172, 314, 263, 250, 15th Masonic District.

BY-LAWS DISAPPROVED: 386, 340, 70, Resubmitted 70.

AMENDMENTS DISAPPROVED: 46, 24.

All papers in connection with the above matters have been submitted to the Committee on Law and Jurisprudence for review and report to the Grand Lodge.

APPOINTMENTS TO FILL VACANCIES

(APPROVED. See page 209.)

Soon after the close of our Grand Lodge Session last year I completed the appointment of all Grand Lodge Committees. The list of appointments was printed in our Proceedings. Since that time it has been necessary to fill the following vacancies:

Upon the death of Brother R. L. Gay, Past Master of Zwolle Lodge 302, Brother John F. Fry, Sr., Past Master of Silent Brotherhood 146, was appointed to the Committee on State of the Order.

August 20, 1953—Brother W. W. Brewer, the District Deputy of the 11th Masonic District, sent in his resignation due to ill health, and therefore I appointed Brother K. C. Tittsworth, of Aurora Lodge No. 193, as the District Deputy Grand Master of the 11th Masonic District.

March 31, 1953—Brother Henri Wehrmann, Louisiana 102 as Grand Organist, Vice Earle S. Rice, deceased. I then appointed Brother H. Barnes Turner, Louisiana 102 as Associate Grand Organist.

I also made additions to Greater New Orleans Masonic Blood Bank Committee:

July 2, 1953—Mercer D. Jones, P.M., New Orleans, Fidelity 426.

Thos. D. Jenkins, Gretna, Wm. D. White 408.

Henry Clay Benson, New Orleans, Jefferson 191.

RULINGS

(All with exception of No. 7 and No. 10 Approved, No. 7 was DISAPPROVED. No. 10 was modified after report of Committee on Appeals and Grievances. See pages 202 and 209.)

The rulings that I have made this year are listed below and the files covering them have been delivered to the Committee on Law and Jurisprudence.

Ruling No. 1—

DeRidder Lodge 271

Request:

Should the Lodge receive a petition from a soldier living on the reservation of Camp Polk, Louisiana, notifying all Lodges within a radius of 25 miles of DeRidder or should the Lodge request a waiver of jurisdiction from Leesville and Rosepine Lodges.

I ruled that Camp Polk, Louisiana is in the jurisdiction of Leesville Lodge and that before De Ridder Lodge can receive a petition from a soldier living on that reservation, it would be necessary to secure waiver of jurisdiction from Leesville Lodge.

Ruling No. 2—

1st District Lodge

Request:

Upon being asked to install the Officers elected in the District Lodge, I learned that a Deputy Worshipful Master had been elected by the District Lodge.

I ruled that a District Lodge could not have the Office of Deputy Worshipful Master included in its corps of officers.

Ruling No. 3—

Oliver Lodge 84

Request:

An individual had been elected to receive the Entered Apprentice Degree in Oliver Lodge, and, since the candidate was out of the State, a Lodge in Georgia was asked to confer the degree as a courtesy. The Georgia Lodge, not being familiar with our jurisprudence, conferred all three degrees on the candidate and so notified Oliver Lodge. Oliver Lodge was granted a dispensation to ballot upon the candidate for the two remaining degrees in order to heal the matter. Upon ballot, the candidate was rejected for the Fellow Craft Degree. They now wish to know the status of the individual.

I ruled that the individual is an Entered Apprentice Mason and that the degrees conferred by the Georgia Lodge are null and void. The candidate will have the right to reapply six months after the date of rejection.

Ruling No. 4—

William D. White Lodge 408

Request:

A registered letter was mailed to Brother ——— during the month of August, 1952 advising him that he owed dues to the Lodge for two years and directing him to pay same within 90 days, or give satisfactory excuse for inability to pay, or suffer suspension for non-payment of dues. The letter was never delivered and was returned to the Lodge. On December 4, 1952, the brother was suspended for non-payment of dues. The Brother appeals to me for relief.

I ruled that the Lodge had erred in suspending Brother ——— for non-payment of dues and that, since he had not received the registered letter of notice, he should have been dropped from the rolls of the Lodge for the reason of address unknown. I further ruled that the Lodge should collect all dues owing from Brother ————— and place his name back on the roll of the Lodge.

Ruling No. 5—

Shreveport Lodge 115

Request:

This Lodge, through a duly constituted Committee, required of me a ruling as to the Masonic legality of the financial transactions of the Masonic Building Company of Shreveport, especially noting whether or not the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Building Company has the right, power and authority to set up a reserve fund of $60,000.00 of the cash or liquid assets of the Masonic Building Company, or to set up any other fund or reserve, or to make investments, or to enter into any unusual business transactions other than the administration of the ordinary affairs connected with the income and expenses of the Masonic Temple and Masonic cemeteries without the consent and approval of the Lodges owning the stock of the Masonic Building Company, expressed in advance or later indicated by ratification of such actions.

Upon investigation, I learned that the Masonic Building Company had been organized by the Lodges in Shreveport, and that they owned all of the stock outstanding; that the company had obtained from the State of Louisiana a Charter sometime during the year 1910 and that it had been operating since that time with its Charter having been amended several times; that the said Charter provided for representation in its management from the Lodges concerned in proportion to the amount of stock owned by each; that these Lodge representatives were elected by the Lodges each year and served with staggered terms of office; that the representatives were empowered in the Charter provisions to have official management of the affairs of the corporation and whose authority to administer all financial matters to be full and final.

Therefore, I ruled that the Masonic Building Company of Shreveport, Louisiana, through its duly elected Lodge representatives, is in full authority to administer its affairs without ratification or approval of the Lodges concerned.

Ruling No. 6—

Alexandria Lodge 398

Request:

Is it necessary for Curtis T. Hines Lodge 317 of Tioga, Louisiana to secure a waiver of jurisdiction from the Lodges in Alexandria, Louisiana before it can receive the petition of an applicant, who is a resident of the City of Alexandria, working as a Federal employee in the Veteran's Hospital near Tioga, Louisiana?

I ruled that Curtis T. Hines must secure a waiver of jurisdiction from the Alexandria Lodges before it can receive the petition of the applicant under the conditions described.

Ruling No. 7—

(DISAPPROVED. See page 209.)

Osiris Lodge 300

Request:

A resident of the Rigolets in New Orleans petitioned Slidell Lodge 311, Slidell, Louisiana and was elected to receive the Entered Apprentice Degree. The Degree was conferred and the petitioner was later rejected for advancement by the Lodge. He now petitions Osiris Lodge 300, New Orleans, Louisiana in which he states that he is a resident of the City of New Orleans and was a resident of the City of New Orleans at the time he first petitioned Slidell Lodge. The claim is made that Slidell Lodge received the petition in error.

Investigation proved that the applicant lives on the Mississippi side of the Rigolets and that he lived on that side of the Rigolets when he petitioned Slidell Lodge and that the Mississippi side of the Rigolets is in the City of New Orleans. Therefore, the applicant is a resident, and was a resident at the time he petitioned Slidell Lodge, of the City of New Orleans.

I ruled that Slidell Lodge had received the petition in error and that Osiris Lodge may receive the petition for advancement and process same without the necessity of obtaining waiver of jurisdiction from Slidell Lodge. And that Slidell Lodge must surrender the fee received for the Entered Apprentice Degree to Osiris Lodge 300.

Ruling No. 8—

Rosepine Lodge 290

Request:

I was asked by this Lodge to rule on the legality of the Installation of the Officers of the Lodge at a Public Installation held on December 5, 1953 because the Master had called the Lodge to refreshment during the ceremony as there were ladies present.

I ruled that, since the Grand Lodge Law permits Public Installations, with or without the Order of the Eastern Star, the Officers of the Lodge would be legally installed at such a ceremony regardless of whether the Master had called the Lodge to refreshment or labor.

Ruling No. 9—

Harrisonburg Lodge 110

Request:

An applicant for the Degrees was accepted by this Lodge and he received the Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft and the Master Mason Degrees in the regular manner. It was later learned that he had made a false statement in his petition and the Lodge voted to erase his name from the rolls and returned his fee.

You now advise that the individual wishes to apply for reinstatement and you ask me to rule on the number of votes required in the Lodge to elect him to membership.

I ruled that if this individual wishes to apply for admittance to the Lodge, it will be necessary for him to make a new application which must contain full explanation of the previous occurrence, and the application may be received by the Lodge and allowed to take its regular course in accordance with Masonic Law covering new applications.

Ruling No. 10—

(Modified. See report of Committee on Appeals and Grievances. Page 202.)

Orange Lodge 319

Request:

I received a letter of protest from M:W: Brother John McKee, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, advising that our Orange Lodge 319 of Anacoco, Louisiana had invaded the Grand Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Texas when they conferred the Degrees on Brother _____.

Upon investigation, I learned that the applicant had stated in his petition that he was a resident of Pasadena, Texas for the twelve months prior to the date of his petition. I also learned that on the night the petition was received, our 8th Masonic District Deputy Grand Master was present and questioned the right of the Lodge to receive the petition and was told that the applicant was a resident of Anacoco, Louisiana.

Further investigation proved that the applicant had been a resident of Pasadena, Texas for more than six years; that he was married and living in his own home in that city and that he voted there. He had been employed by a company in that city for more than six years.

When it became evident that our Orange Lodge had invaded the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Texas, I addressed a letter of apology to M:W: Brother John McKee, Grand Master of Masons of Texas and to the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the State of Texas.

The apology was very graciously accepted by Brother McKee and in agreement with him, I made the following ruling:

That Orange Lodge 319 should write a letter of apology to Pasadena Lodge 1155 of Pasadena, Texas in which they would give complete information in regard to the processing of the applicant and that they would enclose a check for the full amount of the fees collected. And that the brother's name was to be removed from the rolls of the Lodge as he would become a member of Pasadena Lodge.

Clarifications:

There were a number of requests for ruling during the year that did not require a ruling from me but simply a direction of where the rule might be found in the Handbook of Masonic Law. These are not listed as it would serve no purpose other than to demonstrate the fact that the brethren do not attempt, in many instances, to find the law before writing the Grand Master for rulings.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. There is included in the Grand Lodge budget of expenses an item entitled "Traveling, Grand Officers" and it is meant to cover the expenses of the Deputy Grand Master, Grand Senior Warden, Grand Junior Warden and Grand Secretary while traveling pursuant to their duties in connection with Emergent Communications of the Grand Lodge. I recommend that this item of expense be broken down in the budget so that a stipulated amount shall be set aside for each of the above named Officers of the Grand Lodge.

(APPROVED. See page 219.)

2. Our present supply of Monitors is almost exhausted and it will be necessary that a new printing be provided for in this year. Our Monitor should be so arranged as to assure that it will follow very closely the ritual as practiced in our Grand Jurisdiction and, for that reason, I recommend that it be placed under the direct supervision of our Permanent Committee on Work and our Grand Lecturers.

(APPROVED. See page 211.)

3. The Louisiana Freemason Magazine has now been published five years by our Grand Lodge. In the beginning, there were four issues each year but because of the excessive cost only two issues were made this year. The brethren who are charged with this work have not been able to give us the kind of a magazine that we would like to have because they have not had the necessary funds with which to work. They have done a very fine job with such funds as were available. However, I find that a great many brethren over the State feel that we are not getting value received for this publication and that we should discontinue printing it for the time being. I, therefore, recommend that we discontinue the publication of the magazine and that a sub-committee be appointed to work with the Masonic Education Committee to make a survey and study of the feasibility of providing for our brethren a magazine on a subscription basis, said committee to be appointed by the incoming Grand Master and they to make report of their findings and recommendations at our next Grand Lodge Session.

4. In several instances this year, I have had to grant dispensations to our Lodges to ballot and re-obligate brethren who had received the degrees in our sister jurisdictions as a courtesy. This condition was brought about by the fact the Lodge conferring the degree did not realize that we require a separate ballot for each degree. Upon checking into the matter, I learned that of the forty-nine jurisdictions in the United States, only five, including our own, now require a separate ballot for each degree. In other words, forty-three of our sister jurisdictions ballot on a candidate for all three degrees at one time. Our nearby sister jurisdictions having only one ballot includes Arkansas, Mississippi and Texas. It would seem to me that this plan might have merit for us in our jurisdiction, provided certain protective features were included in the legislation affecting the one ballot plan. In order that we may have the benefit of further study in this matter, I recommend that the incoming Grand Master appoint a committee to make a full study of the plan and report to us at our next Grand Session.

(APPROVED. See page 209.)

5. When M:W: Brother Robert W. Cretney was Grand Master, it became necessary to reprint the Handbook of Masonic Law and it was prepared in looseleaf form. All dead legislation was removed and it only contained live legislation. The book has been kept up-to-date by the removal and insertion of the looseleaf sheets each year. There is no longer any need for a supplement to that book. However, we continue to print a supplement to our 1933 Code, a book which is long out of date and which contains legislation which has been repealed or amended any number of times. Since all of our law is in the Handbook I see no reason why we should continue to print a supplement to our 1933 Code. It is hard enough for us, who are not lawyers, to find the law in one book and for us to try to use three books simply adds to our confusion and frustration. I recommend that we discontinue the printing of the supplement to the 1933 Code and that we use the Handbook of Masonic Law which contains all of our Grand Lodge law.

6. The monthly report of work of Lodges mailed from the Grand Secretary's office are of very little value to our Lodges and is most expensive, likewise entails considerable clerical work. It is also a duplication of most of the information furnished annually by the Lodges.

After consultation with our Grand Secretary, I recommend that the monthly report furnished the Lodges by the Grand Secretary's office be eliminated. I would also suggest that the Grand Secretary devise a plan whereby the Lodges report to him monthly on a prepared form, similar to the information required in the present annual return of Lodges. The annual reports would be made from a recapitulation of the monthly reports furnished the Grand Secretary, thereby eliminating the necessity of the Lodges furnishing an annual report in its present form.

(APPROVED. See pages 204, 205.)

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There are so many of my Brethren who extended the helping hand to me during the year that if I should try to acknowledge each one separately page after page of this report would be filled. I say to you, my Brethren, with all of the sincerity at my command, and with all of the love that is in my heart for you, thanks, thanks a million.

I am grateful to the Line Officers who have served with me, as well as the District Deputy Grand Masters and Committee Members. To all of you, I offer my sincere thanks. To the workhorse of the Grand Lodge, Right Worshipful Brother D. Peter Laguens, Jr., Grand Secretary, I am most deeply indebted, and I am glad that through the long nights and weary days he was by my side, ever ready with his wise counsel and good advice.

And finally I come to that group of men who have served this Grand Lodge in years gone by with distinction and honor—our Past Grand Masters. No man will ever know how heavily I have leaned on them for support, nor how many pitfalls I might have encountered along the way had it not been for their guidance, their counsel and their encouragement. All the days of my life, I shall carry in my heart of hearts a prayer of thankfulness and of love for them.

CONCLUSION

As I approach the end of this report, I find it hard to express to you the feelings in my heart. It may be that these few lines written by the poet to his Master will give you understanding—

“O, Master Builder, here I bring
This ashlar as my offering—
This block entrusted to my care—
O, try it by Thy faultless square.
Prove Thou the stone which I have brought,
Judge Thou the task my hands have wrought—
My hands unskilled! Ah, much I fear
Their work imperfect shall appear.

“O, Master, grant this boon to me;
Unworthy though my stone may be,
Cast it not utterly away,
But let it rest beside the way
Where its grave flaws may warning be
To him who follows after me,
If he thereby my faults may shun,
I'll feel some grain of worth I've won.”

And so it is, my Brethren, if perchance I have contributed something worthwhile, though imperfect it may be, to my fellowman and to our beloved Fraternity, I will have received my reward in this labor of love.

Whatever the future may hold in store for me, I shall never cease to be grateful for the privileges, the honors and the opportunities for service to my fellowman that you have sent my way.

Fraternally submitted,

A. L. STEPHENS,

Grand Master.

REPORT OF THE GRAND SECRETARY

The Grand Secretary, R:W: Bro. D. Peter Laguens, Jr., made the following report, which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

This office is again privileged to render a report of the year's activities and the accomplishments of the Fraternity in our State.

Proceedings Published

Immediately after the close of the last Annual Communication, this office began the preparation of copy for the printing of our Annual Proceedings. After the completion of same a copy was mailed to all Grand Lodge officers, Past Grand Masters, Committee members, and to each of the constituent Lodges in the State, as also to the Grand Lodges in fraternal relations with us.

Rosters

We continue to print the full rosters each year. This practice is of benefit to both the Lodges and this office because the membership roster is kept current each year. Continued inaccuracies developed in the preparation of the rosters of the 1953 Proceedings and if the secretaries will carefully check the proof copy when received from this office, it will greatly assist them in keeping their roster of membership and the records in this office correct.

District Deputy Grand Masters

By authority of our Grand Master, the usual Commissions for the District Deputy Grand Masters throughout the State, were issued by this office.

Certificates

Certificates were authorized issued to all elected and appointed officers, as well as committeemen and holders of proficiency certificates, indicating their election or appointment as such.

Twenty-five and Fifty-Year Certificates

By authority of the Grand Lodge, my office personnel continues to prepare gold and silver certificates for brothers entitled to same and requested by the lodges interested. This service is available to all the lodges without cost. All that is necessary is to send in the name, the date of raising, which will be checked in this office and the certificates furnished without cost through the courtesy of the Service Committee. Since it entails considerable time to verify the records of those eligible, the requests for same should be filed with my office far in advance of the date scheduled for the presentation of the Certificates.

Centennial Plaques

These plaques are available for all Lodges celebrating their Centennials. Several Lodges have failed to celebrate their Centennials. Plaques have been made and await the pleasure of those Lodges. The Resolution of authority requires them to be presented by the Grand Master or his representative.

Monthly Circular

The customary Monthly Circular to cover reports from the secretaries of the work done by the various lodges throughout the State has been regularly issued. Special items or notes of interest to the Craft have been added to these reports and we call attention to the necessity of furnishing this office promptly with a report of the work performed by the lodge at the end of the month. I expect to inaugurate a new system of monthly reports, wherein complete information can be furnished, thereby eliminating a repetition at the end of the year. The annual report will contain only a recapitulation of the figures, but not the names, etc. We again call your attention to the necessity of furnishing age information which is of value when this office is requested to furnish such information to a brother to support his age information for Social Security or Old Age benefit purposes.

Louisiana Freemason

By authority of the Grand Lodge, this publication was issued three (3) times during 1953 and distributed to all the members of our lodges without cost to the members or the lodge. This was done under the supervision of the Committee on Masonic Education and under the Editorship of Brother Clark W. Booth, assisted by your Grand Secretary.

Commissions Issued and Received

The Grand Master's report will give you a complete list of all Commissions issued and received during this Masonic year.

Certificates of Good Standing

Certificates of good standing have been issued on request to members of defunct lodges.

Lodges Under Dispensation

By authority of Grand Master Stephens dispensations were issued to four (4) new lodges. Dates and details in Grand Master's report.

Lodges Constituted

By authority of the 1953 Grand Lodge session four (4) Lodges were constituted. Dates and details in Grand Master's report.

Forfeiture of Charter

None.

Consolidation of Lodges

None.

Duplicate Charters

The following Duplicate Charters have been issued on approval of the Grand Master:

Nov. 17, 1953—Unity 267, Houma, La., old charter in deteriorated condition.

March 15, 1953—Caddo 179, Shreveport, La., old charter in deteriorated condition.

May 28, 1953—Eros 295, Eros, La., original charter destroyed.

Corner Stones Laid

Upon invitation, seven (7) corner stones were laid:

See Grand Master's report for dates and details.

Lodge Halls Dedicated

Five (5) Lodge Halls were dedicated.

See Grand Master's report for dates and details.

Lodges Delinquent

None.

Lodges Failing to File Returns

None.

Visitations

It was my pleasure to visit many of the Lodges in the City of New Orleans thruout the year, as also in several sections of the State.

I was also privileged to make the following out of state visitations: Grand Lodges of Illinois, Georgia, Alabama, and Texas.

I also attended the Biennial Session of the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada. At Nashville, Tenn., Louisiana was honored when your humble servant was elevated to the Presidency of that Association. Their 1955 session will be held in the City of New Orleans.

It was my pleasure to journey with our Grand Master to Washington, D. C. to attend the several Conferences and meetings held in our Nation's Capitol February of last year. I consider these meetings of great value to our Grand Lodge.

Statistics for Louisiana for 1953

We are happy to again report an increase in our membership. The Lodges thruout the State have been constantly busy with Degree Work and from the reports received this condition will continue.

REPORT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN

The Chairman of the Board of Trustees Masonic Home for Children, M:W: Bro. Edwin F. Gayle, made the following report, which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

We are pleased to report the conclusion of another most happy and successful year under the supervision of Rev. Bro. A. A. McKnight. He has at all times been most agreeable and cooperative. We are indeed fortunate in having a man of such fine character and benevolence as superintendent of the moral and physical well-being of our children. While his discipline has been firm and strict, he has tempered it with fatherly love, affection and understanding, and a zealous devotion to the well-being of our children. His benign influence is evidenced by a remarkable increase in the happiness and apparent contentment of our Home family.

For the wonderful improvement in the appearance of the buildings and grounds, we owe special thanks to the Home and Grounds Committee. Bros. A. L. Stephens, W. S. Kingrey and H. W. Palfrey, who compose that Committee, have devoted much of their time to the supervision of repairs and improvements and by their knowledge and business acumen, have rendered a valuable service and save much in the actual cost of these improvements. We are indeed grateful to these brothers and are hopeful that they may find it possible to continue this valuable service.

The Board desires to express its grateful appreciation of the many and valuable gifts from individual brothers, Lodges, Eastern Star Chapters, District Lodges and other Masonic and allied bodies, particular acknowledgment of which appears in the reports of Bro. George A. Treadwell and Bro. A. A. McKnight, but we feel that we must repeat here our especial appreciation of the gift of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, whose annual Homecoming is an occasion of joy and happiness and fraternal association.

Frequent letters and inquiries are addressed to the Superintendent of the Home and to members of the Board as to the rules governing admissions to the Home and regulations governing the conduct of the children in the Home, their management and control, and their contact with friends, relatives and visitors, and their discharge from the Home.

For the information of all members of the Craft and all parties concerned, we beg to submit the following rules which have been adopted by the Board for the admission and discharge of children:

1. A child whose father is (or was at the time of his death) a member in good standing in a Lodge of Master Masons, under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, F. & A. M., will be given preference for admission to the Masonic Home. A child who is dependent upon a grandfather who is a member in good standing in a Louisiana Masonic Lodge, may, in the discretion of the Board, be admitted. Applications for the admission of children of Louisiana Masons who are (or were at their death) suspended N.P.D. will be considered by the Board when all the facts surrounding their suspension are given.

2. The Lodge of which the father is (or was at the time of his death) a member, or of which the grandfather is a member, shall make the application for the admission of the child, but facts not known to said Lodge may be certified by the Lodge nearest the residence of the child. Regular application forms for admission will be furnished by the Superintendent of the Home to a Master, Warden or Secretary of a lodge upon request. The Master and Secretary will execute the application, answering all questions as fully as possible, and supplementing any additional information which, in their opinion, would be of value to the Board of Trustees and the Superintendent in determining the eligibility of the child and in dealing with it, should it be admitted.

3. When the application forms for admission have been properly filled out, executed and returned to the Superintendent, he will make, or cause to be made, an investigation and in turn will present the application, together with his findings and recommendations, to the Committee on Admissions for final action. No child will be admitted until the Lodge has been notified that the application has been passed upon favorably.

4. Children who are afflicted with tuberculosis or any other infectious or contagious disease, or who are deaf, blind or dumb, or who are of unsound mind, or in need of hospital treatment will not be admitted.

5. A child having property sufficient to maintain and educate it will not be received, unless there is an emergency justifying the same.

6. Children who are under three years of age, or who have passed their twelfth birthday, will not be admitted, except by consent of the Board.

7. Since the Home is not a correctional agency, Lodges are earnestly urged not to recommend incorrigibles, and if one should be admitted through misrepresentation he will not be retained in the Home.

8. It is the prerogative of the Board of Trustees to refuse to accept any child, or to discharge any child at any time that it is deemed best to do so.

9. Children may be allowed to remain in the Home until they are 16 years of age or until they graduate from high school, provided they are earnest students and conduct themselves properly.

10. The removal of children from care of their mothers, or relatives, except in cases where this clearly seems necessary or best, is discouraged and when the home of a child who has been admitted, has been reestablished and conditions therein warrant it, the child will be returned.

11. Any child who develops vicious habits, or is in any way insubordinate, may be dismissed at once by the Superintendent, with the approval of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

12. Relatives who fail to cooperate with the management of the Home and who contribute toward making the children dissatisfied and discontented, will be required to make a home for their children.

13. Lodges are advised to have applicants carefully examined by a competent physician, preferably a member of the Craft, to determine whether they are defective or otherwise ineligible. Children, on arrival at the Home, will be thoroughly examined by the Home physician, whose decision on their eligibility, from a physical and mental standpoint, will be final.

PURPOSE OF THE HOME

It is the purpose of the Home to care for and educate normal children who are bereft, and, in the interest of the children who are admitted, the Board of Trustees and management of the Home request careful observance of the following general principles:

1. When a child is surrendered to the Masonic Home, the entire care and custody of said child is transferred, giving the Home all parental right and authority over the child, with full right to exercise such authority in care, maintenance, medical treatment (and surgical operations if deemed necessary by the Home Physician), and discipline of the child in such manner as the Superintendent of the Home believes best for the welfare of the child until he is regularly discharged or released from the Home.

2. Leaving the Home for vacations has proven a detriment to many of our children, and, at best, breaks up habits of punctuality, industry and obedience, disorganizing all activities of the Home and creating a feeling of discontent. The Board reserves the right to grant or refuse vacations as conditions warrant.

3. Children will not be allowed to leave the grounds of the Home with relatives or friends without the consent of the Superintendent.

4. Children graduating from High School, who desire to go to college, will be given financial assistance from our Educational Fund, if needed.

5. The children must be taught sane ideals of dress, and relatives and friends are requested not to send them useless finery. Such articles may be returned to the sender. On the other hand, do not send clothes to our children that you would not be willing for your own children to wear in public.

6. Relatives and friends who desire to render help in caring for the children should consult the Superintendent for suggestions. Money given for a specific child must be delivered to the Superintendent and will be spent for the best interest of that child or will be put in his bank account.

7. Gifts may be sent to the children, but they must be sent through the Superintendent's office so that a record may be made and the gifts acknowledged. Do not send the children expensive gifts such as wrist watches or costly jewelery. Clothing and toys are much more appropriate and acceptable.

8. It is our plain duty to teach the children to become law abiding, honorable and useful citizens and this cannot be done if we provide for all their essential needs and then visiting friends and relatives give them too large sums of money to spend recklessly. Such children come to the place where they think the world owes them a living regardless of lack of effort on their part. We must do everything possible to prepare each child for the fight he must make after leaving the Home.

9. Relatives of the children owe it to the Home to show appreciation for the service rendered, and they should impress the children with that feeling of appreciation as well as a desire to conserve the supplies and equipment furnished by the Home. Wanton destruction of property is sufficient cause for discharging a child.

VISITING

1. Relatives and friends will be permitted to visit the children once a month, but they must accommodate their visits to the routine of the Home. It is best to ascertain from the Superintendent whether it will be suitable for you to visit the children at a given time before making a trip to Alexandria. On arriving at the Home, visitors must report to the Superintendent's office, who will send for the child you wish to visit. A place has been provided for the convenience and comfort of the children's guests and visitors and they will not be permitted to monopolize the children's private living rooms and bed rooms. Children will not be allowed to run out and meet approaching cars and visit with friends and relatives until they have first reported to the Superintendent's office and registered. Sunday afternoons from 3:00 to 5:00 are ideal visiting hours, but at any time visitors should leave the Home by 5:00 P. M. The Home is not equipped to give accommodations for over-night visits, but the children may invite their guests to meals in the dining room with permission from the Superintendent so that proper notice may be given to the person in charge of the dining room. Visitors will be admitted to the Infirmary only with the consent of the Superintendent.

CORRESPONDENCE

1. Letters written to children which suggest the possibility that they may make visits away from the Home, or in any other way calculated to upset the children, will not be delivered. All such matters must be taken up with the Superintendent.

2. Employees are not permitted to correspond with relatives and friends of the children. It is the duty of the Superintendent to know at all times what is going on to influence the children.

GENERAL

1. Parents are advised not to move to Alexandria after placing their children in the Masonic Home.

2. It should be kept in mind that this is a Home and not a boarding school.

3. It is our aim to give every child who comes under our care the best possible advantages and if he develops into a real successful citizen we will all be happy and pleased. We desire your best co-operation, as our interests are mutual.

4. These rules and principles may be changed at any time by a majority vote of the members present at any meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Fraternally submitted,

EDWIN F. GAYLE,

Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home for Children.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN

Brother Alton A. McKnight, Superintendent of the Masonic Home, made the following report which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

It is impossible to make a report about our Home, its program and activities, without reiterating much that has been said in the past.

We now have 39 children under the supervision of the Home. Of this number 4 are in college, 21 in Bolton High School and 14 in Cherokee Grammar School. Three of the college students, Ione Weber, Magdalene Weber and Judith Holloway are attending Northwestern. One boy, Edward Ewbank, is attending Louisiana Tech. We will have no High School graduates this year, but, if none fail, we will have seven graduating next year.

Those leaving the Home this year are: Jimmy Nugent, graduated from High School and did not desire college; Margaret Ewbank completed her business course and is now employed in Alexandria; Jo Ellen Broussard married; Larry and Paul Buras returned to their mother.

The children have had a very active program. We had one boy a Cheerleader, three girls in the Booster Club, three girls in the Blue Bird Club, four girls in the High School Choral Club and one in the Ensemble. We have eight boys in the 4-H Club and five played football.

Seven of our children are on the "Honor roll," fifteen (15) others had no grade below "C" this last six weeks. To have twenty-two children out of thirty-five having no grade below a "C" speaks well for their efforts.

Our social and recreational events have been numerous. The Dahraf Ladies, Scottish Rite Ladies Club, Rob Morris Chapter, O. E. S. and many others have supplied money for parties or invited our children to social functions. The Shrine Club of Baton Rouge gave us our usual passes to their Shrine Circus. The local Shrine Club gave us their usual Christmas party. The Kiwanis Club gave us the use of their camp for two weeks. The city of Alexandria gave our children free swimming privileges. Football games, baseball games, picnics, Rodeos, picture shows have been made free to our children by interested friends. It is wonderful to see the generosity, love and concern of so many kind friends. It would be impossible to mention each of these friends and organizations in this report. Credit is given each in our list of donations. As I write this report Mr. J. N. Howze of Port Sulphur, Louisiana has driven in with his annual load of oysters and oranges for the children.

Our children attend the church, church school and youth organizations in the church of their choice. They participate in all their church activities. Devotion is led by one of the children at breakfast each morning, concluding with the Lord's Prayer. I wish each of you could share the joy of hearing all the children joining in our Lord's Prayer. Christian emphasis, without denominationalism, is ever present.

Home Coming was again a big event and a pleasure toward which our children look. We received a new piano, bed-side table for our infirmary, coffe spoons, floodlights for our playground, public address system, concrete basketball, tennis and shuffle-board court in addition to the greatest assortment of canned goods that I have ever seen. I think everyone enjoyed the day. I know the children and staff did.

The health of our children is good. In fact, I think sometimes too good when they out grow their clothes so rapidly. Drs. Aubrey White, Noel Simmonds, H. C. Quantz, M. F. Jarrell and K. V. Donaldson still carefully guard the health, eyes and teeth of our children.

I believe your physical property shows a marked improvement this year. The main building was painted within and without. Some of the old barns were rebuilt and all painted. A new fence has been built around almost all of our property. A few new flower gardens appear.

We try hard to operate as nearly like an individual home as possible. Those having dealt with groups know this is not always entirely possible. I do believe each child knows our individual concern and equal justice. It is a great responsibility and challenge to rear children to assume a worthy place in mature life. We dream of great futures for our children and pray for God to guide each of their leaders in helping to attain their possibilities.

I feel my report would be most incomplete without an expression of appreciation to each member of the Board of Trustees for their gracious support, sympathy, understanding and interest. One could not work with a finer group of men.

With a sincere wish for your continued support, interest and prayers.

Faternally submitted,

REV. A. A. McKNIGHT,

Superintendent.

There were children residing in the Home during 1953 as follows:

January 1 to May 29.....	42
May 30 to June 8.....	41
June 9 to August 1.....	40
August 2 to August 16.....	39
August 17 to August 30.....	38
August 31 to November 5.....	40
November 6 to December 31.....	39

This is an average of 41 children, or to be mathematically exact 40.5616. The cost per child of operation was:

	Total	Per Child
Expenses, exclusive of depreciation.....	$60,843.53
Less, directly offsetting income.....	37.66
	$60,805.87	$ 1,483.07

The cost per child, eliminating expenditures for repairs and replacement was $1,173.53, as compared with $1,219.71 in 1952.

As many cash donations are made to the Home earmarked for specific purposes which may be deemed not actually necessary, although beneficial, the following tabulation is presented, giving the yearly cost per child, both including and excluding such donations:

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR

The Grand Lodge Auditor, M:W: Bro. George A. Treadwell, P. G. M., presented his report which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

In pursuance of my appointment as auditor by the Most Worshipful Grand Master, I have examined the financial statements of the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana for the year ended December 31, 1953 and present the following report, including the exhibits and schedules listed in the attached index.

I have reviewed the accounting procedures and, without making a fully detailed audit of all transactions, have examined or tested the accounting records and other supporting evidence in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards applicable in the circumstances, and including all procedures which I considered necessary.

In my opinion, the accompanying statements of assets and liabilities and the related statements of revenue and expense, with explanatory notes and comments, present fairly the financial position of the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana at December 31, 1953, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Again it is to be noted that no expense has been incurred for a building manager, the main burden of which has been taken care of by the Grand Treasurer, under the supervision of the House Committee of the Board of Hall Directors, all without compensation.

Fraternally submitted,

GEORGE A. TREADWELL,

Certified Public Accountant

REPORTS OF THE GRAND LECTURERS

My Brethren:

In rendering this, my annual report, to the Grand Lodge, I desire first to express my appreciation to you brethren for permitting me to serve you as Grand Lecturer for another year and for your cooperation and assistance to me throughout the year.

Visitations have been made to all lodges in my northern district of the State, and the attendance in most instances has been good. Of course there are always some officers and Certificate holders who do not avail themselves of all these opportunities for instruction. This complacent attitude is deplorable, as these sessions of instruction are calculated to be of much benefit to the lodge as well as the individual. With this situation in mind, I have tried to make the sessions as interesting as possible.

Aside from my regular visits to lodges, quite a number of extra visits have been made and many sessions of instruction and examinations for Certificates have been held. In this work I have had much assistance from my Deputy Grand Lecturers and Certificate associations. Approximately 175 Certificates have been issued, of which number 35 to 40 were new cards.

One phase of the Grand Lecturers' activities on which I am happy to report is the preparation of copy for the booklet on Masonic Lectures. This project was undertaken by the Grand Master, who requested the Grand Lecturers to collect the lectures, edit or re-write them as necessary, and prepare the copy for the printers. While we are proud of the results of our efforts, we feel that only a beginning has been made, and that in a few years we may be able to prepare a much more comprehensive work.

I feel that I would be derelict of my duty if I failed to report on one serious problem facing our lodges—that of attendance. It has been my observation, and it has been called to my attention on numerous occasions, that attendance at communications has dropped considerably in many of our lodges. While this condition presents quite a problem, it is certainly not unsolvable, but should be given more attention in the future.

The Grand Master has been very helpful to the Grand Lecturers in our work during the past year, and we appreciate his fine spirit of cooperation. Also the members of the Permanent Committee on Work have assisted whenever possible and have rendered a definite service to the Grand Lodge. My good friend and co-worker, Brother John S. Burgess, with his fine qualifications of proficiency, patience, loyalty and love of Freemasonry, coupled with an amiable disposition, has cooperated with me in every way during the past year. It has been a pleasure to work with him, and he has my sincere thanks for every courtesy and consideration.

In closing, I again thank the Grand Lodge for the opportunity of serving as Grand Lecturer. May the Supreme Architect of the Universe continue to bless our worthwhile endeavors, and may we continue to grow in knowledge and virtue, to the end that Freemasonry may meet the challenge presented by this confused and troubled world.

Fraternally submitted,

JUNIUS B. SHARP,

Grand Lecturer

Brethren:

A year ago you honored me with one of the high offices of this Grand Lodge; that of dispensing Light, and more Light to our Brethren. It now becomes my duty to submit a report of my stewardship while serving in the capacity as one of your Grand Lecturers.

A lifetime is too short for a man to learn all there is to know about Free Masonry. One may give his whole life to the work of studying and teaching Masonry, yet there is always something more to learn and wonder about. You realize this fact more vividly when it becomes your duty, not only to teach the Esoteric Work, but to try to explain the symbolisms, allegories, Ancient Landmarks and philosophy of this time honored Fraternity. The real secrets of Free Masonry, discovered by an individual, can not be imparted to another. Free Masonry's real secret is of the heart and not of the tongue.

I have visited all the lodges assigned to me and have made return visits when necessary and time would permit. The brethren have been most cordial and cooperative and in most cases the attendance has been good. In addition to the regular lodge visits, schools of instruction were held in the city of New Orleans in the Spring and Fall of the past year. I have made special visits to all of the Certificate Associations that were active. We are greatly indebted to these Associations for the fine work they are doing.

Most of the Deputy Grand Lecturers have rendered valuable assistance in their respective districts and have been very helpful to me. For this cooperation and assistance I extend my sincere thanks.

I am happy to report continued interest in learning and retaining the Esoteric Work. I have issued 163 certificates of proficiency during the past year, 67 of which were new ones.

This has not only been a most pleasant year for me, by that of having renewed old acquaintances and met and made so many new Masonic friends throughout the state, but I feel that it has been a year of great advancement for Free Masonry in Louisiana. This was not only through the splendid work of those whom I have mentioned but numerous others such as the Permanent Committee on Work, the Grand Secretary, R:W: Brother D. Peter Laguens, Jr., and our Most Worshipful Grand Master, Brother Alex L. Stephens. All have co-operated to the fullest extent to make our efforts more productive.

Through the untiring efforts of our Most Worshipful Grand Master and his constant desire for more Masonic education for the brethren, the Grand Lecturers were urged to secure and compile educational data and lectures which would enhance our degree work. These lectures were compiled and under the direction of the Grand Master, printed into booklet form. The booklets may now be obtained from our Service Department.

In closing I wish to thank each of you for the many favors and courtesies extended to me throughout the year and to express my deepest gratitude for the opportunity of serving my Brethren. May the ensuing year be one of continued progress and success in all our worthwhile endeavors as we labor together for our Great and Glorious Fraternity. We give thanks to Him, the Great Lord and Master of us all, for His many mercies and blessings while traveling through the rugged paths of life. May His Benevolent Love and Guidance watch over and care for us until we meet again.

Fraternally submitted,

JOHN S. BURGESS,

Grand Lecturer.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORK AND RETURNS OF LODGES

Your Committee respectfully submits the following report and recommendations:

A careful examination has been made of the returns of the 259 regular Lodges, and of the four U. D. Lodges, and the return appear to be accurate with the exception of a few minor adjustments. The work of the Committee was materially aided by those secretaries who made early returns.

The records and supporting papers of these Lodges have been submitted with requests that Charters be granted.

All books and records have been examined by your Committee, and appear to be in order. According to the minutes, these Lodges have held regular Communications, and the officers have demonstrated their ability to perform their respective duties. The credentials of the Brethren who have signed the petitions for charter appear to be in order.

Your Committee recommends that Charters be granted to these three Lodges as follows: Baker Lodge U. D., as Baker Lodge No. 441, Baker, La., Central Lodge U. D., as Central Lodge No. 442, Central, La., and West Lake Lodge U. D., as West Lake Lodge No. 443, West Lake, La.

REPORT OF PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WORK

We, your Permanent Committee on Work, beg to submit the following report:

Our committee met at the Masonic Home in Alexandria, Louisiana on Saturday, July 18th, 1953 at 10:00 A. M. Those present were: Most Worshipful Grand Master, A. L. Stephens, Ex-Officio, J. B. Sharp, Grand Lecturer, John S. Burgess, Grand Lecturer, and Charles T. Norsworthy, with John J. Khoury, Chairman, presiding.

The discussion of the floor work was brought before the committee and was approved.

We wish to commend our Grand Lecturers for their untiring efforts in teaching the esoteric work, and from the number of certificates of Proficiency that have passed through the chairman's hands, there is increasing interest in the esoteric work. Up to December 30th, 1953 the chairman of this committee has signed a total of 326 certificates. We also wish to acknowledge the good work of our Certificate Associations throughout the State. All have been very helpful in the furtherance of the esoteric work.

The chairman of this committee is very grateful to the other members of this committee and to the two Grand Lecturers, and more especially to our Most Worshipful Grand Master, A. L. Stephens, for their whole-hearted cooperation and support to promote our ritualistic work.

REPORT OF THE SERVICE COMMITTEE

The Service Committee presents herewith its eighteenth annual report and wishes to express their appreciation to the Grand Lodge and the Grand Master for their whole-hearted cooperation and support.

The Services rendered by this Committee fall under two general heads; first, the free services rendered to Lodges and Brethren, and second, the work of the Department of Lodge Equipment and Supplies.

Under the heading of free services may be listed: Supplying the individual Lodges with annual dues cards.

Supply the individual Lodges with Twenty-five and Fifty-year Certificates for their members as requested. The application for these Certificates are checked and the Certificates prepared by the personnel of the Grand Secretary.

Certificates furnished during 1953 and to-date are as follows:

	1953	To Date
Twenty-five year Certificates.....	510	10,622
Fifty year Certificates.....	59	380

The Service Committee is working with the Library Committee in rehabilitating the Grand Lodge Library. Available for reference use are magazines, proceedings of this and other jurisdictions, reference works both Masonic and general and Masonic books. Many of the older books are in need of reconditioning and this work is gradually being accomplished and is being financed out of the profits of the Service Committee.

We have purchased books for a lending section of the Grand Lodge Library and during the coming year expect to purchase other books for this purpose in addition to the general and Masonic books already purchased.

The actual functioning of the library is dependent upon the progress of the rehabilitation of the old books and the classification and cataloging of the books now being carried on by the Library Committee. We hope that in the near future this service will be available to the brethren.

The second part of the services rendered by the Service Committee is also most important. Lodge supplies of all kinds are available as well as Masonic books, greeting cards, Lodge forms and various Masonic jewelry. Special aprons are manufactured on order as well as the standard aprons carried in stock. We now have on hand the four degree pamphlets prepared by the Masonic Education Committee and will carry in stock when ready the "Masonic Officers' Handbook" now in preparation by the Masonic Education Committee. Our gross sales for the year 1953 amounted to $41,131.67.

The auditor's report concerning the Department of Lodge Equipment and Supplies is printed in full elsewhere in the proceedings.

REPORT OF LIBRARY COMMITTEE

Brethren:

Your committee has continued and expanded its activities of last year toward attaining the goal of placing in operation a library of which our Grand Lodge can be justifiably proud. Toward this goal all books have been accessioned and your committee has been engaged in the process of establishing the congressional subject numerical classification and has requested the Grand Lodge Secretary to place the initial order for the printed Library of Congress catalog cards, which will enable the establishment of the subject classification of the valuable books which have so long failed to function properly in the Masonic education of our Grand Lodge.

It is the hope and desire of this committee to see in the Louisiana Grand Lodge a library performing as vital a function as the libraries of the Grand Lodges of Iowa, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and California. Toward this goal a program of rebinding and rehabilitating the existing volumes is in progress. A valuable book section case has been purchased by the Grand Lodge which will give adequate security to the rare volumes known to exist in our collection. At the direction of the Chairman of the committee a number of current Masonic volumes have been obtained. Our library has also been enriched by the addition of a number of the proceedings, etc. of our sister Grand Lodges. These volumes are veritable storehouses of Masonic wisdom for those who will merely search for the light.

It is the plan of the committee on receipt of the Library of Congress cards to classify according to the information furnished our collection of books. This will enable all desiring to use the library to select their material on a desired subject without assistance. It is hoped that this will further our Masonic education.

When this work has been completed perhaps the Grand Lodge might desire to consider the practice of the Grand Lodge of Iowa and circulate selected volumes within the membership of the fraternity.

Your committee has been encouraged by the enthusiastic support of the Grand Lodge officers and the progress that has been made was possible only through their support.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MASONIC EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION, INC.

M:W: Brother Edwin F. Gayle, President, Board of Directors of the Masonic Educational Foundation, Inc., presented his report, which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

It is the general belief by members of the Masonic fraternity, largely shared by non-Masons, that the Masonic Educational Foundation, Inc., was created and is supported by the Grand Lodge of Louisiana.

As a matter of fact, the Foundation was organized by private individuals and chartered under laws of the State of Louisiana as a charitable and educational corporation. It so happened that the individuals participating in the organization and incorporation of the Foundation were all members of the Masonic Fraternity, who desired to form a close relationship to Grand Lodge, and to use the word "Masonic" in name of the corporation. Accordingly, the approval of Grand Lodge was requested and obtained and the Charter and By-Laws provided the Board of Directors be composed of three members elected by Grand Lodge at its annual meetings, three members elected by the Board of Directors of the Grand Lodge Hall from among its members and three members elected by the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home for Children. The nine members constitute the Board of Directors of the Foundation. So while the Masonic Educational Foundation, Inc., is authorized by, closely related to, and under the auspices of Grand Lodge, it is an independent corporation carrying on its work of assisting in the education of the youth of our state and defraying the entire cost of educating the children of our Masonic Home who desire a collegiate education. The Grand Lodge is not contributing, and has not been called on to contribute, any aid whatsoever in this work, but our Charter and By-laws provide that we make an annual report of our activities.

During the past year we have maintained four of the graduates of the Home in college, two at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, one at Southwest Louisiana Institute, and one at Northwestern State College, at a cost of $2,291.94. This is in the nature of a gift from the John T. Monroe Fund.

During the same period, we have extended aid in the nature of a loan to ten students attending institutions of higher education in the state. These loans vary in amount from $150.00 to $300.00 each, payable in five years without interest, aggregating $1,845.00.

From the date of its organization in February, 1932, to December 31, 1953, the Masonic Educational Foundation, Inc., has extended aid to 63 students.

At the end of the year, the loans outstanding amounted to $13-192.99. Loans repaid during the year amounted to $1,530.00.

A full and complete report by the Secretary and the Treasurer following this report will furnish a picture of the activities of the Foundation. This work is made possible by bequest of Brother Frank A. Tucker and the generous donations of Mrs. Ida M. Looney. Any one feeling a generous impulse may make a gift or a bequest to the Masonic Educational Foundation, Inc., with the assurance that the money will be wisely administered. No officer or any member of the Board makes any charge for services rendered. Donations and Bequests are invited.

EDWIN F. GAYLE,

President.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE

FOREIGN RELATIONS REPORT

The following communications have been referred to your Committee on Foreign Correspondence:

Among the significant events of the year reported to your Committee on Foreign Correspondence was the erection and consecration of the Grand Lodge of The State of Israel by the Grand Lodge of Scotland, over which Brother The Right Honorable The Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, R: W: Past Grand Master presided for the occasion. The Grand Lodge of Scotland had had five chartered Lodges in Israel and early in 1953 had communicated the steps that were being taken toward formation of a new Grand Lodge of Israel. There already existed a Grand Lodge of Israel, claiming exclusive jurisdiction; a Grand Lodge with which the Grand Lodge of Louisiana has been in fraternal correspondence since 1950. The background of this Grand Lodge is as follows:

It was constituted in 1932 under the name of The Grand Lodge of Palestine by "seven private regular Lodges which received their charters from the National Grand Lodge of Egypt."

In 1949 it voted to change its name from "National Grand Lodge in Palestine of A. F. & A. M.," to the "Grand Lodge of Israel of A. F. & A. M.," on the ground that "Palestine" is no longer a political unit, but only a geographical designation, since it is no longer British Mandatory territory.

The Grand Lodge of Israel had 21 Lodges, and claimed exclusive territorial jurisdiction, a claim never honored by the Grand Lodge of Scotland since the Grand Lodge of Israel traced its antecedents to the Grand Lodge of Egypt, which was recognized by neither the Grand Lodge of Scotland nor the Grand Lodge of England.

In the situation as it existed there was the prospect of two Grand Lodges of Israel, each claiming the same jurisdiction. Happily the situation was handled harmoniously as indicated in the following quotation from a letter written December 22, 1953 by Brother Alexander F. Buchan, Right Worshipful Secretary, The Grand Lodge of Scotland of A. F. & A. M.

"When it became known in Israel that the Grand Lodge of the State of Israel would be erected and consecrated in Jerusalem on 20th October 1953, Brethren of the existing Grand Lodge of Israel, whose Grand Master was Brother Dr. Shaoni and whose Grand Secretary was Brother Eliezer Dubinsky, entered into negotiations with Brethren of our five Scottish Lodges there who constituted the Organizing Committee of the new Grand Lodge, to find out if there was any constitutional method whereby Masonic unification could be attained in Israel. I am pleased to inform you that these negotiations were successful, and on 20th October last this unification was established, so that there now exists in Israel only one Regular Grand Lodge. The procedure adopted is shown on page 3 of the Report. Apart from the appointment of Brother Dr. Shanni as Immediate Past Grand Master, it was felt advisable to appoint Joint Grand Secretaries and Joint Grand Treasurers—at least for the time being. The Joint Grand Secretaries are Brother Eliezer Dubinsky and Brother Max Silverstone.

"As this Grand Lodge will doubtless be in correspondence with you regarding recognition and exchange of Representatives, I would like you to know that we in Scotland are confident that this Grand Lodge is proceeding on regular lines and is adhering to the ancient landmarks and established customs of the Order as we know them in regular Grand Lodges."

An excerpt from the report of Brother The Earl of Elgin and Kincardine to the Grand Lodge of Scotland is indicative of the spiritual atmosphere that prevailed.

"Several things impressed me deeply on this occasion—the solemnity and dignity of the work we were doing, the thought that we had opened the Grand Lodge of Scotland so near the spot where Hiram built the Temple of King Solomon, the beautiful chanting in Hebrew of the old Psalms of David as we perambulated the Lodge bearing with us the vessels of Corn, Wine and Oil, the prayers and readings from the Volume of the Sacred Law in Hebrew, and finally, after the Benediction, the long blast sounded on the ram's horn, the ancient symbol in the presence of The Most High, of the ending of one era and the commencement of a new.

"After an interval we returned to the hall. I opened the Grand Lodge of the State of Israel for the first time in the First Degree, and thereafter installed Brother Shabetai Levi, C. B. E., into the Chair as Grand Master and handed to him the gavel. Following upon this The Grand Lodge transacted its business—in Hebrew.

"*After the Constitution had been adopted and Charters issued to our Founder Lodges, a touching and momentous incident occurred. A resolution was adopted whereby the Grand Lodge of the State of Israel could issue Charters to the Lodges of the other group, provided an assurance be given, and an Obligation taken, that the Brethren of these Lodges would adhere to the ancient landmarks of the Order, and would maintain and support the Constitution and Laws of the Grand Lodge of the State of Israel. Immediately after the passing of that resolution, the Masters of all these Lodges were admitted to Grand Lodge, took the Obligation and received their new Charters. Finally, the Brethren being upstanding, Brother Dr. Shaoni and the other Most Worshipful Brethren who accompanied him were ushered into Grand Lodge and invited to the East, and as a token of the good will which had been established, Brother Dr. Shaoni was placed on the left of the Most Worshipful Grand Master and invested as Immediate Past Grand Master. (Applause.) I was deeply moved by this incident and feel that it is a happy augury for the Peace and Prosperity of Freemasonry in the State of Israel."

Thus the Grand Lodge of Israel, with which we have been in fraternal correspondence for four years, no longer exists, but has become part of the new Grand Lodge of the State of Israel. We assume negotiations will be forthcoming for recognition of the new Grand Lodge and exchange of representatives.

Correspondence has been continued in connection with a request for recognition by the National Grand Lodge of France, on the grounds advanced last year that the Grand Lodge of France, with which we have long been in fraternal correspondence, does not require the Great Light to be on the altars of its Lodges. Your Committee is advised that while the Grand Lodge of France at no time legislated to permit the withdrawal of the Great Light from any Lodge altar, it is admitted that many Lodges have worked without the open Volume of the Sacred Law. At the Annual Communication of last September an article was added to the Constitution specifically making the use and display of the Great Light compulsory. Your Committee holds the brethren of the National Grand Lodge of France in high esteem: at the same time we treasure the long history of fraternal accord and the brotherly relationship we have enjoyed with the Grand Lodge of France and we are loath to suggest that that relationship be severed.

We recommend that there be no change in fraternal recognition so far as France is concerned, and we express the hope that the day may not be too far distant when the brethren of both of these French Grand Lodges may merge into a United Grand Lodge of France.

We have been advised of an edict by the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico which terminated an intervisitation agreement with Lodges of the York Grand Lodge of Mexico.

A letter dated November 20, 1953, addressed to the Grand Secretary of the York Grand Lodge of Mexico requesting further information has gone unanswered.

A letter of the same date addressed to the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico resulted in a prompt reply, followed by a visit by Brother Ricardo R. Turlan, Acting Grand Master to New Orleans, where a conference was had with Brother Rivera of this Committee and with M:W: Brother Dabezies, of the Committee on Standards of Recognition formed by the Conference of Grand Masters of North America. From this conference we have learned:

1. The York Grand Lodge of Mexico is not a member of the Confederacion de Grandes Logias Regulares de los Estados Unidos Mexicana, which is the name of the Mexican Confederation.
2. The Confederacion Masonica Inter-Americana does not recognize the York Grand Lodge of Mexico.
3. Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico was threatened with withdrawal of recognition and with a move for expulsion from the Confederacion if they did not withdraw intervisitation with the York Grand Lodge.
4. Representatives of Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico met with certain representatives of York Grand Lodge and proposed that York Grand Lodge merge with Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico, to continue to work in the English language, as a separate District with their own Deputy Grand Master, with their funds and property kept separate from funds and property of Valle de Mexico. This proposal was refused by the representatives of York Grand Lodge.
5. Membership of all Mexican Grand Lodges is approximately 40,000.
Membership of Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico is 4,800 resident Masons—probably 400 or 500 of whom are North Americans.
York Grand Lodges claim about 500 Masons, of whom approximately 100 are actual residents of Mexico.
6. Although members of Lodges under Grand Lodge Valle de Mexico do not visit in Lodges under York Grand Lodge of Mexico, and vice versa, members of the two groups meet together and enjoy fraternal fellowship in Chapters and Consistories and recognize one another as good Masons.

Since York Grand Lodge of Mexico has not responded to our request for further information we have not heard "the other side" of this unfortunate controversy.

We recommend no action at this time. If Grand Lodge concurs in this recommendation we will again ask for information from York Grand Lodge.

Several years ago the Grand Lodge of Louisiana accorded recognition to the United Grand Lodge of Germany. We now have a request for recognition of a newly formed Grand Lodge of Berlin, A. F. & A. M., composed of three Lodges "behind the Iron Curtain." We are not ready to recommend recognition at this session of Grand Lodge. This group, isolated geographically from the territory of the United Grand Lodge of Germany and organizing under adverse conditions, should be considered for recognition at a later date.

We have received a request for recognition of the Grand Lodge of the Philippine Republic. Since we are in fraternal correspondence with the Grand Lodge of the Philippine Islands we recommend that the request be not granted.

Late in the year we received a request for recognition of the Grande Loja do Parano—Brasil. We have not made the necessary investigation to enable us to make a recommendation; accordingly we suggest that action be deferred on this request.

We have received various requests for financial assistance for temple building in other jurisdictions, for grand Masonic Parades, and for similar purposes. Since Grand Lodge does not sanction such solicitation on behalf of Lodges in our own jurisdiction we have not recommended action on such requests.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BURIAL PLACES OF PAST GRAND MASTERS

The remains of Past Grand Masters

JOHN HENRY HOLLAND

are still in the old Girod Street Cemetery, which has been discontinued as a Cemetery and which will very soon be put to other uses by the City of New Orleans. We have taken steps to remove these remains but are having great difficulty in locating the tombs due to the unkept and wild condition of this once revered Protestant Cemetery. We are continuing our search and hope to report the removals to a properly designated location in the Masonic Cemetery.

We regret to report that due to the records of the Girod Cemetery it has been impossible for us to ascertain the location of the JOHN HENRY HOLLAND and the M. R. DUDLEY plots. Their officers have assured us that as soon as they can clear the records they will permit us to remove the remains to our Masonic Cemetery.

We also wish to take steps to preserve the tombs of other Grand Masters, particularly in St. Louis Cemeteries Nos. 1 and 2, where the remains of the following Past Grand Masters are now resting:

P. F. DUBOURG

D. R. BURTHER

L. C. MOREAU-LISLET

A. W. PICHOT

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHARITIES AND BENEVOLENCE

Serving on the Board of Charities and Benevolence causes mixed emotions to arise within us and we are both saddened and gladdened at heart—saddened when we become aware of the sickness, adversities, and other misfortunes of some of our brethren as indicated in the applications submitted to the Board, and gladdened that it has been made possible for us to come to their aid and assistance on your behalf.

No cry of distress has reached our ears in vain, yet at the same time, we have administered the funds entrusted to us in keeping with the policies established by the Board, and approved by the Grand Lodge, chief among which is, the inability to provide for pensions, or like continuing allowances. It might be well also to repeat the Board's policy that the basic responsibility for charity rests on the local Lodge, or the individual Masons composing it, and that the funds available through the Board are but to supplement the ability of the Lodge to discharge its obligations.

As the appended statement of receipts and disbursements will indicate, all of the funds which came into our hands during the year have not been disbursed, but in this regard we might well profit by the lesson revealed to Pharaoh in his dream, and as recorded in the first book of the Great Light, and accumulate during the years of plenty for the years of famine to follow. The present economic conditions have reduced the number of applications to the Board which, of course, is fortunate and will thus enable certain accumulations to be available should the economic conditions change.

As the statement will indicate, the payments authorized were not only to Constituent Lodges, but as well to other sources authorized by the Grand Lodge by which the arm of Masonic charity was extended not only to brethren of our own country but as well to those in other parts of the world. In connection with the donation of $500.00 to the Holland Relief Fund, we have on file a letter of the Masonic Service Association outlining the steps taken to raise a total of $29,985.32, together with copy of report of G. P. Graham & Company, Certified Public Accountants who audited the account, and lastly copy of the acknowledgment from the Grand Master of Holland, expressing gratitude and appreciation for the spontaneous aid given to the victims of the terrible catastrophe by which his country was overtaken.

This is but another shining incident of Masonry at work and making practical application of the dual principle of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man.

REPORT OF THE MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES
VETERANS ADMINISTRATION FACILITY
NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Herewith is submitted a report of the Masonic Service Field Agent at the Veterans Administration Hospital in New Orleans, Louisiana for the calendar year 1953.

No one except those who have had the privilege of working as a Masonic hospital visitor, with the Masonic Service Association of the United States, realizes just how varied are the services we are called on to render to our Masonic brethren and non-members who are sick in a Veterans Administration Hospital.

Some of the cases look hopeless at first, but the more you work with them, the more opportunities are seen for real Masonic Service for our brethren.

The Masonic Service Association has placed in the Veterans Administration Hospital—196 pints of blood for all veterans who may need blood, through donors brought in by the Masonic Hospital Visitor.

	Mason	Non-Mason	Total
New Patients Visited.....	180	1,847	2,027
Repeat Visits	3,360	7,990	11,350
Grand Total.....	3,540	9,837	13,377

Razor blades 2,400; pencils 215; matches 9,000 packs; around the neck mirrors 6; playing cards 50 decks; books by Claudy 900; combs 200; pipes 24; tooth brushes 100 and games 150.

Stationery, picture cards, telephone calls, telephone calls to lodges or some Masonic relative of each brother visited, and many nice letters have been received in reply.

To the Manager, Dr. Mogabgab, and Staff and Special Service, I wish to express my grateful and sincere appreciation for their kind and helpful cooperation.

"We do the things a man would like to do for himself if he were able."

BEN. A. KIPPES,

Masonic Hospital Visitor.

ALEXANDRIA, LA.

Veterans Administration Hospital,
Alexandria, La., January 25, 1954.

Greeting:

Submitted herewith is the annual report of your M. S. A. hospital visitor at the Veterans Hospital, Alexandria, for the year 1953.

Experience has demonstrated that the patients get more from personalized service—things that a hospital visitor can do for a patient—than from the gifts which our limited funds permit us to donate. Therefore this is, in general, the type of service we have tried to furnish at Alexandria. We have, however, furnished many articles of comfort, both to Masons and non-Masons, during the year.

A total of 151 new Masons were contacted during 1953; of these, 111 were members of lodges in Louisiana; 10 from Texas; 7 from Arkansas; 9 from Mississippi; 3 from Alabama; 2 from North Carolina; and one each from Iowa, California, Florida, South Carolina, Illinois, Georgia, Ohio, and Maine. Repeat visits to Masons totaled 3,344 and to non-Masons 23,561—a grand total of 26,905 visits.

SERVICE RENDERED

More than one hundred letters were written for patients, on many subjects. Trips to lodges to take Masons who were able to walk; arranging to have Masonic patients coached; trips to town for various purchases for individuals; repairs of shoes, watches, etc.; suits cleaned and pressed; checks cashed; government bonds bought and many other small items which the patient could not do for himself—these are some of the types of services rendered. Several patients were taken in to the eye clinic to be fitted with glasses. Transportation was furnished to several who were going home on pass or discharge. Twice money was given for purchase of transportation to needy patients.

Rooms were located for visiting relatives and everything possible to make the visitor comfortable was arranged.

Twice your visitor was able to be of assistance to the families of those who departed this life. Many interviews were held with patients who were worried over problems, and results were gratifying.

Over one hundred electric shavers were sent in for repairs at no cost to the patient, Remington-Rand and Schick agreeing to repair for veterans without charge.

We have sets of five Masonic books written by M:W: Carl H. Claudy, which were donated to all Masons who were patients.

Some of the many articles distributed were: Razors, brushes, tooth brushes, combs, tooth paste, shaving cream, lighter fluid, talcum powder, razor blades, pipes, matches, stationery, pencils, round-the-neck mirrors, electric shavers, special fruits and foods, candy, cigarettes.

The ladies of several Chapters of O.E.S. helped us out with parties. Two fishing trips were sponsored for long term patients who could get out. Softball games were sponsored and bingo parties for the bed patients in the TB wards were included in our program. Many packages were wrapped and mailed, and assistance was given to wheel chair patients in getting about from place to place.

In fact, nothing has been overlooked intentionally which would contribute in any way to improving the mental attitude of the veteran and thus aid a complete and early physical recovery. Our little visits with these "forgotten men" often are the only real visits they get from anyone except the hospital employees—nurses, doctors, attendants, and they are appreciated.

It is our wish that more Masons would give a very small portion of their busy lives to brightening life for these unfortunates who have given so much for us.

Fraternally submitted,

CHESTER A. GROVER,

Hospital Visitor

REPORT OF LOUISIANA RELIEF LODGE No. 1

The W: Master of Louisiana Relief Lodge, W: Brother Louis T. Walsdorf, made his report, which was received and ordered printed in the proceedings.

Brethren:

It is gratifying to report that Louisiana Relief Lodge has fulfilled another year of service to out-of-town Lodges, and sojourning Masons and their dependents. Funerals were conducted for eighteen Lodges, located in as many states.

Relief cases have been handled with the usual efficiency of our officers. With the possible exception of acting as an intermediary in sending several children to our home in Alexandria, and two children to the Shrine Hospital in Shreveport, there was little difference in the types of cases handled each year.

Our Secretary reports that one of his biggest problems is endorsing checks for sojourning members. Regardless of the care taken to establish proper identification, there is always the possibility of being "taken in" with a bad check. Sojourning Masons should not feel embarrassed when it becomes necessary to contact the bank where he deposits, to check his account, in order that information may be gotten to show that enough cash is on hand to cover his demands. This is the only way to be sure a check will not return after all other identifying means have been assured.

Sojourning Masons living permanently in New Orleans, especially those advanced in age, would act wisely by imparting as much information as possible, concerning his membership, relatives, and what he would like to have done in case of death, or any emergency. By so doing it would help considerably in the proper handling of matters pertinent to his wishes and to his Lodge and family.

I am grateful to the city Lodges, Jerusalem Temple Shrine Circus Committee, and the Grand Lodge of Louisiana that contribute to our financial needs. To all my officers who assist me in so many ways to fulfill our purpose, and to our Grand Secretary, D. P. Laguens, Jr. for his counsel and cooperation.

Louisiana Relief Lodge No. 1 is a unit member of the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada, which supplies valuable information about relief cases, impostors, bad check artists, etc. This organization has been presided over by three New Orleans Masons at various times who have shown much interest in the welfare of our Lodge.

It has been a pleasure to again serve this fine institution.

Fraternally submitted,

LOUIS T. WALSDORF,

Worshipful Master.

RESOLUTION No. 1

By O. H. DABEZIES, P. G. M.

OTTO E. PASSMAN, P. G. M.

WHEREAS, It is desirable to have a broader geographical distribution of the elective members of the Board of Directors of the Grand Lodge Hall,

BE IT RESOLVED, That Section 2 of Article 8, be amended to read as follows:

"The Board of Directors of the Grand Lodge Hall shall be comprised of fourteen (14) members, namely the Grand Master who shall be Chairman, the Deputy Grand Master who shall be Vice-Chairman, the Grand Senior Warden, the Grand Junior Warden, the Grand Treasurer, and the Grand Secretary, who shall be ex-officio members of the Board and eight (8) Master Masons (members of Lodges in this Jurisdiction) who shall be elected by the Grand Lodge. The first eight (8) elective members shall be elected at the 1954 Annual Grand Communication as follows:

Two members for a term of one year

Two members for a term of two years

Two members for a term of three years

Two members for a term of four years

Thereafter, each year as the terms of two (2) members expire, the vacancies thus created shall be filled by election for a term of four years which election shall take place at the same time and under the regulations now provided for the election of other officers."

The remainder of the Section shall remain the same.

Received and referred to Committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence.

(ADOPTED, as AMENDED by Committee. See page 213.)

RESOLUTION No. 2

By O. H. DABEZIES, P. G. M.

OTTO E. PASSMAN, P. G. M.

WHEREAS, It is desirable to have a broader geographical distribution of the elective members of the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home for Children,

BE IT RESOLVED, That Sections 1 and 2 of Article 10 be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1.

"There is hereby created a Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home for Children to be composed of eleven (11) members, seven of whom shall be elected by the Grand Lodge at the same time that it holds the Annual Election of its Officers, as follows:

The first Board shall be elected:

One member for one year

One member for two years

One member for three years

One member for four years

One member for five years

One member for six years

One member for seven years and thereafter each year as the term of the member expires the election shall be for seven (7) years."

The remainder of that particular Section remains the same.

SECTION 2.

The other four (4) ex-officio members of same Board of Trustees shall consist of the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Senior Warden, and Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge, making said Board consist of seven (7) elective members and four (4) ex-officio members as provided for herein. The said Board shall elect its own Chairman."

Received and referred to Committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence.

(ADOPTED, as AMENDED by Committee. See page 213.)

RESOLUTION No. 3

By T. E. FRAZIER, P. M. Hiram 70.

FRED SCHLUTER, P. M. Alpha Home 72.

G. C. DARDEN, P. M. Geo. Washington 65, Chairman.

Committee for the Majority of Secretaries of the New Orleans Lodges.

WHEREAS, the form of Petition for the Degrees in Masonry presently in use in Louisiana has been accorded a fair trial for a period of one year, and

WHEREAS, this form of Petition has proven to be very unpopular with the brethren and particularly so with the Secretaries of the Lodges, and

WHEREAS, some of the objections to this form of Petition are that it is in quadruplicate and the copies, after being filled out, are illegible, the form is physically too long, repetitious, unnecessarily anticipates petitioner's motives, seeks information that is strictly the duty of the Investigating Committee to secure, requires too much time for reading in Open Lodge, and

WHEREAS, there should be no copies of a Petition for the Degrees of Freemasonry and that the one and only original should be on a good quality of heavy and durable paper:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the form of Petition for the Degrees in Masonry presently in use in Louisiana be abolished and that the attached form be adopted for use in this Grand Jurisdiction

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the attached form of Committee Appointment be adopted.

Received and referred to the Committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Preliminary Question—Have you read the Statement on the reverse side of this petition?.....

The petition of the subscriber respectfully represents, that unbiased by the improper solicitation of friends and uninfluenced by mercenary motives, he freely and voluntarily offers himself as a candidate for the mysteries of Freemasonry. That he is prompted to solicit this privilege by a favorable opinion conceived of the institution, a desire of knowledge and sincere wish to be serviceable to his fellow-creatures. He promises that if he is elected he will yield obedience to the ancient customs and laws of the Fraternity. He further pledges his honor that no unworthy motive, selfish consideration, persuasion or influence has induced him to make this application, and he further pledges his honor not to apply to any organization having as its requirement membership in a Blue Lodge until six months after receiving the Master Mason Degree, or shall have passed a satisfactory examination in the esoteric work of that Degree.

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANT

This authorized statement must be read before filling out the petition

The question of becoming a Freemason is a matter for very serious consideration and, since you have expressed a desire to be a member, we deem it advisable that you should be informed on certain points which may affect your decision to apply.

In all ages Freemasonry has insisted that men should come to its doors unsolicited and entirely of their own free will and accord. Moreover, those joining in the hope of selfish personal gain will be bitterly disappointed.

Patriotism and undivided loyalty to one's country are essential qualifications of a Freemason.

Freemasonry has for its foundation the great basic principles of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. No Atheist can be a Mason.

Freemasonry abhors Communism. Anyone found to be a member of the Communist party will be expelled.

Freemasonry is not in any way an insurance society nor does it pay benefits in case of sickness or death. Your family should be so advised.

A universal custom requires that, through oral instruction, certain of the work is to be memorized after each degree, and before a candidate is advanced.

Every member is expected to pay promptly the annual dues fixed by his Lodge.

A Master Mason must not apply to any organization having as its requirement membership in a Blue Lodge until six months after receiving the Master Mason Degree, or in lieu thereof must have passed a satisfactory examination in the esoteric work of that Degree.

Information for Lodge if determined necessary through discussion of Resolution.

THE FOLLOWING ESSENTIAL FACTS ARE NECESSARY FOR EACH MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE TO INQUIRE INTO

- I. Never delay investigating a candidate, but proceed as soon after being appointed as possible, and report to the Lodge promptly.
- II. Verify applicant's age; occupation; how long he has lived at present address; where previously.
- III. Can he read and write, and can he speak English intelligently?
- IV. Physical qualifications. Has he the sense of hearing, seeing and feeling, and can he conform to what the several degrees require of him?
- V. What are his religious ideas, particularly as applies to his belief in God?
- VI. Is he married or single? If married, how does he treat his wife and children? If single, with whom does he reside and how does he treat those with whom he lives?
- VII. Reason for applying to this particular Lodge?

- VIII. What benefits does he expect to derive by becoming a member of our Fraternity?
- IX. Are you thoroughly convinced he can well afford to spend the necessary amount for Masonic degrees without depriving himself or family of any little comfort they ought to have? Is he, from his own conversation, in debt anywhere?
- X. A visit to the applicant's house is important to inquire into his home life and habits. This is too often neglected.
- XI. Does he thoroughly understand the serious character of the fraternity, its aims and purposes, and that he can expect no direct pecuniary benefit through his membership?
- XII. Make your investigation so thorough that you can positively state to the Master your conviction of the petitioner's worthiness and that you would be glad to bear the relationship of a Brother to him. Be ready to state this from your own knowledge and not from others' opinion.

NECROLOGY REPORT

W: BROTHER ALTON A. McKNIGHT, P. M., Chairman

COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY

Soft music throughout entire service,

Brother Henri Wehrmann, Grand Organist

Song—"THE LORD'S PRAYER", solo by Brother Leo Wagner.

Prayer:

Father of life, who givest to our dust the breath of being, be near us when we bow beside our dead. Be not wrath with us in our sorrowing as friend after friend say good-bye, and goes into the silent land whither now we can not follow them.

We thank Thee for the confidence Thou hast given us in a life beyond this dying. We thank Thee for Thy goodness to our loved ones, that even in the valley of the shadow peace was theirs, relying on Thy love; that the darkness was aglow with the promises of God. Give us the calm that fell upon their spirit when they had to say farewell to all they loved on earth. Give us the strength Thou gavest them when they were passing from us.

Fill our lives with kindness and truth, the thought of others, the gentleness of heart and hand, the examples of lowly courtesy and earnest dutifulness, that made Thy servants, now asleep in Thee, so beloved by all. Help us to follow in their steps, as they walked in the footsteps of their Redeemer; and do Thou bless and console all who were precious to them, and unto whom they were dear.

Weak are we all, and dying. Give us peace, strength for the battle while it lasts, and rest at the close of the day, when our work is done. And, in the resurrection morn, when all souls rise and stand before Thee, give us the meeting which we yearn for, the vision of the faces which we may not now behold. Keep us who remain under the shadow of Thy grace, and watch the sleeping places of our loved ones, till, over the hill of time, the angel of Thy glory comes again. Amen.

Song—"NO SHADOWS YONDER", by Quartet.

(Brother Leo Wagner, 1st Tenor; Harry Cohen, 2nd Tenor; Harold Werner, 1st Bass, and Wm. Cooper, 2nd Bass.)

Scripture Selection:

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee; when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour.

None of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself: for whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

"The God of The Living":

God of the living, in whose eyes

Unveiled Thy whole creation lies; All souls are Thine; we must not say

That those are dead who pass away; From this our world of flesh set free, We know them living unto Thee.

Released from earthly toil and strife, With Thee is hidden still their life; Thine are their thoughts, their words, their powers,
All thine and yet most truly ours; For well we know, where 'er they be, Our dead are living unto Thee.

Not spilt like water on the ground, Not wrapped in dreamless sleep profound,

Not wandering in unknown despair

fallen tree; Not dead, but living unto Thee.

O Breather into man of breath! O Holder of the keys of death!
O Giver of the life within! Save us from death, the death of sin,
That body, soul, and spirit be Forever living unto Thee!

Meditation:

In various places and on many occasions does God pledge us to meet Him in this life—At the Altar, in the sacrament, in the crisis of joy and sorrow—and now once again He appoints us a meeting place. It is the "Valley of the Shadow," where, in the quietness and seclusion as in a lover's glade, He will expect us one day. Is there any spot on earth so common or so wild that it has not been transformed by love? Are there any places in our thought so beautiful as those where we kept tryst with those that were dearer than life? So God, who has such power of regeneration that he changed the accursed serpent into a healing power, has put a fair face on death so that it becomes but His dark disguise as He returns to receive us Home.

Song—"THE VACANT CHAIR", by Quartet.

"A Comrade Rides Ahead":

Time brings us change and leaves us fretting;
We weep when every comrade goes—Perhaps too much, perhaps forgetting—That ever yonder there are those
To whom he comes and whom he knows.

I would not hold our loss too lightly; God knows, and he, how deep the pain; But, friends, I see still shining brightly
The brightest link in all our chain
That links us to a new domain.

For this I swear, Because believing: Time breaks no circle such as this. However hurt, however grieving,
However much a friend we miss, Between the worlds is no abyss.

For friendship binds the worlds together—
World over there, world over here.
From earth to Heaven is the tether—That brings the earth and heaven near
And makes them both a bit more dear.

Not weaker now our chain, but stronger; In all our loss and all our ill—We now shall look a little longer
At every star above the hill
And think of him, and have him still.

Whatever vales we yet may wander, What sorrow, what tempest blow, We have a friend, a friend out yonder
To greet us when we have to go—
Out yonder someone that we know.

To all eternity he binds us; He links this planet with the star;
He rides ahead, the trail he finds us, and where he is and where we are—Will never seem again so far.

Song—"NEARER MY GOD TO THEE", by Quartet.

Closing Prayer:

We give them back to Thee, dear God, who gavest them to us.
Yet as Thou didst not lose them in giving so we have not lost them by their return. Not as the world giveth, givest thou, O lover of Souls!
What Thou gavest Thou takest not away; for what is Thine is ours always, if we are Thine. Life is eternal; and love is immortal; and death is only a horizon; and a horizon is nothing save the limit of our sight.

Lift us up, therefore, strong arm of God, that we may see further, cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly; draw us closer to Thyself that we may know ourselves nearer to our beloved who are with Thee. While Thou dost prepare a place for us, prepare us for that happy place, that where they are, and Thou art, we too may be.

Amen.

Taps by Brother Michel Caplan.

Thanks were extended the Brethren who assisted in this service.

REPORT OF THE GREATER NEW ORLEANS MASONIC BLOOD BANK

On July 1, 1950 after having received the approval of the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana, the Greater New Orleans Masonic Blood Bank began its operations for the purpose of replacing blood administered to Master Masons, their wives, widows, minor children and all Eastern Star members as well as the mother and father of a Master Mason or the mother and father of the wife of a Master Mason when dependent upon said Master Mason for support, when confined to hospitals located in the City of New Orleans. The membership of the Mason or Eastern Star, must be within the State of Louisiana.

Since the beginning of this great humanitarian project, more than 4,500 pints of blood have been replaced for our loved ones.

More than 1,000 pints of this blood were given to the families of brethren who live and hold their membership in Louisiana yet outside of the City of New Orleans, who came to our major hospitals for surgery.

We have received the wholehearted support and cooperation of the Grand and Subordinate Chapters of the Order of Eastern Star in our State for which we are very grateful.

We are advised by the most prominent blood bank men in New Orleans that ours is the greatest project of its kind in the South if not the nation.

We have received many nice letters of appreciation for our work from various recipients and are proud to have served our Grand Lodge in such capacity.

In concluding, I want to pay my sincere appreciation for having had the honor and privilege of working with our late Brother Benjamin A. Kippes who did so much to help carry it on.

VOTE OF THANKS

A vote of thanks was extended:

To the members of the Banquet Committee for the magnificent job in respect of refreshments to be served to our Delegates in the second floor Social Rooms and to all those who assisted the Committee in their labors. Special thanks are due Brother A. L. Figallo of Osiris Lodge 300, a member of the Committee who supervises all of the work in the kitchen and dining room.

To Brother Vartan Dombourian, P. M. of Fidelity Lodge 426, for the use of his Oriental rugs which greatly added to the beauty and solemnity of this Grand Lodge Session.

To Brother Frank A. Laperriere, P. M. of Crescent City Lodge 387, F. & A. M. New Orleans, for the two (2) fine hand carved Plaques of our Grand Lodge Seal which you now see attached to the Rostrum on our stage.

To the chief engineer of our Masonic Temple, Brother Jack Skinner, for his services at the switchboard.

To W: Brother Thomas Green, P. M. of Perfect Union Lodge 1, for his services at the recording machine.

To Brother Chas. C. Hard of Houston, Texas, for his services at the organ on several occasions during this Grand Communication.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

Brethren:

Your Committee on Masonic Education makes this its report on the activities of the committee of the year 1953.

The materials which have been prepared and released to the Lodges consisting of the 4 booklets entitled "A Search for Masonic Light" and "Handbook for Lodge Officers" are primarily the activities of this committee during the year.

The materials will prove of value in proportion to the use made of them by Lodge officers and members. These have been made available with the thought in mind of making Lodge meetings more effective and developing a better appreciation and understanding of the meaning of Masonry.

In addition to the above the committee has during the past year prepared two issues of the Louisiana Free Mason which you have received. The aim of the committee is to prepare and send out additional materials such as booklets for special activities or programs to be held in Lodges on special occasions.

It should be understood that it is not the intent of the committee to cover you with a deluge of material but to provide you with helps found effective in other jurisdictions. In enlisting the interest of the members, your committee urges every officer to read this material carefully and to make use of it throughout his term of office to accomplish the aim which has proven effective in other jurisdictions.

REPORT OF LIBRARY COMMITTEE

Your Library Committee wishes to report on that portion of the Grand Master's Address under caption GRAND LODGE LIBRARY.

Of course, we approve of his report, especially in view of the fact that he said so many nice things about your Committee, however, our separate report will indicate that much work has been done in the Grand Lodge Library and we are hopeful that the results obtained will be of value to the membership in future years.

Fraternally submitted,

D. PETER LAGUENS, Jr., P. M., Chairman.

THOMAS GREEN, P. M., Vice-Chairman.

ARTHUR M. QUALLS, Secretary.

WM. E. SKINNER.

LUCIAN DOUGLASS, W. M.

JOHN M. MYERS, Jr.

J. L. KNOEPFLER.

LOUIS P. BRODDICK, P. M.

JOHN E. SIMS, P. M.

The Report of the Committee WAS ADOPTED.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORK AND RETURNS OF LODGES

The recommendations contained in the report of the Committee presented at the morning Session this date were brought forward for attention, and on motion adopted, the recommendations of the Committee were approved and charters were granted to the following Lodges:

Baker Lodge 441, Baker, La.

Central Lodge 442, Central, La.

Westlake Lodge 443, Westlake, La.

RECONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTION No. 5

Bro. Haney B. Conner, one of the proponents of Resolution No. 5 presented at the morning Session, which, on motion adopted was not received, asked for a reconsideration of the decision of the Grand Lodge and the Resolution be received and referred to a Committee. On motion adopted, his request was refused.

M:W: Bro. Carl H. Claudy, P. G. M. and Executive Secretary of the Masonic Service Association, spoke with great feeling about the marvelous services performed by Brother Benj. A. Kippes, our Grand Tyler, who passed away on Friday, February 5, 1954. Bro. Claudy considered this not only a great loss to the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, but also to the Masonic Service Association where Bro. Kippes served as Hospital Visitor at the Veterans Administration Hospital here in New Orleans. Bro. Claudy brought us greetings from his Grand Master of the District of Columbia and thanked the Grand Lodge for their cordial reception and hospitality.

ORATION

By DR. DEE A. STRICKLAND, Past Grand Master

"IF A MAN DIE, SHALL HE LIVE AGAIN?"

Most Worshipful Grand Master, members of the official family of the Grand Lodge, Distinguished guests, My Brothers:

I want to assure you that I feel deeply honored in having been appointed Grand Orator of this Grand Lodge for a second time. But to dignify my remarks upon this occasion as an "Oration" is to do violence to the English language. I would not dare to pit my feeble powers against the matchless eloquence of the many illustrious Grand Orators, who in the past, have delighted and inspired the members of this Grand Lodge. With a full knowledge of my limitations and shortcomings, I approach with trepidation the task laid upon me a few months ago by our distinguished and beloved Most Worshipful Grand Master, Alex L. Stephens.

In casting about for a subject to speak to you on this occasion, I could not get away from two of the greatest lessons taught us in the Master Mason Degree. A belief in one God and the Immortality of the soul. Either one of these subjects would take far more time than is allotted me on this occasion. Realizing that to believe in the immortality of the soul, we must necessarily believe that there is a Supreme Architect of the Universe I have decided to direct most of my time to the belief of a life beyond the grave.

I want to first give credit to those great writers, Joseph Ford Newton, Robert M. Riley, B. H. Bruner and others for the thoughts and ideas that I have used from their writings in the preparation of this oration.

When the Great Architect created the heavens and the earth; when from out of the great deep arose the untrodden land; when He had jewelled the earth with His beautiful gardens and hung His lamps high up in the heavens, He fashioned a being in imitation of His own faultless form, graced him with something of His own divine attributes, and gave this kingly creation to the World. He prescribed the zone in which he must move in fulfillment of his destiny. He appointed his bounds that he should not pass. He gave him ambition to a desire to learn and know, and the journey from childhood's cradle to the last long sleep is a ceaseless search for more light. And greater than all else he gave him an instinct for eternity in his own heart.

The crowning glory of the faithful Mason is his unswerving belief in immortality. It is emblazoned on our hearts. Every other worthy desire born within us is capable of realization, and this, the one dominant over all will not fail us. Why is it that the glorious aspirations which leap like angels from the temple of our hearts are forever wondering about unsatisfied? Why is it that the stars which hold their festival around the midnight throne are set so far above our limited facilities, forever mocking us in their unapproachable glory? Why is it that the bright forms of human beauty, the forms of our kindred, are presented to our view here but for a moment, and then taken from us, leaving the thousand streams of human affection to flow back in Alpine torments to our own hearts.

Freemasonry teaches us that we are here for a greater destiny than that of death, there is a Grand Lodge above where the faithful Mason will receive his reward for good square faithful work. There is a realm where disturbing doubts will never penetrate; where the stars will spread out before us like the islands slumbering on the bosom of a mighty ocean, and where the beautiful beings that pass before us here like shadows, will stay in our presence forever. And if all these things are matters of substance and reality, then our theories are not mere vagaries, our forms and ceremonies not superstitious mummary.

Let us consider the physical side of death. Those of morbid mind see in death nothing but, sordid dissolution and decay. But they are wrong. Death is not ugly and sordid. Without death life could not continue. That is a fundamental law of nature.

The tiny cell, having lived its useful life, dies and an individual entity in dividing to give new life to new cells.

Nor is humankind exempt from this universal law. We walk upon the ashes of the generations who have gone this way before us, knowing full well that our life, and our means of sustaining life, depends upon that dust from which they came and to which they have now returned. And knowing, too, that future generations will walk upon our ashes in the consciousness that by our death we in turn have contributed to their life. So while our passing from this earthly scene is a matter upon which we prefer not to dwell, yet there is always that concomitant and most beautiful thought upon which we love to dwell—that by our death we create life, by our very dissolution we sustain life.

These are the physical aspects of death. They concern principally that mortal casing in which we are imprisoned at birth, and which we cast aside at death. But from them we draw inevitable and most important conclusions concerning its spiritual character, from the fact that death is the necessary prerequisite of life, it becomes obvious that death is not a termination, but rather a transition—not an end, but only a change; that whatever may happen to this mortal body, the vital spark which inhabited it during this phase of its existence goes on, and on, and on.

This is a fundamental concept in a Mason's creed. This a Mason believes with all his heart. Nor is he alone in his belief.

From the dawn of the consciousness of his own existence man has yearned to believe that this existence did not terminate with death. In the trees, the winds, the brook, the sea—in all the sounds of nature, primitive man heard the whispering voice of the souls that had gone on before him. His totems were those animals presumed to be the abiding place of his departed ancestors. His world was thickly peopled by the disembodied spirits of former generations, and his life was largely governed by the necessity of appeasing them lest they do him harm.

As his mental powers grew man began to speculate on the nature of that life after death for which he yearned. The Nirvana of the Buddhist, the Transmigration of Pythagoras and Plato, the Paradise of the Mohammedan, and the Heaven of the Christian all are concepts resulting from such speculation. That it must be endless goes without saying, for none may know the truth but those who have passed through the Dark Valley—and none have returned to report their findings. Endless, but not futile—for in that speculation man raises his thoughts to higher levels, brings himself closer to God, and learns how better to improve his opportunities here that he may be prepared for what is to come, whatever it may be.

Another fundamental concept in the Masonic system is, where men are exhorted to strive for perfection, where precepts of right living is laid down as the code of the order, and where men pledge themselves to brotherly love and mutual assistance. Masons know that in every man the conflict between good and evil is a battle that goes on from the cradle to the grave. They know too, that few men are strong enough to win that battle by themselves. By precept and example Brother helps Brother to apply the working tools of life to the Rough Ashlars with which he is endowed at birth in an effort to make them perfect Ashlars fit for that spiritual building which he hopes is to be his in the temple of the Hereafter. This is the purpose of Masonry. It is the reason for Masonry's existence. It explains the hold which Masonry has on the hearts of man and it is the reason too, why Masonry has survived and grown through the vicissitudes of these many hundreds of years.

Belief in the immortality of the soul has been so Universal among men that he who questions it is a rare exception. The savage believed it in his simple way. The old religions taught it. It was the basic principal of the Ancient Mysteries, and every one of them—Osirian, Dionysian, Mithraic and on through the list—was built around the principal legend of death and subsequent resurrection of some great God or hero. And it was no accident that in a later age of the festival of Easter, celebrating another resurrection, was placed in the spring of the year, even as primitive man used that season for special praise to God for His beneficence in raising life again on earth after the death of winter.

And Masonry is cut by the same pattern from that same piece of cloth.

Another fundamental concept of immortality as I am thinking of it now, is inseparable from the whole problem of the ultimate value of persons or of human personality. It has not to do with great human personalities in history, or of biological survival through our children. It has to do with the continuance of personal immortality after death. Anything which affects our fundamental views of human personality has its direct bearing upon our belief in immortality.

There are those who do not believe in immortality, and who would destroy that belief for all men if they could. Atheism is no longer just the private opinion of a few individuals. The idea of a personal God is derived. All that exists we are told by these people is iron law, ruthless and unpitying. This materialistic school of thought is determined in its efforts to rid humanity of all belief in a personal God who might in any way interfere with the rise of brute force.

With magnificent gesture, backed by education propaganda, and force such men as Lenin, Stalin, Hitler, Mussolini and others, have tried to banish God and all belief in personal immortality from the life of their nations. They have failed and they will continue to fail, because they have not taken into consideration one tremendous fact.

When men have extinguished the lights of heaven with the pall of their Atheism, when they have banished God with a magnificent gesture, when they have buried the Man of Galilee in the tomb of their modern paganism and sealed it with their arrogance, there still remains something else for them to do. The logic of their unbelief, and the demonstration of their brutal power has not changed the constitution of man himself. Their magnificent gestures have not erased the word eternity from their hearts. Before the champions of this new paganism and aggressive Atheism and their followers can banish God from the universe, they must destroy every last human being from the face of the earth. Before they can destroy this belief in immortality, they must literally tear out the heart of humanity, for He has set eternity forever in the heart of men.

In the eyes of the pessimist nature looks like a ruthless machine, blind to the feeling and hopes and loves of man, there is something in the very constitution of man which causes him to defy nature and in the presence of death and decay say, "I shall not die!" And I firmly believe that this something has been placed in the hearts of men by the Creator Himself.

In spite of the uncertainty and decay of life, mankind from the red dawn of time has never been able to rid itself of the conviction that man is greater than he seems. Though the world continues to withhold secrets from man and the heaven seems to be silent in the face of life's deepest mysteries, man is greater than he seems because God has set eternity in his heart.

If God has "set forever" in the hearts of men, just as he has set hearts in the bodies of men, what could be more natural than belief in immortality? The idea or concept of immortality, is not something which we may introduce to a man and seek to convince him that it is true. Rather it is something which is native to humanity, something which belongs to a man as the functions of the heart and lungs belong to him. No matter what the stage of civilization, when human beings have lived in a normal way, they have always had some kind of belief in immortality.

When students of Anthropology tell us, almost without exception, that in their study of the race they have found this instinct for immortality almost universal, we are justified in asking a few questions. How does it happen that all civilizations and peoples have spoken practically the same language concerning the immortality of the soul, when they have differed so widely on so many other things? History tells us that both the scholarly Egyptians and the primitive American Indians, when they came to lay away their dead, buried them with food and weapons which were to be used in the other world. Were these people all part of an older civilization than our age knows anything about, and did they acquire this belief from common ancestors? This is a very common assumption. Might it not be that the origin of this common belief in immortality is older than history. I believe that it had its origin in that hour when man was created in the image of God, that man was born with this instinct for immortality within him.

If the instinct for immortality is a part of man as God created him, it is a faculty of the soul which abides. No man can ever prove eternity or immortality to us. No man can ever convince us of the truth of this concept through cold logic. The true proof lies within our own hearts. Our ability to believe in this truth depends upon our willingness to trust our hearts as we trust our eyes to see and our ears to hear. The call of immortality within our own souls becomes the surest proof of that immortality which lies beyond the earthly habitation of these souls.

The followers of the Man of Galilee believe that he is the surest and most important proof of immortality. Did not he come as a final and absolute answer to that age old question, "If a man die, shall he live again." At no time did he make any effort to prove the truth of immortality. He simply took it for granted in all that He said and did.

He did not claim to make men immortal. He assumed that they were and urged them to live like immortal beings. He came to set again in a clear light and to bring to the surface this eternity which God has set in the hearts of men from the beginning. He came, primarily, to show men God, confident that when God became real to them, they would awaken to the eternity which was within their own hearts and claim their kinship with God. He did not come to give men immortality but to declare that they already possessed it and to help them discover it within their own souls; He came to make men aware of that part of them which could never die.

Our concern for immortality stands or falls with our application of the reality of spiritual values. No one will believe in immortality with any assurance unless he has discovered in life something of such high significance that it deserves to live forever. If his desires are such as can find full fruition in the life of the senses he will have no solid belief in immortality. If however, he has felt himself in contact with values which transcend all transitory experiences, he is impelled to believe in an existence that is commensurate with those values.

Faith in the meaning of life, of even the present life, is therefore bound up with the survival of personality. Without the sense of immortality, life is devalued and hence devitalized. Unless a man can feel that his real home is in the Grand Lodge above, he lacks that which can make his life today seem worth heroic effort and sacrifice. We make a high success of life upon this earth only as we live in a world of eternity.

If humanity is compelled to believe from now on that at death a Confucius, a Moses, a Zoroaster, a Mohammed or the founder of the Christian religion meet the same fate as a Hitler, a Mussolini, a Stalin and other blood stained conquerors of history if all go to the same reward complete annihilation and oblivion, and that at the end there will be no difference, how long can it maintain its ideals of goodness, purity and justice? If this were true all of the teachings of Masonry about the sacredness and dignity of the individual, and all our belief in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man would have to go.

If man is nothing more than an animal which is destined to go back to the dust forever, why bother about his redemption or worry about his welfare for this short life? If it does not make any difference to God whether Stalin's way of life or the Messiah's way of life prevailed upon this earth, why should it make any difference to us? If one way is just as good as the other, and if both end in the same way, then all our sacrifices, in the recent wars have been in vain. But it is the studied judgment of the best Masonic minds of all time, that the redemption of humanity will depend in the final analysis, upon our sense of the infinite worth of the individual man.

I sincerely believe that for thousands of individuals who are asking that age old question "If a man die shall he live again," people who are weary, dejected, broken, baffled, and beaten by the almost unbearable burdens and problems of our confused world—their only hope lies in their belief that there is something beyond this world. The shallow doctrine of "one world at a time" has lost some of its popularity in a day when millions of our youngest and best trained men have been denied the opportunity of living their allotted time in this present world. What about all of these vibrant personalities who were wiped out of existence when they were just beginning to live? If they were simply of the earth then we know what has happened to them. And those of us who are left cannot but ask the old question, If we are simply of the earth, why go on striving to live?

But if all those whose earthly lives have been cut short were potential children of God, if God "hath set eternity in their hearts" then we may believe that in the vast stretches of eternity their life has only just begun. And if we too are potential children of God, with eternity in our hearts, if there is something within us which can never die if the mortal round with its ebb and flow, its change and decay, is not the ultimate reality, then life can be glorious and worth while even in the midst of difficulties. To believe that the final focus of our lives is not here but yonder in the heart of God, who created us, to believe that there is something beyond the grave, this is the practical value of a well grounded belief in personal immortality and is one of the great, undying values of our Masonic faith.

The Temple rises, but the builders who wrought their dreams into its beauty, shaping its stones with love and care on the Level by the Square—where are they? What, though Solomon reign in all of his glory, and dream and plan and build a Temple, dedicating it with sacrifice and song to the holiness of God—if he himself fall into dull dust that knows not nor thinks; What, though the Master Builder lavish upon it his genius and his love, employing all of the skill of his art, toiling in patience and prayer, if he himself is choked in his own blood, and never sees the Temple standing stately in the sunlight or touched by the soft mysticism of the night.

But there is another question to be asked, answer to which involved the profoundest moral issues, affecting alike the honor of God and the moral order of the world. Solomon knew the delight of dreaming and planning the Temple, and to the Master Builder was given the keen joy of putting forth his fine powers in the building. But what about the multitude of humble workmen who toiled to make the dream come true, polishing stone, bearing burdens, doomed to the drudgery which is the only life which the mass of men ever know? Did they die and cease to be sinking into an undistinguishable blur of dust, unknown and unremembered, leaving only a tiny mark to tell that such faithful toilers ever lived at all, mere rubbish of the temple swept away?

No: Masonry will not have it so; By the character of God to whose praise the Temple is built and consecrated, by the worth of every man who added his love and labor to its building, by the faith that God is just, Masonry affirms that the builders are immortal, too. They are as living stones in the Temple, but as they toil there is built in their own being a temple as deathless as the Temple they built. The Temple and its Ritual are not ends in themselves, but a Divine means to the end that every workman, however humble, may be a sanctuary of faith, a shrine of life, an altar of purity, pity, and truth. Evermore the Temple rises and the builders rise with it, sharing its beauty and its prophecy.

"Sometimes the work goes on in deep darkness; sometimes in blinding light; now under the burden of unutterable anguish, now to the tune of great laughter and heroic shouting like the cry of thunder. Sometimes in the cry of the night time, one may hear the tiny hammerings of the comrades at work up in the dome—the comrades that have climbed ahead."

If a man die shall he live again? To this age old question, asked ever since man saw his fellow die, Masonry answers, Yes: because God is God, and man is man, and life is what it is. Once we see what it is that gives dignity, worth and meaning to life, argument for immortality is not needed. Until we do see it argument is useless.

Not only does Masonry plead for that freedom of faith which permits every man to believe what seems to him to be true, but, also, and with equal emphasis, for the liberty which faith gives to the Soul, emancipating from the despotism of doubt and the fetters of fear. By every act of spiritual culture, it seeks to create and build up in the hearts of man a great and simple trust in the goodness of God, in the worth of life, and the immortality of the soul. Help a man in a firm faith in the Infinite and from how many fears he is free: Once a temple of horror, haunted by shadows, his heart becomes a "cathedral of serenity and gladness" and his life is enlarged and unfolded into a richness of character and service.

There is no tyranny like tyranny of time, give a man a day to live and he is like a bird in a cage beating against its bars. Give him a year to move to and fro with his thoughts and plans, then you have liberated him from the despotism of a day. Enlarge the scope of his life to fifty years, then he has a sweep of moral dignity and power impossible before. But give him a sense of eternity, let him know that he lives, moves and acts in an ageless time that above and beyond the blunders and sins of the world there houses the Infinite, then he is free.

"Bede the Venerable in giving an account of the deliberations of the King of Northumberland and his counsellors, as to whether they should allow the Christian missionaries to teach a new faith to his people recites this incident. That after much argument and debate, a gray haired chief arose and recalled a feeling that came over him on seeing a little bird pass through, on fluttering wings the warm bright hall of feasting, while wintry winds raged without. The moment of flight was full of sweetness for the bird but it was brief. Out of the darkness it came, looked upon the bright scene, and vanished into the darkness again, no one knowing whence it came or whither it went."

"Like this," said the old veteran chief, "is human life. We come, our wise men cannot tell us whence. We go, and they cannot tell us whither. Therefore if there is anyone that can teach us more about it in Gods name let us hear him!"

So what does Masonry have to say in that great argument for the immortality of the human soul. In the place of making an argument lengthened and strong, it presents a picture—the oldest and greatest drama that has ever been presented on a human stage. It shows us the bleak tragedy of life in its darkest hour; the forces of evil that come up against the human soul, tempting it to treachery, and even to the degradation of saving life by giving up all that which makes life worth living; a tragedy which in its simplicity and power makes the heart ache and stand still. Then, out of the darkness there rises like a beautiful white star, that in man which is most appealing to God, his love of truth, his faith in the highest, and his willingness to go down into the shadow of death, if only virtue may live and shine like a pulse of fire in the evening sky.

Here is the ultimate and final witness of our divinity and immortality—the sublime, death defying moral heriosm of the soul. Surely the eternal paradox will hold true at the gates of the grave; he who loses his life for the sake of truth, shall find it anew; and here Masonry rests the matter, assured that since there is that in man which makes him hold true to the moral ideal, and the integrity of his own soul, against all of the brute forces of this world, the God who made man in his own image will not let him die in the dust; Higher vision it is not given us to see in the dim country of this world, deeper truth we do not need to know.

So my brethren let us on this occasion of this annual Grand Communication rededicate ourselves to the ideals and principles of Freemasonry. Let us go away from this meeting this afternoon more determined than ever to "EXEMPLIFY THE TEACHINGS OF FREEMASONRY IN OUR EVERYDAY LIFE." Let us take to heart the great lessons taught us around our Masonic altars, and live in such a way that we will understand what Oliver Wendell Holmes meant when he wrote those immortal lines.

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from Heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine out grown shell by life's unresting sea!"

The spontaneous and prolonged applause which followed gave proof of the appreciation the assemblage felt for our Distinguished Brother's thought provoking and timely message.

PRESENTATION OF FLOWERS BY CONCORDE CHAPTER ORDER OF DeMOLAY

The Grand Lodge was placed at ease by our Grand Master and a delegation from the above Chapter was invited into the Grand Lodge Auditorium, whereupon, with fitting words, Thomas P. Willson, Jr., on behalf of Concorde Chapter, presented to Grand Master Stephens a beautiful bouquet of Flowers and solicited the co-operation and inspirational support of our Brethren, reciting some of the teachings of this marvelous organization designed to inspire our youth in their duties and responsibilities.

The other members of the delegation were Emmett Woods, Jack Jones, Otto Dueltel, Jos. Palmisano, Earnest Corcoran.

They departed, after which the Grand Lodge was called back to labor.

In fitting ceremony W: Brother Manuel Rivera, P. M. and Secretary of Cervantes Lodge 5, presented to M:W: Brother Alex

L. Stephens his commission as Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of Venezuela near the Grand Lodge of Louisiana.

The Grand Master welcomed the Representatives to this Annual Grand Communication and accorded them the Grand Honors of Masonry, followed by response by M:W: Brother Robert W. Cretney, P. G. M.

The Grand Honors of Masonry were then given by the Grand Representatives to the Grand Lodge of Louisiana.

PRESENTATION OF STONE FROM WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON

D. C. BY M:W: BROTHER HOLLACE H. BAIN, P. G. M.

Most Worshipful Sir and dear Brethren:

I stand here as an ambassador from the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia, and as a representative of Most Worshipful Harry S. Truman, immediate past President of the United States and Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Missouri.

I would like to rehearse for you the part Freemasonry played in the formation of our country, but time does not permit. Of the more common incidents I am sure you know. The Capitol was designed and built by a Mason. The cornerstone was laid by the Grand Lodge of Maryland, with Washington acting as Grand Master pro tem. Thirteen and perhaps fifteen of the thirty-three Presidents of this country have been Masons and a majority of the members of Congress are Masons. Certainly no one can read the Bill of Rights and not recognize a retelling of the inalienable rights of man, as contained in the Ancient Charges, there set forth long before this country was thought of. Some of you will remember that in the long wrangle over the writing of the Constitution of the United States, the Delegates from the thirteen colonies could not agree. At the end of a particularly strenuous day, Benjamin Franklin, one time Grand Master of Pennsylvania, uttered these words: "The event is in the hands of God. Let us adjourn." When they reconvened, the hand of the Great Architect had been at work, difficulties were smoothed, and the Constitution came into being.

I wish I had the power to impress you with the thought that Masonry has played a great part in the building of our country and, also, our country's buildings. In the immediate instance, I ask you to recall, that the architect of the White House and its builders were, many of them, lodge members.

Within the last two years the White House has been rebuilt, because there was grave danger that the walls and floors, crumbling with age, would give way. The official family moved to Blair House and the White House was rebuilt from the ground up. Everything was torn out; ceilings, floors, plumbing, heating plant, everything except the outside walls of the structure which were retained. Thus a new White House was erected, a house within a house.

In the wrecking, stones bearing the marks of the craftsmen who worked on the building were discovered. There are enough of these stones each bearing a Masonic mark, to give one to each Grand Lodge in the United States. The Masons who placed their marks on these stones were not stone carvers; they were layers of blocks, as are brick layers today. Each Master Mason had his own mark (this should sound familiar to Royal Arch Masons) and this mark he carved upon the stones that he laid in the White House, doubtless in the hope that someday some one would see it and know that these stones were laid by Master Masons. Forty-nine of these stones were given by M:W: Brother Truman, then the President of the United States, to be presented to the forty-nine Grand Lodges in the United States.

He could have given these stones and the honor and pleasure of delivering them to the Grand Lodge of Missouri, Mother Grand Lodge of Western Masonry, and that over which he presided as Grand Master. He could have asked the largest or the oldest Grand Lodge, but he turned to the Grand Lodge in the District of Columbia, a Grand Lodge of but 25,000 Masons. He did this because the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia is Masonically supreme and all-powerful in the Capital City of this, the greatest nation in the world. He wrote to the Grand Lodge asking if it would convey one of these stones to every Grand Lodge in the United States, that each would have for all time to come this lasting treasure and memento of Masonry, built into the hall of presidents.

He also wrote a letter to each Grand Lodge which are framed with wood taken from the old White House. . . This letter I would like to read to you:

November 22, 1952.

To Grand Master of The Grand Lodge of Louisiana
"Most Worshipful Sir:

"Through the good offices of an ambassador from the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia, which is Masonically supreme in the Capital of the nation, I place in your hands a stone taken from the wall of the White House during its just completed rebuilding.

"Enough of these stones, each with a Masonic symbol upon it, were discovered to give one to each Grand Lodge in the United States.

"These evidences of the number of members of the Craft who built the President's official residence, links Freemasonry with your Government so intimately, that I believe your Grand Lodge will cherish this link between the Fraternity and the Government of the nation, of which the White House is a symbol.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

(signed) HARRY S. TRUMAN.

The White House
Washington, D. C."

I have been chosen to be the ambassador of my own Grand Lodge to deliver this stone to you. If I am to do it successfully, we must reach back in thought together, you and I, to the carving on this stone, to the Masonry which was so important in the building of this our beloved country.

In the name of our government, from the then President, and by the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia, I present to the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of Louisiana, this stone.

HOLLACE H. BAIN, P. G. M.

M:W: Brother Alex L. Stephens, Grand Master, accepted this gracious gift from our former President, M:W: Brother Harry S. Truman, and asked Brother Bain to convey to Brother Camellier and Bro. Truman the grateful thanks and appreciation of the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON APPEALS AND GRIEVANCES

We make our report as follows:

Broadmoor Lodge No. 432, F. & A. M. vs.

The accused was charged with unmasonic conduct. He was found NOT GUILTY. Your Committee is of the opinion that the actions of the Lodge should be sustained.

Lake Charles Lodge No. 165, F. & A. M., Lake Charles, Louisiana vs. A member of same Lodge.

Brother was charged with unmasonic conduct, duly tried, after asking mercy of the Lodge, Found Guilty, and by a majority vote was suspended for one year.

Your Committee recommends that the action of the Lodge be sustained, as to the guilt of the brother but the penalty be changed to indefinite suspension.

Unity Lodge No. 267 F. & A. M., Houma, Louisiana vs. Henry L. Verdillant.

Who was charged with unmasonic conduct. For which he was tried and convicted by the courts. He was also tried by his Lodge, found guilty, and given a penalty of indefinite suspension.

Your Committee recommends that the action of the Lodge be sustained.

DeQuincy Lodge No. 279, F. & A. M., DeQuincy, Louisiana vs. J. A. Weatherly.

The accused was charged with gross unmasonic conduct. Was tried by the Lodge, found guilty and was indefinitely suspended.

Solomon Lodge No. 221, F. & A. M., Pineville, Louisiana vs. John R. Galloway.

The accused was charged with unmasonic conduct. Was tried by a Commission form jury, found guilty and sentenced to a period of five years suspension.

Your Committee recommends that the action of the Lodge as to the guilt of the accused be sustained but the penalty be changed to expulsion.

Zona Lodge No 337, F. & A. M., Enon, Louisiana vs. Wade Lastee Polk.

A member of said Lodge, charged with unmasonic conduct. Was tried, found guilty and sentenced to indefinite suspension.

Your Committee recommends that the Action of the Lodge, as to the guilt of the accused, be sustained, but the penalty be changed to Expulsion.

Oak Grove Lodge 284, F. & A. M., Oak Grove, Louisiana, vs. Lem V. Williamson.

The accused was charged with unmasonic conduct. Was tried, found guilty, and as a penalty was given Indefinite Suspension by a vote of 73 for and 20 against.

We recommend that the action of the Lodge be sustained.

Theodore Roosevelt Lodge 415, F. & A. M., New Orleans, La. versus, charged with Unmasonic Conduct.

The accused was found guilty and sentenced to a reprimand before the Lodge.

Your committee recommends the action of the Lodge be sustained.

Invasion of Territory of the Grand Lodge of Texas by Orange Lodge 319, F. & A. M., Anacoco, Louisiana.

A file of 35 letters, which passed between the two Grand Jurisdictions, by the Grand Masters, Grand Secretaries, and Officials of Constituent Lodges interested, was referred to your Committee for review.

The records show that on or about April 6, 1953, one Robert Almon Owens applied for the degree in Masonry in Orange Lodge 319, Anacoco, Louisiana, was accepted and the three degrees were conferred upon him. He had previously lived in Anacoco, but in reality he had lived in Pasadena, Texas, for the last six years, but was spending week-ends in Anacoco.

He stated in his petition that Anacoco was his home, which gave it the stamp of regularity. To make a long story short, it is the opinion of your Committee (which is shared by our Grand Master) that the Investigating Committee of Orange Lodge were derelict in their duty. Hence the unfortunate occurrence of this trouble making breach of Masonic Law.

It is, indeed, to be regretted that our Grand Master and the Grand Master of Texas (whose burdens are already too heavy) should have to go through with all of the correspondence, investigations, apologies, etc., incident to settling a matter of this kind.

The breach was finally closed by our Grand Master ordering Orange Lodge 319 to strike from the rolls of their Lodge the name of the brother, and to remit all fees to Pasadena Lodge 1155, Pasadena, Texas.

The records show that Grand Master McKee of Texas demonstrated the true spirit of Masonry in his every act incident to a satisfactory settlement of the matter.

As a result of the seeming carelessness of Orange Lodge, our Most Worshipful Grand Master delivered to them a very well deserved reprimand.

Your Committee is of the opinion that our Grand Master handled the entire matter in a very dignified and able manner and in a way that will cement even closer the Masonic ties between the two Grand Jurisdictions of Texas and Louisiana.

Your Committee recommends that the action of our Grand Master be Approved.

At this point, the Grand Secretary interposed to state he had just received a long distance telephone call from Brother Harvey C. Byrd, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Texas, advising us that in the matter of invasion of Jurisdiction by Orange Lodge 319 in their Pasadena Lodge 1155, Pasadena, Texas, that it was discovered that their law on this subject did not provide for the transfer of Brother Robert Alum Owen membership from Orange Lodge to Pasadena Lodge, and that the Brother could remain a member of Orange Lodge. A letter to this effect confirming this long distance telephone conversation was being mailed this date. After some discussion a motion was Adopted that this Brother now remain on the rolls of Orange 319, of Anacoco, La.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE

Your Committee on Foreign Correspondence, to whom was reported certain sections of the Grand Master's address, reports as follows:

THE WASHINGTON CONFERENCES

Officers of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana are singularly fortunate in that they are privileged, at the beginning of the Grand Lodge year, to meet and exchange experiences and opinions with other officers of Grand Lodges throughout North America. We are pleased that our Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Secretary were enabled to participate in the several Washington conferences. We are confident that favorable results of their associations there with brethren of other jurisdictions will be felt in Louisiana this year and in the years to come.

VISITS TO SISTER JURISDICTIONS

We commend the Grand Master for having maintained fraternal contacts at first hand with so many of our sister jurisdictions. We concur in his expression of pleasure in the hope of having many of the officers of sister jurisdictions present with us in this meeting.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

We, your Committee on Masonic Education, to whom were referred certain portions of the Grand Master's address, beg to report as follows:

The Grand Master's references to the work of the Committee are very much appreciated, as well as his efforts throughout the year stressing the necessity for the use of the Degree Booklets and the need to supplement the conferring of degrees with material explaining the teachings and mission of Masonry.

We share his hope the Officers will find the Handbook as a valuable working tool, and that its use will prove of material benefit.

With regard to Recommendation No. 3—we agree with the Grand Master that the publication of the Louisiana Free Mason Magazine should be given serious thought and we welcome his suggestion that a sub-committee be appointed to survey and study the feasibility of providing a magazine on a subscription basis.

As this Committee will not report their findings and recommendations until the next Grand Lodge communication, we suggest that in the interim the Committee on Masonic Education be authorized to distribute such material and release such publications as in their opinion will be of benefit to the Craft, or to the advantage of the brethren, keeping the cost of same within the appropriation which will be allotted in the budget to the Committee for the coming year.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORK AND RETURNS OF LODGES

That portion of the Grand Master's report having reference to "Lodges operating under dispensation," and "Lodges Constituted," is approved.

With reference to Recommendation No. 6 of the Grand Master:

RESOLUTION No. 11

RESOLVED: That the monthly report furnished the Lodges by the Grand Secretary's office be discontinued; That the Grand Secretary be, and is hereby authorized to prepare a plan whereby the Lodges report to him monthly; and that the annual reports be made from a recapitulation of the monthly reports; thus eliminating the necessity of the Lodges furnishing annual report in the present form.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE ORDER

The Sections of the Grand Master's Address referred to us have been carefully examined by our Committee on State of the Order. We are happy to note the warmth which has accompanied the reception of the Grand Master throughout the Grand Jurisdiction during the past year. All Masons should reflect upon the great advantages which we of the free portion of the world enjoy. Privileges always carry responsibilities and we should be ever mindful of the challenges thrust upon us as men, Masons, and leaders and of our solemn and laborious duties of eternal vigilance in keeping aflame the lamps of truth and freedom, constantly remembering the inevitable triumphs through the ages of the Master of Men.

VISITS IN JURISDICTION

We note the Grand Master visited practically all of the Lodges and various other Masonic Bodies throughout the State during the year. And while we regret he was not able to accept all of the invitations extended him, we are happy indeed of the consideration, esteem, and dignity accorded him on his many visits, and we commend him on his energy and time given to these visitations.

SPECIAL EVENTS

In every man's life there are certain things and events that stand out as highlights. This was our Grand Master's experience in his year of service. He mentions several meetings because of sentimental or other ties and we are happy these pleasures were his and commend those who made them possible.

LOUISIANA RELIEF LODGE 1

We join with the Grand Master in commending them for the fine work they are doing and pray that God's blessing continue to be with them in their labors.

MASONIC RELIEF ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA

We are happy that it was the privilege of our Grand Master to extend the invitation to this group at their biennial meeting in Nashville, Tennessee in September 1953 that their next Session be held in the City of New Orleans in 1955 at which time our own Grand Secretary will preside as the president of the Association.

SHRINE DIRECTORS ASSOCIATION

It is noted our Grand Master was officially received and extended the courtesy of his high office by the above Association and we too join with our Grand Master in commending this fine group in their work with the crippled children.

LODGE HALLS DEDICATED

There were six (6) Lodge Halls dedicated during our Grand Master's administration at which he presided over five ceremonies and our Deputy Grand Master officiated over the last ceremony.

CORNER STONES LAID

It was the pleasure of our Grand Master to lay the corner stones of seven (7) Lodge Halls, and this in our opinion is a sign of a healthy condition, and we commend the brethren for their desire to erect modern Lodge Halls.

CENTENNIAL PLAQUES

Again our Grand Master was privileged to participate in the impressive ceremonies attendant upon the presentation of Centennial Plaques to Lodges attaining 100 years of continuous existence as Constituent Lodges of our Grand Lodge—which was done to five (5) Lodges the past year. We join with the Grand Master in wishing continued Masonic life to these Lodges.

MASONIC HOME FOR CHILDREN

Our Grand Master's consideration and love for children is expressed in his comments on the Masonic Home which is established in Alexandria.

We have given serious and deliberate thought to the recommendation of the Grand Master that consideration be given to amending our regulations for admittance to the Home so that a certain percentage of children might be taken in who do not qualify in regard to Masonic connection and we concur with him in this respect.

STATE OF THE ORDER

We now come to that portion of our Grand Master's Address devoted to the State of the Order. We note he finds peace and harmony prevailing; that the Lodges appear to be vigorous and healthy; that the officers and members are eager for instruction; that he mentions the services of the Committee on Masonic Education being available to all brethren seeking light on Masonic education; that the Lodge exists for the purpose of making men Masons and not for the purpose of accumulating members only.

The healthy condition of the Lodges is reflected in their desire to construct new Lodge Halls and their plans for future building. We are happy this condition prevails.

Our Grand Master mentions the laxity of the Committee on Investigations and we too join with him in urging that more serious thought be given by those who are appointed to serve on these Committees. The duty of brethren on the investigating committees is one of great responsibility and no member should be lax or neglectful or careless in this respect. We concur with the Grand Master that great care be exercised in the appointment of brethren to serve on these committees.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We are happy many helping hands have been extended to our Grand Master during his administration and his expressions of thanks and gratitude are extended to all who so ably assisted him.

CONCLUSION

The sentiments of our Grand Master are typical of one who has fulfilled the duties of his office not only in an excellent manner but has also experienced a boundless joy in their performance. M:W: Brother Stephens recognized the benefits derived from the privilege of service and we have no doubt he carries many memories of kindness and cooperation of the Brethren that will live with him forever.

The report of the Committee WAS ADOPTED.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE

We, your Committee on Masonic Law and Jurisprudence, to whom were referred certain portions of the Grand Master's address, beg to report as follows:

We approve the Grand Master's action in each instance as recorded under the following headings, with the following remarks and one exception.

A. Dispensations granted.

To install officers after December 27th.

Dispensation to hold installations after the 27th of December should be made only in extreme cases of emergency and, therefore, never in advance.

Dispensation to elect officers.

In the event it becomes necessary for the Worshipful Master, Senior Warden or Junior Warden to resign, the tender of the resignation must be made to the Grand Master stating the reason therefor.

Dispensation to confer degrees.

In the case of Covington Lodge No. 188 and Hiram Lodge No. 70, the dispensations to confer the 3 degrees at one and the same communication were granted before the candidates were elected to receive the E. A. degree.

In the case of David R. Graham Lodge 413 the reason for granting the dispensation to confer the 3 degrees at one and the same communication was the vocation of the petitioner who travels from state to state, which the Grand Master ruled was akin to the case of the Mariner. We do not think this justification for such ruling.

In order to heal the candidate under the above dispensations, they should be approved, but said approvals shall not serve as precedents.

We disapprove the permission issued to Broadmoor Lodge No. 432 of Shreveport, Louisiana, not to hold its regular stated communication of December 25, 1953, which fell on Christmas night. Where the By-Laws of a Lodge have been properly processed, the Grand Master does not have the authority to set them aside. (Hand Book of Masonic Law, page 80, Article 18.)

- B. Dispensation refused.
- C. Duplicate charters issued.
- D. Permission granted.
- E. Request refused.
- F. New By-Laws and Amendments to By-Laws approved.
- G. New By-Laws and Amendments to By-Laws disapproved.
- H. Appointments to fill vacancies.
- I. Rulings.

We approve the rulings of the Grand Master in each of the 10 cases.

All of the Rulings with the Exception of Ruling No. 7 were approved. After much discussion Ruling No. 7 was DISAPPROVED.

J. Recommendations.

With reference to the recommendation of the Grand Master we approve No. 4 which recommends that the incoming Grand Master appoint a committee to make a full study of the procedure of this Grand Lodge when balloting on candidates and calls for a report at our next Grand Session, and offer the following resolution:

RESOLUTION No. 12

Be it resolved, that the Grand Master appoint a committee of five members, of which not less than two shall be Past Grand Masters, to study and recommend to the next Grand Lodge Session, procedure for this Grand Lodge to follow when balloting on candidates.

No. 5—We approve this recommendation since the supplements to the Hand Book of Masonic Law and the 1933 Code are duplications.

PRESENTATION BY W: BROTHER L. C. FORD, W:M: YELLOW PINE LODGE 282

Brethren:

During the 1947 Session of this Grand Lodge of Louisiana, the Constituent Lodge, Louisiana 102 offered a suggestion that the Lodges of each succeeding Grand Master participate annually in paying for the purchase of a rostrum and public address system to be used in this auditorium.

These contributions would evidence the Lodge's appreciation to the Grand Lodge of Louisiana for the honor bestowed upon them by the elevation of each Lodge's favorite son to the high office of Grand Master of our state.

Happily this suggestion has been continued by the Lodges of all succeeding Grand Masters since 1946.

Yellow Pine Lodge 282 has been particularly honored by having one of its most illustrious sons serve the Grand Lodge of Louisiana as Grand Master—Most Worshipful Brother, Alexander Lazar Stephens.

Most Worshipful Sir—it is my distinct pleasure and privilege in behalf of the officers and members of Yellow Pine Lodge 282 to continue the established policy by tendering to the Grand Lodge of the State of Louisiana—our check for $100.00, the eighth toward the fulfillment of this most worthwhile endeavor.

Grand Master Stephens received the check and thanked his Lodge for this gracious gift.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

The Officers elected and appointed, who were present, were duly installed by M:W: Brother Alex L. Stephens, Retiring Grand Master, assisted by M:W: Brother J. Luther Jordan, P. G. M. as Grand Marshal, and Brother (Rev.) Herman T. Sullivan, as Grand Chaplain.

A beautiful Past Grand Master's Jewel was presented to Brother Stephens by Past Grand Master J. Luther Jordan, then a Past Grand Master's Apron was presented to Brother Stephens by Past Grand Master Robert W. Cretney.

A beautiful engraved Plaque was presented by Brother L. C. Ford, W. M. of Yellow Pine Lodge 282 to our retiring Grand Master Stephens as an evidence of his loyalty and devotion to the cause of Freemasonry and his Yellow Pine Lodge 282 of Oakdale, Louisiana.

Brother Stephens, with feeling and emotion, accepted these gifts with thanks.

Brother Cullen Coleman, District Deputy Grand Master of the 10th Masonic District, presented, on behalf of the Brethren of his District, an easy chair to Brother Stephens which is being sent to the home of Brother Stephens.

Past Grand Master Stephens spoke a few well chosen words, thanking these Brethren and the Grand Lodge for the opportunity he has had to serve Masonry.

A rising vote of thanks was given M:W: Brother Stephens as a tribute in testimony of his splendid services as Grand Master during the year.

* * *

M:W: Brother Dee A. Strickland, P. G. M., presented a gift to Brother Beasley from his dear wife. Brother Beasley responded with great feeling and thanks.

CLARENCE BEASLEY
Grand Master Elected and Installed
1954

CLARENCE BEASLEY

Grand Master, 1954

Our present Grand Master, Clarence Beasley, was born on May 21, 1888 in the City of Abilene, Texas, and acquired his public school education in that City. He was united in holy wedlock on July 4, 1913 to Miss Iva Jane Windham of Shelbyville, Texas, and together they have resided in Logansport, Louisiana, for the past twenty-eight years.

He is a member of the First Baptist Church at Logansport.

His civic activities are rather impressive, having served as Mayor of Logansport, and also as a Councilman of that City. He is Past President of the Logansport Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club. At the present time he is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Bank of Logansport; and is also on the Board of the Boy Scouts of America at Logansport.

Even though Bro. Beasley has led an active life in both civic and community enterprises, he has always found time for his favorite hobby, fishing.

He has a war record to be proud of, having served in both World War 1 and World War 2. At the present time is a retired Chief Warrant Officer (H. C.) United States Navy, and is a member of the American Legion, and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

His Masonic record follows: Received the E. A. Degree August 26, 1915; F. C. Degree September 2, 1915; M. M. Degree on September 23, 1915, at Vallejo, Calif., by special dispensation as a courtesy for Abilene Lodge No. 559, A. F. & A. M., Abilene, Texas. Demitted from Abilene Lodge 559, April 2, 1927. When he moved to Logansport, La. he affiliated with Mt. Vernon Lodge No. 83, on May 10, 1927. He later became active in the work and is a Past Master of that Lodge. He is a member and Past High Priest of DeSoto Chapter No. 64, R. A. M. of Mansfield, La. He also received the Order of High Priesthood. He is a member of Shreveport Council No. 23, R. & S. M., of Shreveport, La., and received the Super-Excellent Master Degree. He is a member of Ascension Commandery No. 6, K. T. of Shreveport, La.; as well as St. Matthew Conclave No. 24, Red Cross of Constantine, Shreveport; Shreveport Consistory, Ancient & Accepted Scottish Rite of Shreveport and attained the investiture of Knight Commander of the Court of Honor November 1951. He is a member of El Karubah Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., Shreveport. He is also a member of Alf. Garrett Chapter No. 123, O. E. S.

His active interest in Masonry would naturally attract the attention of the leaders of Freemasonry in our State and at the Session of February 1951 he began his climb up the ladder of fame in our Mystic Circle, becoming at that time Grand Junior Warden; successively in 1952, Grand Senior Warden; in 1953 Deputy Grand Master; and the crowning achievement of his Masonic career was attained when the delegates of our Grand Lodge elevated him to the highest position in their power to bestow, and he became our Grand Master at the 1954 Session on February 9th.

With this splendid record of accomplishments, there is no doubt that the services of Brother Beasley will be covered with great credit and honor in behalf of his fellowman.

The assignment of reading the printed proceedings of Grand Lodges spread throughout the world, if pursued with imagination, develops in the reader a feeling of having been present to share in the fraternal deliberations of brethren from East to West, at home and abroad; of having listened in when Grand Lodges decided weighty questions of jurisprudence, and of having shared in the joy of thousands of brethren as they heaped praise and honors upon their chosen leaders. The thrill and inspiration that comes from such an experience is beautifully described in the foreword of the report of the Committee on Correspondence and Relations of the Grand Lodge of New York thus:

"How little a man knows of Masonry unless he can hear the swelling harmonies that stream from its heart in lands other than his own! To catch the strains of that universal Masonic music as it sweetens life everywhere and make it vibrate and gladden the spirit of the members of our own Jurisdiction is the objective in the mind of your Committee.

"We wish it were possible to describe fully every Grand Lodge, but time and space forbid all but a glimpse here and there of the manner in which Masonry is meeting the challenge and demands of the present age as it has been doing through long years.

"The very birthright of Masonry makes necessary the widest of geographical horizons. Its message is to men of goodwill everywhere. Its spirit cannot be cribbed, cabined or confined. Arnold Toynbee, author of a monumental history wrote recently:

'A good mathematician may know the truth about numbers, and a good engineer may know how to make physical forces serve his purposes; but the engineer and the mathematician are human beings first—so for them, as well as for me, what matters most is not one's knowledge and skill but one's knowledge of other people.'

"He speaks with equal clarity and vision, over and over again, of the transforming power of the "creative minority" in the development of civilizations, of the tragedy which happens when they lose sight of a cause and objective bigger than themselves and become complaisant and formalized and most interested in self-preservation.

"No one can read the unfolding story of Masonry without being conscious that it is stirred by a passion to measure up to these challenges.

"It seeks to establish relationships with God and because of His Fatherhood it brings about a Brotherhood under His overshadowing Providence. That is an idea and purpose bigger than itself. That is Masonry."

NUMERICAL GROWTH

Earl B. Delzell, Grand Secretary, has prepared the following table of comparative statistics, which is here reproduced from the 1953

M:W: William M. Judd, in his address to the Grand Lodge of Ohio, said:

"While it is very gratifying to note the wonderful growth in our Order and the material prosperity which it enjoys, we should bear in mind the true strength of our Fraternity is not in numbers but rather the quality of our membership and deeds accomplished. Unless the community in which we live is better for the truths we teach, unless there is a greater purity and a higher sense of honor in those with whom we come in contact, we have failed our mission. Our success does not so much depend upon the numbers we initiate as upon whether we have done those things and instilled those principles that will make for better members of the community in which they live."

Increased membership leads to larger Lodges. Aaron H. Grout, P. G. M., fraternal Correspondent of the Grand Lodge of Vermont, comments with candor on the loss in effectiveness as Lodge memberships increase:

"Increasingly, we find pointed comments against the big Lodge, but nothing is done about it. We expect the big Lodge ties in with cheap Masonry. The bigger the Lodge, the smaller the dues required to operate, but what about the poor guy who pays his money and gets so little in return, by way of opportunity to work, with its inspiration to study, and the enjoyment of a fuller fellowship in the closer friendships which naturally exist in smaller bodies. Not much use to argue about all this because size and low dues seem to be joint fetishes in the U. S. A.

"We find an increasing sentiment that the parent should step in and compel the child to do that which the child will not do for itself, namely, assure its financial future. More Grand Lodges are thinking about the need of establishing minimum Lodge dues, the creation of Lodge charity funds in trust, the setting aside of building maintenance reserves, and the providing of money to foster the fellowship side of Freemasonry. Freemasonry in the U. S. A. at the grass roots should stop living from day to day and begin to plan and build for the future. It is our considered opinion that this much desired result can never be accomplished except through Grand Lodge action."

HISTORY

The Grand Lodge of Arizona discontinued its Committee on Masonic History which had been formed in 1912 and which for the forty-odd ensuing years had been continued, to function with indifferent success. At its own request the Committee on Masonic History was "discontinued until such time if and when interest may demand its reappointment." At the time the Committee was first established the then Grand Master cited a most valid reason for collecting historical data when he said, "Many of the Brethren who were active in the first struggle of the Order in the then sparsely populated jurisdiction are now getting well along in years and will soon pass away. It is well while they are with us, that the information, details, and other matters of Masonic history be gathered." Doubtless the brethren in question have long since passed to their respective rewards. It is to be hoped that the Committee, in its early activity, may have succeeded in collecting and preserving the details of early Masonic activities that may be had only from the participants in those pioneering experiences.

Despite the temporary (we hope) abandonment of the historical project in Arizona there is mounting emphasis on writing of Lodge and Grand Lodge Masonic histories. Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts abound in full, valuable, interesting Lodge histories prepared for 25, 50, 75, 100 and 150 years celebrations. In years to come these will be valuable source material for students of history, both Masonic and profane. The proceedings of Grand Lodge of Argentine carry a four page "Brief Outline of Freemasonry in the Argentine Republic," together with a statement of the Principles and Tenets of that Grand Lodge. (The action of our Argentine Brethren in supplying us with an excellent English translation of their Proceedings and History is a courtesy which we deeply appreciate.) The proceedings of the York Grand Lodge of Mexico likewise contain a brief outline of the "History of York Rite Masonry in Mexico."

We read in the Nebraska proceedings, in the report of the Committee on Masonic Education:

"The Midwest Conference has undertaken a most noteworthy project, that of sponsoring, jointly, with the Masonic Service Association of Washington, D. C., the publication of a "History of Freemasonry in the United States." The writing of this book will be undertaken by Brother H. L. Haywood, an eminently qualified Masonic author and scholar. It is estimated that his work will be completed in June of 1954, and that publication of his writings will be made immediately thereafter."

Grand Historian Brother George A. Moore made an interesting report to the Grand Lodge of Washington, presenting anecdotes and details of early Masonic history leading to the formation of that Grand Lodge.

A two page "Thumb-nail sketch" of the organization of the Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M. of Virginia, printed in the first pages of the Virginia Proceedings, outlines the events leading to the formation of that Grand Lodge and the installation of its Officers on October 30, 1778.

Grand Historian Brother Charles Herndon made a thrilling address on "The Influence of Masonry for Law and Order in Idaho 1860-1880." The five pages of the Idaho proceedings that carry this historical account will preserve for all time Masonic history that will always be part of the tradition and background of symbolic Masonry in Idaho. Brother Herndon's address included the following account of an 1862 funeral at Centerville, Oregon Territory. The story is taken from Col. George Hunter's "Reminiscences of An Old Timer."

"There were eight brothers, dressed in woolen shirts and patched pants. After making the necessary examination, we 'clothed' ourselves in white pocket handkerchiefs in lieu of the proper aprons and prepared to bury Slade. We had prepared as good a coffin as could be gotten in such a place, and the family were dressed in appropriate mourning. Forming in a procession, we repaired to an adjacent mound and there gave our Brother the usual Masonic burial, with all rites, etc. Then we returned to our improvised hall, placed a table in the center of the room with gold scales, a blower and a purse on it, stating that all Brothers had been made aware of the destitute circumstances of the widow and orphans, and asked that all would perform their duty. We then formed in line and marched around the hall; as a Brother came up to the table he would select a weight and balance it with gold dust, put the dust in the purse and move on, giving place to another. Oldham marched immediately in front of me, and as he came to the table, he pulled out a purse of some hundreds of dollars, carefully untied it, then poured the contents into the blower, shook my hand—the tears trickling off his long mustache, 'Brother George, we can do something to atone for our cussedness, can't we?'

"This settled it; I did not take time to untie my purse; my eyes being rather dim at the time; I suppose caused by a bad cold I had contracted a short time before. I just dropped what I had and passed on, as many others did. Suffice it to say, that on all being weighed, we found after paying all the expenses, we had a purse that we presented to the widow of nearly three thousand dollars. This purse Owsley, Oldham and myself were delegated to carry to the widow, which we did, and upon our presenting it to her she utterly refused to take it, as she said it was too much to accept from strangers. But after we had explained that if she did not take and use the money for herself and her children we would be forced to appoint guardians for the children, who would take and care for them, and that which was donated to and for them, their use and benefit, our arguments prevailed and she accepted the generous aid and within a few days started in the care of a Brother for her distant home and friends."

The Report of the Committee on History of the Grand Lodge of Ohio reports that Volumes I, II and III giving the history of that

Grand Lodge from its beginning to 1912 had been printed some years ago, and that work on volumes IV and V, continuing the history, is about 25 percent completed.

The Grand Lodge of Texas has formulated a plan that promises to produce a valuable 5 volume history of Texas Freemasonry. Here is the History Committee's report:

MASONIC HISTORY OF TEXAS

"For several years your Committee has given serious study to the preparation and publication of a comprehensive and definite History of Masonry in Texas from the beginning of the Eighteenth Century to date. To that end we have established a research division of our Committee consisting of the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer. We have authorized this subcommittee to confer and consult with the outstanding historians in Texas for assistance in this field. We have set up a scholarship which we have awarded to an able and worthy Mason, Brother James D. Carter of Bee House Lodge No. 550, Evant, Texas, in the preparation and completion of a dissertation on this subject from the early part of the Nineteenth Century up to the annexation of the Republic of Texas with the United States, in connection with a Degree of Doctor of Philosophy. We will use this material as the first volume of our proposed work.

"Following the completion of this first volume, we plan to grant additional scholarships to worthy, able and qualified graduate students, who are working toward an advanced degree in the Universities of our state offering such degrees, whose theses and dissertations will relate to other phases and periods of this work until its completion, which is contemplated to consist of some five separate volumes. All of this work will be under the direct supervision of an advisory committee composed of a group of the most distinguished and prominent historians of Texas, who will advise our subcommittee and assist it in this endeavor.

"While the final completion of this project involves a long-range program, we are hopeful that we will be able to develop and produce, through this program, in an economically feasible manner, a thorough and accurate history of our Masonic heritage and the influence of Masonry upon all phases of life in our state. We sincerely believe the accomplishment of this objective will be of considerable value and service to the Craft, as well as to Masonry generally, and will result in the promulgation and dissemination of very valuable Masonic educational material."

While it may not have direct Masonic connection, the following excerpt from Manly Hall's "The Sacred Destiny of America," reported by P. G. M. John C. Hubbard to the Grand Lodge of Oklahoma certainly has Masonic significance:

"According to Jefferson, it was late in the afternoon before the delegates gathered their courage to the sticking point. The talk was about axes, scaffolds and the gibbet, when suddenly a strong bold voice sounded: 'Gibbet!' They may stretch our necks on all the gibbets in the land; they may turn every rock into a scaffold, every tree into a gallows, every home into a grave, and yet the words of that Parchment (Declaration of Independence) can never die! They may pour our blood on a thousand scaffolds, and yet from every drop of blood that dyes the ax a new champion of freedom will spring into birth! The British King may blot out the stars of God from the sky, but he cannot blot out His words written on that parchment there. The works of God may perish, His words NEVER."

"The words of this Declaration will live in the world long after our bones are dust. To the mechanic in his workshop they will speak hope; the slave in the mines, freedom; but to the coward kings, these words will speak in tones of warning they cannot choose but hear . . . "Sign that Parchment. Sign, if the next moment the gibbet rope is about necks! Sign, if the next minute this hall rings out with the clash of falling axes! Sign! By all your hopes in life or death, as men, as husbands, as fathers, brothers, sign your names to the parchment, or be accursed forever. Sign, and not only for yourselves, but for all ages, for that parchment will be the textbook of freedom, the bill of rights of man forever."

"Nay, do not start and whisper with surprise! It is truth. Your own hearts witness it. God proclaims it. Look at this strange band of exiles and outcasts, suddenly transformed into a people; a handful of men, weak in arms, but mighty in Godlike faith; Nay, look at your recent achievements, your Bunker Hill, your Lexington, and then tell me, if you can that God has not given America to be free!"

"Methinks I see the Recording Angel come trembling up to that throne and speak his dread message: 'Father, the old world is baptised in blood. Father, look with one glance of Thine eternal eye and behold evermore that terrible sight, man trodden beneath the oppressor's feet, nations lost in blood, murder and superstition walking hand in hand over the graves of the victims, and not a single voice of hope to man!'"

"He standeth there, the Angel, trembling with the record of human guilt. But hark! The Voice of God speaks from out that awful cloud: 'Let there be light again! Tell my people, the poor and oppressed, to go out from the old world, from oppression and blood, and build my altar in the new.'

"As I live, my friends, I believe that to be His Voice! Yes, were my soul trembling on the verge of eternity, were this hand freezing in death, were this voice choking in the last struggle, I would still, with the last impulse of that soul, with the last wave of that hand, the last gasp of that Voice, implore you to remember this truth—God has given America to be free!

"Yes, as I sank into the gloomy shadows of the grave, with my last faint whisper, I would beg you to sign that parchment for the sake of those millions whose very breath is now hushed in intense expectation, as they look up to you for the awful words, 'You are free!'

"(The unknown speaker fell exhausted into his seat. The delegates, carried away by his enthusiasm, rushed forward. John Hancock scarcely had time to pen his bold signature before the quill was grasped by another. It was done. The delegates turned to express their gratitude to the unknown speaker for his eloquent words. He was not there).

"Who was this strange man who seemed to speak with a Divine Authority? Whose solemn words gave courage to the doubters and sealed the destiny of the new nation? Unfortunately, no one knows. His name is not recorded, none of those present knew him. How had he entered into the locked and guarded room is not told, nor is there any record of the manner of his departure. Only his imperishable speech bears witness to his presence.

MASONS AS CITIZENS

Many speeches have been made and countless pages have been written emphasizing the duty of the Mason as a citizen. It is well that increasing emphasis is being placed on our responsibility for practicing in our daily lives the principles that we are taught within the confines of our Lodge rooms. The teachings of Freemasonry are not to be likened unto a hidden treasure, to be enjoyed in solitude, as a miser secretly contemplates his hoard of gold, but are as a store of currency of the realm which a man takes with him daily as he goes about his life's work; currency that enters into every transaction as he earns his daily bread, as he participates with his neighbor in community activities, as he helps those less fortunate, as he promotes the work of his church; currency that is useful only to the extent that it is used; currency that in being used, replenishes itself and so provides an even larger fund upon which to draw—a larger, stronger reserve that enables its possessor to venture into wider fields of endeavor. More and more officers of Grand Lodges are urging that we participate vigorously in the political, economic and religious activities about us, not as Masonic Lodges, but as Masons, as citizens with an awakened interest in good government, in a sound economic structure, in strong churches, in every phase of healthy community activity.

Grand Orator, W: Brother Ivan E. Merrick, concluded his oration to the Grand Lodge of Washington thus:

"We stand in the tradition of men who took their freedom seriously and who would not permit it to be bartered away to anyone within or without our Institution. With that freedom before God they faced reality. With that freedom they passed judgment on the world they saw and proceeded to bring their insights to the correction of injustices, to the conquering of fear, and to a sacrificial, transforming leadership.

"But today we stand aloof. The cry may be 'politics.' It may be 'That's prying into someone else's affair.' It may be that 'So and so—or such and such a group—won't like it.'

"It's about time that we Masons have the courage to tackle problems as they are. It's about time that we are discussing the problems of labor and management in our Lodges. We are free men who can work with free ideas.

"We ought to have something new to say on the question of education. We should be bold enough to criticize and to offer a constructive solution to at least one of the problems which faces our free teachers—that it is legal to teach Hegel and Marx but it is not legal to teach the Jewish-Christian tradition. No, the solution is not to take out Hegel and Marx, but it is to provide strength, support, and insight to devoted teachers that they may be given a full chance. Masonry claims much in the establishment of the public schools; but we treat them like unwanted children. They need the partnership which we can give—if we dare to be free.

"We ought to have something to say about the problem of war and peace. The United Nations itself should feel the spirit of those who are brave enough to take their stand for ideas that are greater than they are. The free forum of Masonry should be infusing the world with the Masonic spirit that has come to life in times past to set the world on fire—that a despairing age may see some of its problems solved—that new horizons of hope may open to men everywhere.

“We are perfectly aware of our present condition. In terms of the vitality we have shown in the past, we have let our ancestors down. We have become “degree mills” or “chowder and marching societies.” We have failed the trust that has been imposed upon us. We have tried to lift ourselves by our own bootstraps—with every device that seems to appeal to modern man. But the fact remains that the force of Masonry is outside of Masonry. It is religious men only who can compose it—men whose commitment to God is unqualified—whose devotion marks everything that they do—whose trust in God is unre-served. These men are Masons—none other can be. These men are free—none other can be. These men can discuss, and de-bate, and evaluate, and criticize, and judge—none other can.

“May God give us His grace that we may turn to the trestle-board and see that it really does have designs—and that these designs will reorder our dangerous confusion. May they ever lead us to the life and force which it is our right to claim.”

M:W: Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the Philippine Islands said:

“No man, much less the Mason can afford to fold his hands with an attitude of aloofness while the forces of retrogression and the influence of human selfishness are on the increase. Let us not forget that Masonry is a progressive moral science and an uncompromising advocate of wholesome living and good government. Whatever is injurious to a people whose history is replete with so much sacrifice for freedom and dignity affects the Masonic Way of Life; and an attempt to substitute our democratic institutions for dictaorship in any manner, shape, or form, undermines the very foundation of our Ancient and Venerable Institution.”

W: Brother Nils J. Kjellstrom, in his oration entitled, “Will God Bless America?” told the brethren of the Grand Lodge of New Mexico:

“We have had great moments in the history of our nation and the greatest of these was the day set aside for the signing of the Declaration of Independence. For of the 56 signers of that famous document, 53 were Master Masons. They were the makers of America, these members of our Fraternity who found-ed this land of liberty on the principles of brotherly love, faith, hope and charity. They have left us the greatest heritage in the history of mankind.

"Brethren, we have today the greatest call to Masonic service since the dawn of civilization. Shall we fail those members of the Craft who have thrown to us the torch? It has often been said that 'eternal vigilance is the price of liberty' and we have so far forgotten these fundamental principles that in the last few years there have been created in our country several organizations whose sole purpose is to sell our heritage: that is, to sell our heritage back to us. We have been urged and begged to vote. It has become necessary for these organizations to send us documents teaching the fundamental principles which the members of our Craft gave us in the early days of our republic.

"We may, from week to week, go to our Lodge rooms and there exemplify our beautiful work, but what else are we, as Masons, doing for mankind? As we see the iron fist of Communism over most of Europe and the shadow of Russia over us, we must realize that we are the only powerful nation in the world that can preserve Christianity and we, as American Masons, are the only ones who can save our Fraternity from oblivion.

"We must accept this challenge to Masonic service. America needs us today as she needed those 53 members of our Fraternity who created that document which has been the admiration of mankind for generations."

Read this excerpt from W: Brother John R. Magyar's oration on "Duty and Democracy" delivered to the Grand Lodge of Nebraska:

"Think with me upon the subject of Duty and Democracy. For only as you and I as Masons retain a high and noble conception of what our duties are in relation to our fellowman can we hope to maintain the glorious democracy in which we and our fellow Masons live.

"When first we entered a Masonic Lodge we did so with varied and mixed emotions. We had high hopes that Masonry would mean a great deal to us—and we also had high hopes of making a contribution in turn. There were some who entered the Lodge with doubts and hesitancy as to what might happen, for they were 'kidded' by some prankster as to what would happen in the ritualistic work. Most of us, though, honestly came with high expectations of Masonry; and we were not disappointed. And as we stood before the altar of Masonry we were informed that we would not be required nor expected to do that which would in any way conflict with any of those exalted duties we owed to God, to our country or to our neighbor. Not once, but on three separate occasions were we reminded of the fact that we had exalted duties. Of course, we had those duties long before we entered the Lodge, but after we were brought to light and instructed, they were revealed to us in a new light. These duties assumed a different hue. Yet it is with some regret we see those who wander from the pathway of Masonry, who do not have fellowship with the brethren. Once they aspired to work with us, but now, they walk in old paths.

"Erroneously they assume that once having been raised to the degree of a Master Mason they know all there is to know about Masonry. Those who have labored long in Masonry know that none can possibly acquire all the knowledge there is in Masonry. However, let us think kindly of such for theirs is the great loss; they are joiners; true Masons are builders.

"For such brethren there are no duties to perform, no responsibilities to fulfill. Mackey in his great work has this to say relative to the duty of a Mason, "The duty of a Mason as an honest man is plain and easy. It requires of him honesty in contract, sincerity in affirming, simplicity in bargaining and faithfulness in performing. To sleep little, and study much, to say little and to think much, to learn that he may be able to do, and then do it earnestly and vigorously whatever the good of his fellows, his country and mankind requires."

"Now I am aware of the fact that this word DUTY is a harsh word. It doesn't have the pleasant ring to the ear that some words might have that I could mention. From Masonic history we learn that our ancient Brethren had a very clear understanding of the duties that fell upon them. The ancient landmarks and customs bear ample testimony of this fact. Many good men are unable to enter our fraternity because of these landmarks and customs. The craft in the past excluded all those who could not for various and sundry reasons assume all of the duties and responsibilities as Master Masons.

"Let us see who had the right idea. It may develop that the Masonic Fraternity has survived and grown to such vast dimensions because the craft of the past had this stern creed which put duty in its proper place. A soft creed of life and service breeds death.

"If this word duty still sounds harsh to us as Masons, all we need to do is look around and notice the brethren to whom Masonry means a great deal. They are those who have served the Lodge faithfully in the past, they serve in the present, and if the Lord be willing, they will serve us well into the future. And for the most part they are the same men who recognize their duty to God, their country and to their fellowmen. We see few such fall by the wayside, Masonically speaking, who have learned the significance of the duty that falls upon them.

"Considering DUTY then in relation to DEMOCRACY—We ought first to have some idea just what Democracy is. It is not a political system nor is it a religion as might be said of communism—wherein the state is virtually worshipped. Democracy is you. It is you and your neighbor. Democracy is you and your neighbor and your neighbor's neighbor. It is this—no more and no less. Thus if we cannot see our duty in relation to our neighbor whom we can see, we can hardly be expected to recognize it on a larger scale. If you and I do not like the idea of being our brother's keeper, certainly we should not object to being our brother's brother. If only this idea would be put into practice the world would travel a long way in the direction of peace, happiness and the life before man in the ideal."

P. G. M: A. H. Seabrook, Grand Lecturer of the York Grand Lodge of Mexico, reports:

"It has been my plan to deal more extensively with the practical side of Freemasonry, and to urge my Brethren to use their Freemasonry more widely in the outside world and not to confine their efforts to work within the precincts of the Lodge; to prove in their own lives that the virtue of sincerity—contrary to what some writers may claim—can be acquired as those other attributes such as tact and understanding and tolerance, and that these altogether can become a strong influence for good in the world to defeat the evil challenges which continually face us in this age and time. Call our system by any other name you wish, it is my conviction that Freemasonry holds the key to universal peace, but unless each and every Mason is determined individually to oppose the wrong and to uphold the right by example more than by precept, we, as Masons, shall have lost a very valuable opportunity to prove our true worth before the Grand Architect of the Universe and to mankind."

M:W: Brother Thomas Roy, Grand Master of Massachusetts, concluded his annual report thus:

"We must not forget, however, that we are privileged men. We have scaled heights of knowledge and experience denied to other men. We are those whose eyes are open to the light. If we claim membership in an exclusive group, an exclusive nobility, we must hear the ancient words "noblesse oblige," and prove that we have accepted the obligations of nobility. As we demonstrate here today our concern for the less important things in Masonry, let us demonstrate in the world our concern for the more important things in Masonry, the proclamation of the truths inherent in our symbolism and the application of our principles in all of our activities. Because we cannot tolerate a discussion of politics and religion in our Masonic meetings does not mean that we are divorced from them. Freemasonry is no ivory tower in which a man may take refuge from the realities of a struggling world. Rather is it a moral force that through its members can be projected into the world, changing the political climate, and giving a new emphasis to the realities of religion. The race that is going on today is not between Capitalism and Communism; it is not between totalitarianism and democracy; it is not between education and ignorance, but between brotherhood and destruction. We must live by the principles of brotherhood or face the destruction that our refusal makes imperative. As those committed to brotherhood as a program of life, let us accept the task of making it a reality."

We include here the flag ceremony with which the Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan was opened—a ceremony of deep and satisfying significance in the presentation of the Union Jack of Canada and of the Stars and Stripes, a ceremonial flag that had been given by brethren of the Grand Lodge of Montana. Surely here was a Masonic act, not of local, or national, but of international import; one of those innumerable deeds that are indispensable if we ever hope to have nation bound to nation as brother is bound to brother:

FLAG CEREMONY

"Bro. Cpl. E. C. Curtain, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, presented the Union Jack and Bro. Cpl. C. F. A. Hutchins presented the Stars and Stripes at the Altar, using the following ceremonies:

'I now present our Flag—the Union Jack—the emblem of Freedom and Democracy.

'As its component crosses were successively combined to symbolize the vountary unions of free peoples, so may it continue to typify the greater unities of our wider Commonwealth.

'May the red, the colour of the sacrificial blood of the martyrs, the white like the snowy lambskin of Masonry, and the blue of the changeless vault of the sky, symbolically depicting COURAGE, PURITY and TRUTH, blend wherever it floats the wide world round to blazon forth a sure pledge of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity for all peoples everywhere. Long may it wave!'

'So mote it be. NATIONAL ANTHEM.

'I now present the flag of the United States of America—the Stars and Stripes. As its Stripes represent the original thirteen states and its stars represent the original thirteen and thirty-five other states which have been added successively to the great Republic, so may it continue to grow in the respect of other nations and in its powerful support of freedom the wide world over.

'The flag which I now present is a Ceremonial Flag, the gift of the Brethren of the Grand Lodge of Montana, and expresses not only their patriotism, but also their regard and affection for the Brethren of Saskatchewan.

'I join with my brother flag-bearer and borrow his words. Wherever the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes float, may they, with one voice, blazon forth a sure pledge of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity, for all peoples everywhere. In the unity of that pledge, long may they wave.

'So mote it be. GOD BLESS AMERICA.'

We paraphrase here a fragment of P. G. M. Ernest R. Moore's Report on Fraternal Review for the Grand Lodge of Iowa:

"Careful reading of the proceedings of some 70 jurisdictions leaves in the mind of the reader an impression of wide differences of opinion, an insignificant but rather a startling agreement in the conclusions on what Masonry should be and what Masonry should accomplish. To me this last year there has been impressed upon my mind the growing appreciation among Masons in a wide expanse from Scotland to New Zealand of what Masonry should be, and the further conviction that it is the duty of Masons to carry into their own homes, be they of high or low estate, ambitious or modest, those principles of Masonry which would help accomplish the good that comes with the adoption of a pure democracy of thought and action."

M:W: Brother Jack Guy Standifer, Grand Master, admonished the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Georgia to:

"Assume your responsibilities as Master Masons and American citizens. In these uncertain times your state and nation needs you. Make strong that moral force. Exercise your franchise. Back your public school system. Be on guard against subversive elements and those who would destroy our way of life, be they political, militaristic, or ecclesiastical. My brothers—it may be later than you think."

M:W: Brother Gordon A. McMorran, in his report to the Grand Lodge of Manitoba, said:

"Brethren, I submit that one of the great challenges to Freemasonry today is that of broadening its horizons. Our Lodges are building men of character with a spirit of brotherhood. Our Grand Lodges should, somehow or other, unite to a greater extent than they do at present, in the building of Universal Freemasonry, by rendering all possible assistance and encouragement to our brethren in other lands where freedom and tolerance are not so safely anchored as here on this continent. Anything that can be done to strengthen Freemasonry (the spirit of Freemasonry) wherever Freemasonry is permitted to function, will, in the natural course of events, strengthen, and bring together the peoples of the free world. And survival will most certainly depend upon a broadening and strengthening of the free world."

Many beautiful smyabolic references are interwoven in addresses and orations recorded in proceedings. M:W: Brother A. C. Lowe, Grand Master of Tasmania, in his concluding report, said:

"Studying Freemasonry is like looking at a sunset. Each man who looks is filled with the beauty and wonder of it but the glory is not diminished." For nearly three years I have been studying Masons and Masonry and whilst the one has proved a fascinating mental experience, the other has been full of lively active human interest. Together we have climbed some of the high mountains of Masonry there to gaze on the distant hills, there to reflect on the beauty and wonder of Masonry in all its glory. When at my installation I was elevated to the high and honourable position of Grand Master I asked for the help and support of my brethren, I little knew how full nor how generously these hopes would be realized, for with your help and support I have seen the beauty and wonder of Masonry expressed in the warm glow of your friendship, the richness of your love, the steadfastness of your faith. Two years ago your expressed faith in me was stronger than mine own. Faith such as this is inspiring, for out of this simple faith there grows by inevitable logic, the philosophy which Masonry teaches. The philosophy of Masonry is friendship and Masonry is friendship in action. "Walt Whitman found the basis of all philosophy, all religion in the dear love of man for his comrade, the attraction of friend to friend." Also in Masonic literature it is one perpetual paean of the practice of friendship from earliest time to our own day. Assured as we are of the uplifting influence of Masonry let us not be afraid, each one of us, to cultivate a lofty ideal of our Masonic duty. It has been said that those who live on a mountain not only have a wider view but enjoy a longer day than those who live in a valley. We have but one day to live. What we have to do must be done here and now. Let us therefore not be afraid to live on a mountain in our ideals of Freemasonry and so secure a longer day in which to unite in the grand design of being happy, and communicating happiness to others.

"When one's task is near its closing stages, even as is mine to-day, it may be likened to the sunset which comes in the world around us. The transcendent glory of the sunset has been seen by the poet and the ordinary man. Artists like Turner, possessed unusual power by which what he saw was realistically imposed upon canvas. But the glory of it all abides with those who have stayed to look thoughtfully upon it.

"And in this hour, as if looking upon a sunset, I see the light upon the higher hills—for these two years have shown me heights of love and loyalty ablaze with the glory of high living and noble service. I have seen Masons and Masonry which remind me of the glory of the higher hills in the bright and glowing sunlight of nature. For, outstanding and sunlit loyalty and service I have witnessed—never to be forgotten. The sunset brings such experiences to mind. Yet even in the sunset glory which nature provides there can be seen shadows, for as the sun dies down the lower levels lose the glory. And in my time as your G. M. I have seen not only the sunlit heights of loyalty and noble service, but unfortunately I have seen some shadows revealing the weaknesses even found among Masons which are in striking contrast to the higher levels of glorious service.

"But there is something else to be discovered and pondered upon when sunset brings its glories. For after the sunset comes again the sunrise. I am near the end of a very happy and cheering period of association with you all as your Grand Master, but I do not forget whilst it is sunset for me, it is soon to be a glorious and promising sunrise for my successor. I face the West, he faces the East, and my wish for him is that he will enjoy the warmth of the respect and loyalty and love which Masons have given unto me. And when sunset time arrives in his high Masonic office, may he be privileged to see the glories which can never be diminished."

M:W: Brother Lowe's successor, M:W: Brother R. P. Furmage, told the brethren of Tasmania in his acceptance speech:

"A man has many experiences during his lifetime, some pass unheeded and are forgotten. Others make a lasting impression on our lives.

"To-night I am very conscious of three of the latter class in my own experience.

"The first was a happening that falls to the lot of most men. It was the occasion on which a most lovely and gracious young lady placed her hand in mine and promised to share her life with me. I then in front of the church altar dedicated myself to do my utmost to be worthy of the trust she reposed in me. A trust that has brought to me the richest blessings of my life.

"The second was something that happens to quite a number of men. It was that of being Installed as Master of my Mother Lodge. At the time this made a tremendous impression on me and I marvelled that the Brethren of my Lodge should see fit to confer this honour on me. And once again I dedicated myself to strive to be faithful to the confidence reposed in me.

"And to-night I have had an experience that comes to very few men—that of being Installed as Grand Master of a Masonic Sovereign Grand Lodge, undoubtedly one of greatest honours that can be bestowed on any man. I would be more than human if I were not stirred very deeply by the grandeur, the solemnity, and the dignity of the ceremony through which I have just passed, and also if I were not very proud of having been elected by my Brethren to this high office. I would be less than human if I were not very conscious of and somewhat overawed by the magnitude of the duties and responsibilities which are attached to the office.

"This Ceremony of Installation is a constant reminder to us that Freemasonry is a progressive Science, and that the work is handed on from Hand to Hand, from Year to Year, from Generation to Generation.

"At this particular time it also reminds us that in the Book of Time one chapter is just closing and another is opening. Our record as men and Masons for the Masonic Year, 1952, has been written and cannot be reopened. The record only remains.

"As a small child on a sandy beach will fill its hands with sand and idly watch the grains fall from its fingers, so we too have had opportunities for service to mankind within our grasp and have let them slip away. These opportunities are gone forever.

"However, a new Masonic Year is beginning—a new chapter in the book of time lies open before each of us. Its pages are white. A silent challenge to cause a man to pause and hesitate with uncertainty and think well upon each action before it becomes a record."

M:W: Brother Wallace Caldwell, P. G. M., North Carolina, in speaking before the Grand Lodge of Virginia, gave the brethren food for serious thought when he told them:

"As I was thinking about it, I harked back to one little piece of the Ritual which I always shake my head over a little bit, if one dare, over the Masonic Ritual. You remember something about three steps—the first being that of Entered Apprentice, where we are to occupy our minds in attaining knowledge, —I am not going to try to recite the Ritual for you; the second, that of being Fellowcrafts, where we are applying our knowledge, and the third, that in old age as Master Masons we may enjoy the happy reflections consequent upon a well-spent life, and die in the hope of a glorious immortality. Brethren, I don't think I have ever known a Master Mason, if that's the definition of a Master Mason, because all real Master Masons that I know are not thinking upon the past and waiting to die, but still at work wishing they had more time because there are so many things to do. It seems to me that in the eyes of the Supreme Grand Master, we are all Fellowcrafts, we are all fellows of the Craft, building our spiritual temple, fitting ourselves as living stones for that spiritual building, and we will become Master Masons when, if we have done good work, and our bodies are laid to rest on the brow of the hill, we are raised by the Almighty hand of the Supreme Grand Master above into fellowship in that Celestial Lodge."

M:W: Brother Clarence D. Freeman, P. G. M., Virginia, left these thoughts with the brethren of the Grand Lodge of West Virginia:

"My Brethren, we read that Masonry is grand because it is old—but Masonry is old because it is grand. Our history reaches back through the ages until it is lost in the darkness of eternity. Not by accident has it survived so long, but because of the eternal law that the inherent principles of right shall endure. Masonry has beauty, the purity and the hope of youth, the strength and vitality of manhood, and the dignity and glory of old age. It is founded on Divine wisdom, supported by invincible strength, and adorned with ineffable beauty. It is that sublime institution which carries lessons of true manhood, devotion to women, and loyalty to truth in every hamlet within our borders. It is that permanent institution by whose example almost every other benevolent order which exists today has been called into being. It is that imperishable institution which, by its tenets and cardinal virtues, draws at the same time into its sanctum sanctorum the high, the low, the rich and the poor, and which, by its faith and unswerving fidelity, has challenged the admiration of all mankind.

"Our fraternity stands today as the only human institution which teaches and protects the absolute equality of man. Masonry regards no man for his worldly wealth or honors. It is the internal and not the external qualifications of a man that recommended him to become a Mason. Before the Masonic altar there is no aristocracy but that of right, no nobility but that of manhood, and there all men, be they high or low, or rich or poor, meet upon the level and work upon the square. Masonry is today—and we hope it may ever continue to be—the most powerful force in the world leading to the common brotherhood of man.

"It is no idle boast that by the grip one Mason may know another in the dark as well as in the light, for it is a grip whereby one brother may know another in the darkness of adversity and misfortune as well as in the full light of prosperity and exalted station.

"Masonry teaches us loyalty and obedience to constitutional authority and civil rights, without which good government could not exist. A Mason ever loyal to the principles and tenets of his Fraternity is a faithful citizen, and will uphold the law of the land, not from a sense of necessity, but from a conviction that peace and happiness can only exist in that society where law is respected.

"A Mason is industrious and labors to provide for the necessities of those dependent upon him and for the relief of his distressed and indigent brethren. He strives not only so to live that he will lead none into evil ways but, rather to point out the way for them to a more useful life in striving to honor, love and obey God.

"A Mason is charitable, for charity is the hand of fellowship that strengthens, it is the word that ever brightens a dull life, it is assurance of brotherly love that lightens many of the burdens of the weary one. In the giving of charity, empty your pockets, if you will, but, above all, pour out from your hearts that which is far more precious than the silver that perishes—the gift of true love—the blessings of charity—and thus bring into closer communion that fellowship which should ever exist between man, and more especially between brother Masons.

"Freemasonry needs no defense; it makes no apology; it lives and prospers on the good spirit of those who enter its portals of their own free will, and its Masonic faith binds together men of all nations into one common brotherhood. So it is with any institution founded on enduring principles of right—it will grow and prosper in the face of any opposition, so long as its practices are consistent with its teachings."

R. R. Brother Louis H. Kaub, Grand Chaplain, in presenting the Necrology report to the Grand Lodge of Oregon, used this illustration:

'Over the triple doorways of the magnificent cathedral of Milan are three inscriptions. One warns, 'All that pleases is but for a moment'; and the second reminds us that 'All that troubles is but for a moment'; while the third and most significant reads, 'That only is important which is eternal'. Hearts become strong and hopes become valid when we realize that such a God is the source of our comfort, and we can commit our beloved to His care and keeping in confidence."

Here are two paragraphs and a stanza taken from Brother Rev. W. G. Martin's address at a luncheon for the Grand Lodge of Manitoba:

"Someone has said that the Nations of the world face seven deadly sins—Policy without Principles; Wealth without Work; Pleasure without Conscience; Knowledge without Character; Commerce and Industry without Morality; Science without Humanity; Worship without Sacrifice. These are mountains that stand between man's need and his neighbor's answer to that need, and they challenge us to the pick and shovel job of self-denying service to see that the mountains are tunneled through.

"Sir Owen Seaman's famous lines epitomize what is pure religion and undefiled and what constitutes the true creed of every loyal citizen in the world.

'To steel ourselves against the lust of ease;
To find our welfare in the general good;
To hold together merging all degrees
In one wide Brotherhood.
To teach that he who saves himself is lost;
To bear in silence though our heart may bleed;
To spend ourselves and never count the cost,
For others' greater need.'

M:W: Thomas Roy, Grand Master of Massachusetts, spoke to the Grand Lodge of New York as follows:

"We need two things in Freemasonry, Brethren, if we are going to accomplish that which we ought to accomplish as Masons, if we are going to live up to our high hopes and our high claims. One is that we may see clearly the things that we ought to do. We are those who have received light, and we have to prove it to the world, that we have received light particularly in those human values, if you will, without which our way of life cannot be established in the world.

"There ought to be not only an ability to see but the ability to feel passionately, if necessary, that which we ought to feel about this great cause of ours in the work that we are supposed to do. There comes to me an illustration out of a book that was written by a man with an unpronounceable name, —I call him Merej Kowski, who wrote "The Life of Leonardo daVinci." In the course of his story of the life of daVinci he tells that at one time, after one of his journeys to America, Columbus sent to daVinci certain calculations that he had made; and when daVinci, with his very brilliant mind, looked at those calculations he found them full of palpable errors, and he wondered how it was that a man who knew so little, who was apparently as ignorant as that man Columbus was, —could do so much. Then he came to this conclusion, that a man must be a seer in order to know, but that he must be blind in order to do. In other words, we can know too much for action. We can balance all of the negative probabilities and all of the positive probabilities until we reach an intellectual or emotional dead center that makes it impossible for us to move in any direction.

"I think if Freemasonry does anything for us it ought to generate within us that enthusiasm which will enable us to forget about the obstacles that stand in the way, in order that we may be able to accomplish that which we desire to accomplish, the building of Brotherhood in the life of the world. After all, it doesn't make any difference what we do or where we succeed, if we fail at this business of building Brotherhood, then we have failed every place.

"I have said wherever I can get men to listen to me, that there is only one race on in the world in which we are living to-day, and that is the race between Brotherhood and Disaster. Either we must learn to live by the principles of Brotherhood or face catastrophe and the destruction that our refusal so to live will make inevitable."

In M:W: S. Allen Daugherty's report as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kansas, we find:

"The Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of Man, the Moral Law, and the hope of Life Eternal; out of this simple faith grows the philosophy which Freemasonry teaches.

"The object of Masonry is to aid man in solving the problems of life and in attaining the glorious crown of manhood. Fundamentally, life is a spiritual enterprise. We may be surrounded by every comfort of modern science, we may have intellectual training of the highest order; but if the spirit of our life is wrong, there can never be any real success or happiness for us until our spirit is made right. The highest joys we will ever know and the deepest pains we will ever suffer will always be spiritual experiences. To lose one's sight or hearing is a very great tragedy, but to lose one's faith or one's confidence in himself is an even greater disaster.

"The truly great possessions of life—those which make up the "abundant life"—are not houses, jewels, luxuries, fine furnishings, and vast estates; rather, they are the spiritual qualities of courage, faith, hope, charity, patience, character, and moral integrity.

"These are the teachings of our Order. The mission of Masonry is to build and Masons have been builders from time immemorial. Building is our profession—it always has been, it is now, and ever must be. We are taught to erect a Temple more durable than granite or marble—a Temple composed of living stones—a spiritual building—a house not made with hands—Eternal in the Heavens.

* * * *

"Freemasonry has its duty to perform in the building of individual character and in the development of brotherhood. Freemasonry is a power for Freedom and Democracy in the world. The very principles of our Order and the foundation of our Fraternity are based on the belief in God, the equality of man, the rights of the individual, and the brotherhood of man.

"In this world today we have two ideologies—one which has no place for God, which teaches that man is a vassal of the State, and that to destroy others is a sign of strength and power. The other professes God as the Supreme Being in the world—that government is the servant of the people—that man should work to build a better tomorrow for all mankind.

"Let us face the fact there is a world-wide struggle to capture the minds of men. A death struggle between Democracy and Communism. A struggle which involves all of the advocates of these two philosophies. I think sometimes that we become too self-satisfied. Business is good, wages are high and people are enjoying prosperity. But those who have sons and husbands in Korea and elsewhere in the world realize full well the stark reality of world conditions. The Service Men returning from Korea are amazed at the complacency of the American people. Let us not sit idly by and say that we need not take part in the struggle for Freedom and Democracy and Human Rights.

"Two great forces, but what a difference. Modern Communism is founded on the life and works of KARL MARX, who advocated this policy and philosophy:

Conquest through Hate and Violence

The Individual is expendable

The State is all important

Religion is for fools

Man comes from nowhere and death is the end.

"As Masons, let us look to our great source of light for our course. What does God's Holy Word teach which is open on our Masonic Altars?

Love the Lord thy God with all Thy Heart and thy neighbor as thyself—
The individual is sacred
Truth is all powerful Man is immortal.

"We come to the Lodge to learn. We go from it to teach by precept and example, ever remembering that the Grand Architect of the Universe does not remain hidden in Temples, but is out on the highways of life—on the farms—in the offices—in the homes—in the market place—wherever man needs Him and will seek His aid.

"You and I, my Brethren, are the living examples of a way of life. How we conduct our business affairs—How we treat our fellowmen—How we stand in public and private life are examples of our thoughts and actions. 'As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he.'"

Grand Master Herbert M. Foy of North Carolina, in his address, said:

"We are conscious of the critical situation which confronts the world today in the conflict between freedom and slavery, God and materialism, democracy and despotism, the American way of life and communism.

"With these evils, Masonry cannot afford to compromise. Now, as never before, we should exert our influence to maintain and preserve the rights of free men; to live, to think, and to act for themselves without compulsion from any source, be it political, ecclesiastical or military. For two generations, ambitious, selfish men have tried by might and power to enslave the free peoples of the world. It is the purpose of Masonry to try to instill in the hearts and minds of men the dignity of the individual, the law of brotherly love, and the equality of every man before God. If this could be accomplished, many of the evils which trouble the world today could be eliminated and the peoples of the world live in peace.

R:W: Brother Canon A. Stanley Walker, Grand Chaplain of Nova Scotia, whom to read is to admire, included these thoughts on symbolism in his sermon during the Divine Service that followed the opening of Grand Lodge:

"There is, incidentally, a strange dualism in some of this Masonic symbolism. The Mason himself, as he enters the Craft for the first time, is regarded as a rough stone just hewn out of the quarry, to be worked and fashioned by Masonry, until he becomes the perfect stone fit to be used in the building of that 'house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens,' a sentiment entirely parallel to the saying of Saint Peter, that, 'Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Christ Jesus.'

"Yet, on the other hand, the Mason is regarded also as a workman, into whose hands are put the working tools of life, by which he is to hew out for himself, with the aid of God, the means of his own salvation and perfection, so that he may be fitted, in the end, when his earthly tasks are over, to merit acceptance in the Grand Lodge above, as a competent workman, prepared to undertake whatever new tasks may be laid upon him. And the Mason is taught to believe in the life beyond the grave, where he may still be permitted to make himself useful by the Grace of God, in tasks for which his training and efforts in this life may have, in some degree, fitted him."

R:W: Brother Rev. H. L. Newton, Grand Chaplain in his oration told the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba:

"What I say to you, I say to you not only as Masons, but as men who believe in a Supreme Being.
Here lies the tragedy of our race;
Not that men are poor; all men know something of poverty.
Not that men are wicked; who can claim to be good?
Not that men are ignorant; who can boast that he is wise?
But that men are strangers!

"Human history, saturated with blood, and blistered with tears, is but the story of man making friends with man. Into this story long ago came the Masonic Order. At its Altar men met as man to man, without vanity and without pretence; without fear and without reproach; who can tell the good that such a ministry has wrought as year followed year?

"But even as the Church is judged by its members so is Masonry judged by its Craftsmen. In the eyes of the 'man in the street' to be a Mason is to be different from other men. Believe me I know it to be true. People expect something better from us. They expect more friendship, more sympathy, more help.

"There may be some secrets in Masonry, but there is no secret about our noble and high ideals. Men expect us to be better men, because we are Masons. Better fathers, better business people, better neighbors.

"The truth is, and I say it with shame, and if we are honest with ourselves, and with our God, we will admit it. The difference isn't noticeable. Our aims are high, the principles of our Order are undeniably exalted, but we are just playing with Masonry . . . or too many are.

"My point is this; that a man can not be one thing with his lips and not show it in his life. He cannot subscribe to the ideals of our Craft, without evasion, equivocation, and mental reservation, unless he expects to display before all men the natural outcome of such an obligation. In other words, if a man is sincere in his Masonry it will show in his life. Too many are giving lip-service only. Hearing month by month the high ideals of Masonry, isn't enough. We must act upon them and show them in what we are, how we act, and what we say.

"If I understand our aims correctly, and I think I do, they seek to change a man for the better. In every case, I think, when men become good Masons, they are changed. But so often they go on as they have always done and no change can be seen.

"I am sure Masonry isn't at fault. It makes a man aware of the spark of the Divine within him. It makes him see other men as his brothers, and exhorts him to act accordingly. Masonry isn't at fault, but many who are Masons may be at fault.

"I have heard men say of a Church, 'that Church is unfriendly and cold, no one spoke to me or made me welcome, so I will not go back again.' God forgive us, it is so often true.

"I have heard men say of a Lodge, 'I joined but I haven't been back very often. Once I had been initiated no one seemed to worry much about me. I do not understand it anyway, and no one explained it to me.'

"My brothers; this is the tragedy of our race, 'that men are strangers.'

"The Lodge that can bridge this gap and make men feel at home—and not wish that they were at home—will not go begging for candidates. Sometimes I wonder, if we were to lose our name, the name of Masons, lose it as completely as the secrets of a Master Mason were lost, whether people would know by our lives, our words and deeds, that we were Masons, or would they see in us any difference from other people. Would they ever take notice of us, that we belonged to a noble and historic Craft. Would people know that we were brothers, without seeing our insignia of the square and compass.

"There is much that is distinctive in Freemasonry, much that sets its patrons apart, much that distinguishes them from others. My plea is for each and every one of us to apply its teachings more closely to our lives—to live its precepts—to hold more zealously to the ancient landmarks. There is nothing wrong with Masonry, 'if we do not let it down, it will never let us down.' I hate to hear people run down the Craft; I hate to hear its own members belittle its worth.

"A young Parson so the story goes, had worked hard in a certain town for five years. He had done all he could to inspire his flock. The response was very small. At last becoming very discouraged, he stood up in Church one Sunday and said, 'This Church is dead. The thing therefore to do is to hold a funeral service. This we will do next Sunday at 11:00 a.m.'

"As you can imagine the word got around. Next Sunday the Church was full. Sure enough at the front there was a coffin. There were funeral hymns, funeral prayers and a funeral oration. Then said the young Parson, 'anyone desiring to view the remains may do so. Just form up on this side and file reverently past.' All present stood and slowly filed past the coffin. As they did so they glanced inside. With shameful faces they then passed on out of the Church. At the bottom of the coffin was a mirror; as each person went by he saw himself.

"I say to the Mason who is not happy in the Craft, and to the brother who feels that Lodge isn't what it should be—and is ready to knock it—take a look at yourself, take a good look, you may be the one at fault. The same applies to your home, your Church and your community. What are you doing to further the labor: would anyone know by what you are doing that you are a Mason?"

R.W: John H. Crooker, P. G. M., in responding for the Grand Lodge of Texas to an address of Welcome rose to new heights when he said:

"Thank God that we may leave entirely behind us the yesterdays and the last years, and that we may look confidently to the coming of Tomorrow. And come she will, in splendor and grandeur, if we but know and realize something of the fine promise which she brings to those who have real faith in her possibilities. She may be quick to scent unbelief, and she may never come to those who are grasping and struggling for Today's material gain, but her everlasting promise will never fail those who dream and plan and have faith. For how could a dream come true if you never dreamed it? How could a wish come home if you never breathed it? How could your castle be built if you never planned it? Who bears the dream and the wish and the plan, safe-brooded until it comes forth from the wreck of Today? Why, Tomorrow! of course. Tomorrow, in the shape of the coming year of 1953, which lies entirely before us—beckoning us on to richer and finer lives, to worth-while endeavor and nobler characters, to all that is good and true of God's promise to mankind. Just as Tomorrow has come to us so frequently after trying days of disappointments and failures, bringing with her all of the fresh promise and renewed faith—just so will this coming new year yield its rich rewards of service and enjoyment to those of us who are ready and willing to receive its rainbow gifts.

"Surely, true enjoyment comes largely through making the most out of the opportunities that lie closest to our very elbows. Suppose we picture ourselves standing on the threshold of the next world, looking back over the way we have come and the things we have accomplished. If, under such circumstances, we may see better characters built, if we may see mud turned to marble through our efforts—rough places smoothed out for those who are to follow—if we then can truly say, 'I have made the most out of the materials at hand'—then, indeed, can earth pronounce no greater eulogy, and we can enter into the joy of the Lord. And, my Brethren, here in Texas during the year 1953, we will be writing the history of our lives—either a history of progress made or one of opportunities neglected. The way lies immediately before us. Up above, the far peaks rise—the heights of life abundant. Down below are the valleys, and the fogs, and the darkness, and the death. Shall it be up or down? Each and every one of us choose, and whatever God-likeness we achieve is revealed in our climbing, and our animalism is revealed in our slipping. Indeed, 'who so builds on less than an immortal basis, hath built on sand.'"

MASONIC EDUCATION

One of the most satisfying experiences of a reviewer is to note the accelerating trend toward Masonic education. Not only is it apparent in the increasing number of formal programs set up under Grand Lodge Committees on Instruction or on Masonic Education; with each passing year references to the importance of dissemination of Masonic information are more pointed and more frequent in orations, Grand Master's reports, and elsewhere in Grand Lodge proceedings.

Brother Dr. L. F. Barrier concluded an address before Arkansas Research Lodge thus:

"Were I a Master of a Lodge, I would say to the newly raised Master Mason:

'My brother, you have just passed through a series of dramatic presentations, the intent of them to prepare you for the two great duties of every Mason. The first, the building of your life into a temple, whose cornerstone is brotherly love, the completion of which will bring you the commendation of your brothers, your finer self, and your Maker. The second, "Seek that which is lost." The Talmud hints that Solomon, Hiram of Tyre, and the architect of the Temple learned the secret while laying the foundation of the Temple by diverting a pit, the brick walls of which were lined with lead plates covered with hieroglyphs detailing the story of that which was lost, placed there by Enoch who had been commanded by Jehovah to build two memorials in which were to be stored all the great truths of the ages. The other of these memorials was the great pyramid, which, contrary to all beliefs, was never intended to be a tomb because the builder blocked the passageway to the funeral chamber with unmovable stone. But, it was to reveal (when man at last forced his way into the pyramid) the sacred truth that, if we seek our departed ones in a Necropolis, we will find an empty tomb.

'Solomon soon relost the knowledge of his discovery in the voluptuousness and passion of court life, Hiram of Tyre in selfishly amassing wealth and territory, and only the Temple builder kept the truth in his heart and, for the sake of that truth, sacrificed his life. If I knew the secret of that which was lost, I would not reveal it to you. To do so would rob you of the pleasure and worth-whileness of the seeking and the great, great joy of finding.

'Go on, brother, seek! Though many years may be filled by the search and the snows of many winters may record their passage in the hairs of your head, yet, as Master of this Lodge, I assure you of success. It may be in your Lodge room, for near, very near, at this altar, you come to God. It may be in your home with your loved ones around you, or perhaps in some lone place while deep in meditation—the Great Grand Master will come to you and there will whisper to you the meaning of that which was lost.

'And that which He whispers to you will bring you peace and joy beyond understanding and will be your pass-word into the glorious brotherhood of the Lodge Celestial.'

M:W: Brother John I. Smith, in his report to the Grand Lodge of South Carolina, made this reference to More Light:

"'More Light!' How many times we have heard these words in our Lodges—and yet, I have often wondered if we have ever fully realized just what they mean. It is my considered opinion that we have not.

"Far too many of us, I fear, have been under the mistaken impression that the instruction given to the candidate by the Master or other Presiding Officer, immediately after these words are used, and the lecture that follows, are all that is necessary. When we have done this in accordance with our ritual we seem to feel that our duty in this connection has been discharged. Have we not at that point, pulled aside the veil and revealed to the candidate, who seeks to become one of us, our most treasured secrets? Surely then, you may say, we have complied with the candidate's request for 'More Light.' In part, yes—and perhaps, for the moment, you may have satisfied his innate desire for more knowledge. Actually, however, when we give serious thought to the matter, we have to admit that, at best, we have but scratched the surface.

"By 'light' we mean knowledge, learning, wisdom in the ancient art of Freemasonry. 'More Light' is not something that comes automatically. It is not easily attained. It is not a goal to be reached without exertion. Rather, it is a continuing search—and a never ending quest—with the precious stones of truth embedded in the mine of Masonry as the rich reward of our long and laborious endeavors. It is generally conceded that the man who possesses the greatest knowledge of his business or profession is the one most likely to succeed. By the same token, the Mason who earnestly and continually seeks 'more light' will, most likely, make a success in the practice of the Mystic Art we call Freemasonry and will, thereby, come closest to the realization of what I consider to be our chief objective—the rendering of the greatest possible service to God and to our fellowman. Such a Mason will, by his very profession, be not only willing but anxious to share his increased knowledge with his Brethren and that they, too, may have 'more light.'"

In his report to the Grand Lodge of British Columbia, M:W: Lawrence Healey, Grand Master, says:

"It is gratifying to see so many Lodges giving opportunity to the new members to take part in the work and learn the ritual. But filling the head with words is of little value unless the heart is filled with a true understanding of what the words convey. This can only be accomplished by reading and studying the meaning of the many symbols and ceremonies of our Craft as well as the principles upon which it is founded."

That the candidate is not the only one in need of instruction, is apparent from the following excerpt from the report of Brother Andrew J. Schroder, Instructor of Work of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania:

"We are frequently asked, 'What shall we do when a Candidate fails to answer, or answers incorrectly, the first questions asked him?" The only answer is that the Candidate has not been properly prepared for the solemn ceremony of which he is to be so important a part. The proper preparation, and we refer particularly to the mental and spiritual preparation and not the physical, should begin when the individual first expresses to us his desire to become a member of our Fraternity, and this preparation should continue after we secure the petition for him and before and after he fills it out and signs it. Then it should be continued by the Committee appointed to make the necessary inquiries, and finally by a well qualified Brother when the petitioner presents himself to the Tyler, and before he is permitted to cross the threshold of the outer door. Lastly, be sure that the Brother selected as Guide is one who realizes the importance of the step to be taken by the Candidate; also be sure the Guide is one who fully appreciates the solemnity of the ceremony in which he is to take so important a part."

M:W: Robert Nisbet, Grand Master of Connecticut, emphasizes the need for correction of information that has been broadcast, not in accordance with the tenets of Freemasonry:

"We see and hear thousands of Masons led astray with utterly Unmasonic Doctrines. The answer to all this sort of disrupting procedure is, of course, the dissemination of the right KIND of Masonic Information or Education, and as we in Connecticut have not, in the memory of living Masons, had any really decisive Grand Lodge controlled system of Instruction or Education, we not only have just about 45,000 uninstructed Masons, but worse, this lack of systematic Instruction has produced no teachers who are trained to instruct others. We see, as I have seen more than once, a speaker introduced who speaks before some body of our members and, instead of instructing, leads them further astray. I witnessed a flagrant case of this recently and, while I know I hurt some feelings, I make no apology for speaking with what persuasive powers I could command to counteract the damage done. We do not send our children to be instructed by people who cannot read and write themselves. We demand trained instructors. Ask any member of our present Committee on Education how big a list of really competent 'lecturers' and Masonic 'Instructors' we can recommend who we are sure will speak truths and not error. Facts and not things of their untrained imagination—and sound fundamental Masonic philosophy and not just BUNK. We have too much Bunk as it is—rather, we need to D-bunk Masonry."

INDIANA'S MENTOR PLAN

The report of the Committee on Masonic Education to the Grand Lodge of Indiana describes a commendable system of instruction which they have called "The Mentor Plan," the use of which is voluntary; no Lodge is compelled to adopt it, but the Committee makes all the material available in "Mentors Kits" for the use of such Lodges as adopt the plan. Each Mentor's Kit contains a Mentor's manual, a set of four candidate Instruction booklets, a Pocket Encyclopedia of Masonic Symbols, and a copy of the Indiana Monitor and Freemason's Guide. The plan is outlined as follows:

"WHAT IS THE MENTOR PLAN?"

"It is a practical, workable method for the systematic instruction of a candidate in those fundamentals of Freemasonry which either are not mentioned or are not fully explained by the Ritual. Under this plan each candidate is assigned a 'Mentor' which Webster says is "a wise and faithful adviser, friend, or teacher." It will be the duty of the Mentor to see that each candidate assigned to him is fully instructed according to a simple procedure which will be outlined later in this report. To assist him in performing this duty effectively, your Committee on Masonic Education will supply him with the necessary "working tools," which also will be described at the proper time.

PURPOSE OF THE PLAN

"Now, 'What is the purpose of the Mentor Plan'? It has but one major objective—to teach the fundamentals of Freemasonry to every candidate, so he may become a Master Mason in fact as well as in name. It's as simple as that!

"Please note particularly the word fundamentals, for this Plan does not go beyond those elements which are basic to our Craft, i.e., the principles and practices with which every Craftsman should be familiar if he is to bear with honor the proud title of Master Mason. It is not the purpose of the Mentor Plan to produce Masonic "Scholars" or to give the candidate advanced Masonic education. It seeks merely to indoctrinate him with the Masonic way of life, that he may properly conduct himself as a Mason before his Brethren and before the world at large.

"This Plan supports the traditional maxim that the Fraternity has an inherent right to insist that each of its votaries shall be well grounded in his Masonic duties and responsibilities; and it also embraces the equally important idea that he should understand clearly the Fraternity's obligation to him. Beyond that, the Plan does not attempt to go.

"If, during this process, there is ignited within the candidate that 'spark' which urges him to seek for more and more Masonic Light, and thus to become an earnest and diligent student of Freemasonry, then the Plan will have a plus value for him and for the Fraternity—for among such will be found the future leaders of our Craft.

"Your Committee believes that all Masters will agree that the proper time to indoctrinate a Mason with the fundamentals and ideals of our Craft is during the period in which he receives the three degrees. As a candidate his mind is completely receptive, he is eager for instruction—complete instruction! He wants to learn everything that a candidate should know; and he has a right to expect that he will be fully and accurately informed. Many questions occur to his alert mind and he has the right to expect that someone will tell him the answers—and not leave him floundering about in a sea of darkness when 'Masonic Light' is supposed to be his for the asking. The Indiana Mentor Plan is designed specifically to meet this situation and to insure that the candidate does receive that Light for which he seeks.

THE MENTOR'S DUTIES

"The Mentor's duties start with the Preliminary Instructions, for he should be a member of that Committee. Following these instructions he presents the candidate with the first Instruction Booklet, entitled 'On The Threshold,' and urges him to study it carefully. He then arranges to meet with his candidate at any convenient place where comfort and privacy is assured. Together they review the booklet, and the Mentor answers any legitimate questions the candidate may ask. This completes the Mentor's pre-initiation duties.

"After the candidate receives his Entered Apprentice degree the Mentor resumes his duties. Again he arranges for a private conference, allowing sufficient time for his pupil to study Booklet No. 2, 'The Entered Apprentice.' Once more the Mentor answers questions and satisfies himself that the candidate fully understands the contents of the booklet, adding such information as he may deem helpful or interesting.

"The same procedure is followed after the candidate has received the Fellow Craft and the Master-Mason degrees, respectively. Thus, at the conclusion of all his instructions, following the Master-Mason degree, the Mentor can report to the Worshipful Master that his candidate is well grounded in Masonic fundamentals, a proficient Master-Mason, qualified to travel and work as such.

BASIS OF THE MENTOR PLAN

"The Mentor Plan is based upon the simple premise that the average man will learn more quickly and more effectively when he receives individual and personal attention from his instructor. Group or class instruction has its place in Masonry as well as in the field of general education. But the fact remains that many advantages accrue to the pupil, and to the teacher, when "the attentive ear receives the sound from the instructive tongue." It is not for naught we are reminded that "thus, through a succession of ages are transmitted unimpaired the excellent tenets of our Institution."

"The Mentor Plan seeks to re-establish the 'attentive ear' and the 'instructive tongue' by a method that is both simple and practical in this modern day of rapid tempo, when time is an important factor in every man's life.

"Through the intimacy of personal contacts with his Mentor—during which he can unburden his mind of its manifold questions and discuss freely and frankly the Masonic way of life with 'a faithful adviser, friend and teacher,' man to man, Brother to Brother—the candidate will receive complete instruction and become a proficient Master Mason. Here, then, is the sole duty of a Lodge Mentor: To be that well-informed Brother which the Entered Apprentice is told 'will be always as ready to give as you will be ready to receive instruction.'

QUALIFICATIONS OF A MENTOR

"By this time it may have occurred to you that the choice of competent Mentors for your Lodge might be a monumental task, and that a Mentor must meet some very 'high' standards. That is why this particular phase of the Mentor Plan has been left for the closing paragraphs of your Committee's report.

"While it must be emphasized that your Mentors should be chosen with great care, yet the qualifications for this highly important assignment are quite simple, and certainly are not difficult to meet.

"In every Lodge there is a group of members who have an inherent love for Freemasonry and a sincere desire to serve the Fraternity to the best of their respective abilities—and it is from this group that your Mentors should be chosen. If your Lodge does not have such a group, it is indeed in a sorry plight; but your Committee does not believe that such a Lodge exists in Indiana.

"The primary qualification of a Mentor should be a whole-hearted desire to serve his Lodge and Freemasonry because he has a strong attachment and a deep respect for both. Without this fundamental characteristic no Mason can serve effectively as a Mentor. Fortunately, many such Brethren are available.

"A Lodge Mentor need not be a scholarly student of Masonry, but he should have a competent working knowledge of the Ritual (although he may never have participated in degree work) and be genuinely interested in the fundamentals he is to teach. He should possess an average ability to understand the basic subjects covered by the four Instruction Booklets and by the Mentor's Manual, and also be able to explain their meaning to the candidate. Of course he can answer the candidate's questions by reading directly from the Manual if he so desires—and many Mentors probably will do so during the instruction of their first two or three candidates. But as the Mentor's experience increases he will become less and less dependent upon the printed page. An old adage, packed with wisdom, says: 'If you become a teacher, by your pupils you will be taught.'

"It is essential, too, that the Mentor should be possessed of a desire to be as helpful as possible to his candidate and to develop in his heart and mind a genuine eagerness for Masonic knowledge. The advantages of such an attitude are incalculable. In all contacts with his candidates, the Mentor should nurture a warm and friendly attitude, and demonstrate that he is in fact a Brother, as well as a faithful adviser, friend, and teacher.

"It would be impossible and also undesirable to establish a standard pattern for the selection of Mentors; but the above brief summary will prove helpful to the Worshipful Master as he weighs the qualifications of his prospective Mentors. It is apparent that these appointments must be made strictly upon the basis of a Brother's ability and his willingness to do the job. Certainly no Mason should be appointed as a Mentor merely because he has been faithful in attendance, is an officer, is popular with the Brethren, is a distinguished Mason, or even because he is a Past Master. Any or all of these are splendid attributes, and may even have a bearing on the Master's decision, but they do not alone constitute a sufficient qualification for this important duty.

"Worshipful Masters, you know the personalities and the abilities of your members. You are familiar with those of your Brethren who are devoted to Freemasonry and have a sincere desire to serve your Lodge. You know the Brethren who will say 'I will' the minute you ask them to assume the responsibilities of a Mentor. Choose from among them and you will not be disappointed."

It is our firm conviction that the training of even three or four Mentors in every Lodge could transform the Masonic atmosphere. We shall watch the progress of the Indiana Mentor Plan with interest.

M:W: Ralph J. Pollard, P. G. M., fraternal correspondent of the Grand Lodge of Maine, includes in his foreword a warning that should be unnecessary, but that appears to call for re-emphasis. M:W: Brother Pollard extends a well-turned word of caution thus:

"Here and there throughout the country, a few Lodges, through the carelessness of their investigating committees, continue to accept into the Fraternity men who are utterly unworthy of that honor, and whose continued membership in the Craft constitutes an open scandal, even in the eyes of the profane world. Nothing can be more damaging to the prestige of the Fraternity or more destructive to popular confidence therein.

"All too many Grand Masters and Grand Lecturers still find it necessary to warn against levity, horse-play and excessive roughness in the second section of the third degree, conduct which completely destroys the effectiveness of our ritualistic work, and which gives to the candidate an utterly erroneous impression of the Institution. A Masonic Lodge is neither a miniature Shrine nor a college fraternity. Its prime function is the moral and spiritual instruction of its candidates, not the mere entertainment of the members on the side lines. Any Master who fails to maintain proper solemnity in the work is certainly derelict in his duty.

"Not a year goes by in which certain clubs and affiliated organizations, associated in the public mind with Masonry, do not bring the good name of the Fraternity into disrepute by their associations with liquor and gambling. The members of these organizations are all Masons, and are fully subject to Masonic discipline. The sooner that such discipline is invoked, the better it will be for Masonry.

"Until such evils are eradicated from our fraternal life, it will be impossible for Freemasonry to make its full and proper contribution to that moral and spiritual leadership which is so badly needed at the present time."

In speaking of Masonic Education, M:W: Herbert M. Foy, Grand Master of North Carolina says:

"To the newly-made Masons coming into our Lodges, I would like to suggest as a basis on which to begin his Masonic Education:

"Learn all of the Ritual there is to know. Learn all of THE CODE you have to know. Learn all of the History and Philosophy of Masonry you want to know.

"If he follows the first two, there will be no limit to what he will want of the third."

SPIRITUAL AND MORAL VALUES

All our ritual, all our catechism, all our lectures are for naught unless those select men who knock at our doors and kneel at our altars arise from those altars and go forth from our doors inspired, and enlightened with a new concept of man's mission, a renewed sense of spiritual and moral responsibility.

M:W: Thomas S. Roy, Grand Master of Massachusetts, whom we have quoted repeatedly, spoke before the Conference of Grand Masters, and in quoting from "Key Largo" by Maxwell Anderson, told of King McLeod, trying to escape from himself, asking the philosopher, "Where are we going anyway?", to be told:

"To a conquest of all there is, whatever it is, among the sun and stars.

"Over and over again the human race
Climbs up out of the mud and looks around,
And finds that it's alone here; and the knowledge
Hits like a blight—and down it goes Into the mud again.

"Over and over again we have a hope
And make a religion of it—and follow it up
Till we're out on the topmost limb of the tallest tree
Alone with our stars—and we don't dare to be there,
And climb back down again.

"It may be that the blight's on the race once more.
That they're all afraid and fight their way to the ground.
But it won't end in the dark. Our destiny's the other way.
There'll be a race of men who can face even the stars without despair,
And think without going mad."

"So we have the hope that makes us dare to dream that the best we can think of brotherhood will one day find realization."

Read this excerpt from the address delivered by M:W: Grand Master Adam Smith to the Grand Lodge of New Zealand:

"It has been said that he who lives with his eyes on the past is of little value to the present. Granting the truth of that statement, it can yet be said that the past offers us a great heritage with inspiration not only for the present but also for the future.

"Surely we realize the wonderful heritage which is ours. As an influence for good, Masonry is one of the greatest in the world today; it has grown like a strong plant from good seed, and points the way to friendship, service, understanding, goodwill, and peace.

"The first essential of every Freemason is an unqualified belief in God. That great central truth, the Alpha of Freemasonry, is that God, or by whatever name He is known, lives and governs the world. What wonder, then, that through the long years, an institution, insisting on a belief in God, should command the respect and devotion of those who perceive, as did the Masonic poet Robert Burns, the magnificent idea of the brotherhood of mankind? No other institution teaches this with greater force than does Freemasonry. There is nothing more satisfying than human friendship, and I hope that the Craft will continue to bring men together in friendship and understanding. There is a universal craving in the world today, a deepseated, urgent longing for genuine brotherhood which will establish goodwill and harmony in our troubled world. What do we mean by brotherhood and what does it involve? It means putting aside the primary thought of self and recognizing that others have rights. It requires that we should be humble and not puffed up with pride. Brotherhood stands for tolerance of the opinions of others—mutual regard for each other's rights, mutual desire for each other's welfare, and mutual regret for each other's misfortunes. It requires that we should temper justice with mercy, ever remembering that we are all members of one family whose Father is the Great Architect of the Universe. The tragedy of our day is that men have learned to die together but have not learned to live together. When brotherhood encompasses the earth, then, indeed will the true spirit of Freemasonry prevail.

"Not only must we practice all the moral virtues, but we must work. Our teachings exemplify the dignity of labour, for is not 'labour the lot of man?' The whole of our ritual has always been and still is referred to as 'work.' We are proud to acknowledge our descent from the Operative Mason of the past centuries, and we still retain the visible sign of our connection with them in the aprons we wear; for, although we decorate them with ribbons and emblems, almost out of recognition, we should ever remember that their foundation is the leather apron of the worker. Labour is honourable to all men, and the aprons we wear are the outward symbols of our faith in work. No man can be a true Mason if he lives a life of ease by sponging on his fellow men."

Brother Leslie Allen, Grand Orator, began his address entitled "An Understanding Heart," before the Grand Lodge of Oklahoma thus:

"Tolerance of other people's views and ways is a wonderful thing. What is tolerance? It is not indifference to truth, as so many people think. You hear them say that it does not matter what you think so long as you are sincere. Now sincerity is a great virtue. In fact, it is the keystone in the arch of character. When that keystone crumbles the whole arch distintegrates. Without sincerity religion becomes hypocrisy. Without sincerity friendship becomes a fraud. Without sincerity love becomes hell on earth. All honor to sincerity. But we are not saved by being sincere. We are saved by obeying the truth. Years ago the best doctors sincerely believed that malaria was caused by the mists that gather on the swamps at night. So they advised their patients to keep their windows shut at night. The patients did and went right on dying of malaria. Then somebody discovered that malaria was not caused by the mist of night but by the bite of the Anopheles mosquito. Measures were taken to destroy the Anopheles mosquito in its breeding place and the death rate from malaria declined. You see, it was not sincerity of belief that saved us from the dread malady but finding out the truth about the cause of it and acting accordingly. 'Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.'

"A visitor to the Moslem University in Cairo asked one of the professors whether they taught that the world is round or flat. He replied, 'We are tolerant here; we teach both.' Well, it cannot be both round and flat; it is one or the other. To say that it does not matter what one thinks so long as he is sincere is nonsense. Tolerance does not mean indifference to truth. It means holding one's view of truth and allowing the other fellow to hold his view. It means trying to understand why he takes the position he takes. It means thinking and allowing others the same privilege. It means disagreeing with others without being disagreeable about it. I do not wish to be tolerated. I wish to be understood and appreciated.

"Tolerance does not mean indifference to moral values. Shall we tolerate hatred? To do so is to invite disaster. Hatred is a weapon of communism. Hatred is strangling the world today and has drenched it in blood three times in our generation. We can afford to tolerate almost everything except hatred and intolerance. For we have seen what those two denials of understanding and brotherhood have done to mankind. We can tolerate people with mistaken ideas. We can try to understand how they came to hold such ideas. But we better not tolerate falsehood and moral viciousness.

"Understanding is better than tolerance. I am a Mason and proud of it. I do not want to be tolerated as a Mason; I want to be understood and appreciated. I am an American and proud of it. I do not want to be tolerated as an American; I want to be understood and appreciated. I am a Christian and proud of it. I do not want to be tolerated as a Christian. I want to be understood and appreciated. And what I want for myself I should be willing to grant to others. Unless we are willing to try to understand the other man's position all our talk of brotherhood is sheer rot."

Brother David Graham, Foreign Correspondent, Grand Lodge of South Dakota, includes the following paragraph in the foreword of his reviews:

"In the United States we have amazing resources in our reserve funds, our buildings, our homes, our charity foundations; we have Lodges in practically every village of the land, and if there is a community or hamlet without a single Mason residing there, it is the exception for we seem to be everywhere. That is our greatest strength, for our most valuable resources continue to be our human resources. With Masons in strategic positions in government, in law, in medicine, in our financial institutions, and our scientific laboratories, we may be sure that to some extent at least, we will be reminded from time to time that we must not embark on great or important undertakings without listening for the still, small voice. It is the greatest Masonic reality and will one day reward us with the Lost Word."

The following quotation is found in M:W: D. Burleigh Smalley, Jr.'s address as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Vermont:

"To our distinguished guests, visitors from other Grand Jurisdictions, we are happy that so many have come to grace our meeting. We hope that your stay with us may prove a pleasant one and that you will feel the urge to spend your future summers in Vermont.

"In a world which seems more heedless of man's welfare and continually year after year appears more determined to employ the fruits of scientific research and industry to plot the destruction of God's plan, it is most relaxing to the physical and uplifting to the spiritual, to meet on the solid foundation of Freemasonry. It is good that we pause in the maddening rush of daily duties to contemplate for the moment the legacy which our forefathers established and willed to us. And while we cannot forever dwell in the sunshine of our past, it is well that we never forget this heritage which our ancestors have bequeathed to us, not only Masonically but also politically, in this great country of ours where 'we meet in Liberty, practice our rites in safety and worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience.'"

While we are discussing Vermont, we would call to your attention a feature of the Vermont proceedings that we found most appropriate. The Necrology report, prepared on the tenth anniversary of the death of the "Four Immortal Chaplains," paid this tribute to the memory of a Vermont Mason, Brother Rev. George L. Fox:

"It is most fitting on this tenth anniversary of the death of Brother Rev. George L. Fox, that we pause in memorial tribute to this brave and fearless soul. On a bleak and desolate night in February, 1943, the troopship S. S. Dorchester, converted coastwise freighter, was battling the unfamiliar North Atlantic swell, as the last ship of a small, almost unprotected convoy. In those early days of 1943 the North Atlantic was perhaps the bitterest battleground of the war. Wolfpacks of Nazi U-Boats were sinking Allied shipping nearly as fast as they could be built, while men-of-war and planes to combat these submarines were still in perilously short supply.

"Thus the stage was set for one of the bravest and most unselfish acts ever enacted in human history. The saga of the 'Four Chaplains' will live forever in the annals of history. We are proud that one of these intrepid men of God was our brother, Rev. George Lansing Fox, a member of Moose River Lodge, No. 82 of Concord, Vt. We acknowledge his exemplification of the scripture, 'Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friend' and reverence his memory in this Grand Lodge."

The frontispiece of the Proceedings bears a full page portrait of Brother Fox in Chaplain's uniform, opposite which is this tribute:

A Tribute to the Memory of
Bro. and Rev. George L. Fox
One of the four Chaplains who gave their lives on the U. S. S. Dorchester
February 3, 1943
while serving their God and Country

"The foregoing appears on a Bronze Plaque in the Masonic Temple of Moose River Lodge, No. 82, of which Brother Fox was a member when he sacrificed his life that a fellow soldier might have a chance to live. Greater love hath no man than that he lay down his life for a friend.

"Brother Fox was born March 15, 1900. He served with distinction in World War I as first aid man in Ambulance Co., No. 1, Second Division, U. S. Army, winning the Silver Star for gallantry, the Croix de Guerre with palms and the Victory Medal with six battle bars. He was wounded in action for which he received the Purple Heart Medal.

"He became a Minister of the Methodist faith and, in 1942, was serving the Community Church in Gilman, Vermont. He entered the Chaplain's Corps of the U. S. Army and soon embarked on U. S. Transport DORCHESTER for foreign service.

"On February 3, 1943 the ship was torpedoed and he, with three other chaplains aboard, voluntarily gave their life belts to enlisted men who had none, and went down with the ship, having given away all hope of rescue. For this supreme sacrifice he was posthumously awarded the Distinguished Service Cross.

"These Men of God, one Brother Fox, became and remain the Four Immortal Chaplains. Truly war heroism is not confined to the man with a gun."

M:W: Benjamin Henry Matthews, Grand Master of Queensland, told the brethren in his inaugural address:

"Masonry does not deal with us en masse, but as individuals. It tries to give us, and it does give us, a life of freedom. It sets for us what we should do in the course of our lives. It tells us as individuals that we should carry out the tenets and precepts laid down for us. If we do that, we must do it as individuals. Each one of us must consider the position as he himself sees it, and apply the teachings of Freemasonry to his life; not in the sense that we go as a body—that would not assist very much—but if each individual in his own life carries out the precepts that we are taught in Freemasonry, then the community in general will be ever so much better off, and the attainment of a stable world, the attainment of peace, and the attainment of the enjoyment of peace will be much hastened."

Brother C. A. Bottolfsen, speaking at the dedication of a Masonic Temple at Jerome, Idaho, said:

"'Our lives are built around our experience,' says one writer, 'and the character of the average person is developed in the light of associations and inherent qualities. Each one is endowed with distinct abilities and imperfections and each one is as different in a physical sense as our fingerprints. Reputation is what others think of us, but character is what we actually are.

'Masonry consists of a regular course of moral instructions, designed to make all men better and consequently happier. It is based on the spiritual truths of the Holy Bible to instill the philosophy of true brotherhood, relief and truth, and to prepare men for the great transition from life to immortality. We cannot be true Masons without absorbing these ideals and thus reflect the greatness of our institution.

'The world looks upon Masonry with a great deal of respect, and the average initiate is received into our ranks with a spirit of contriteness of heart. Masonry is not a reform institution where the character of men can be transformed in a moment. A Mason must necessarily be a good man before he feels the urge of identifying himself with the Craft. Sometimes men are swayed by ambition, sometimes by mystery, sometimes by a desire for greater light and knowledge. Regardless of the thought which prompts men to seek Masonic affiliation, it is the spirit into which we enter into the study of it that determines our consequence among men.

'We are prone to look to the past and idealize a few of the outstanding figures of Masonry of a century or more ago. We are proud of the position they occupied in the establishment of our Government when it was young. But we must not forget the fact that great men walk among us today who are striving equally hard for the things which are good for Masonry and good for America. We may not recognize those men today for they are so near to us, but as time passes, their greatness will become more and more discernible.'

"'The Master's Word' admonishes us: 'Don't expect perfection in a man just because he is a Mason. If you do, you'll be disappointed. Masonry makes men better, but no human agency makes men perfect. If he is a Mason, you have a right to presume he is a fairly good man, but do not condemn Masonry if a few members stray from its teachings. Even the Great Teacher Himself had a Judas.'"

Brother R: W: Griffith, Grand Orator spoke this to the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Mississippi:

"'Light and Darkness have represented opposites from time immemorial. They are the basis of ancient Theology and proceed from the idea of the Active and Passive forces in the universe clamoring for the energies of mankind. Light became the first Divinity of the ancient and is coexistent with God. May we, therefore, for a few moments contemplate the basic need for light and for its dissemination among us all today.

"You and I read with great joy the record that 'In the beginning God created the heaven and earth. And the earth was without form and void and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters and God said let there be light and there was light. And God saw the light and it was good and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light day and the darkness he called night. And the evening and morning were the first day.' Sometime in the evening or between the evening and morning of the first day, this divine fiat rang out over the empty spaces of a primordial world and there was light. Of tremendous import is the fact in the record that not until the fourth day were the sun and the moon set in their places to rule the day and govern the night. The light that was good and that answered the supreme command on that first day did not come from the sun nor the moon. It must have come from the chaste countenance of God himself, then beginning his work as the Grand Artificer of the Universe. At a much later day by revelation, an ordained messenger saw a vision and wrote: 'And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it; for the glory of God did light it and the Lamb is the light thereof.'

"The light that pushed aside the shadows on the first day of creation has radiated down the corridors of time. It illuminated Eden and flashed upon Ur of the Chaldees. It played in the branches of a bush on fire and scintillated from Sinai. It lighted the path of a shepherd boy and blazed as a star to catch the gaze of Oriental kings. It focused its beams on a stable in Bethlehem and knocked a man down on the road to Damascus. It bathed the only begotten on Transfiguration in a heavenly glow, yea, truly the light of the Father, the great Shekinah that had flashed here and there and lighted up the paths of the good. As the perfect harmony between the Son and the Father brought forth the light from his countenance, reflected through the Son we read that 'In Him was life and the life was the light of man.' To us He said: 'Ye are the light of the world . . . Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven.' This injunction falls upon the ears of Master Masons and stirs their hearts with meaning.

"The Master Mason from time immemorial has been traveling with his face to the rising sun. His journey is one from sense to soul, from the useful to the esthetic, from the practical to the ideal, from the physical to the spiritual. He reaches out with one hand and performs the difficult operative tasks of the valley; with the other he holds on to the lofty speculative ideals of the mountain top. He knows full well that light comes from within. Its brightness is in direct relations to the degrees in which human hearts, and Masonic hearts, if you please, have been purged and purified. The great hope of society is in individual character. The measure of the world continues to be the measure of a man. The abiding power and influence of Masonry is in the Mason; it is not in the Blue Book nor the rituals. Masonry, as far as the books go, centers around the temple of Solomon yet evidences show that it parallels the advent of man. The light that dawned on the first day has shown along the pathway of Masonic progress and made reasonably plain the way down which the feet of Masons have traveled. It began when men learned to return good for evil; to subdue their passions; to maintain silence and listen for the whisperings of the still small voice. Masonry was there when men learned to love his neighbor as himself and to bow his head and humble his heart to God. Masonry was there when blood stained swords were snatched from tyrants' hands and the cool, calm face of freedom was unveiled. Masonry was there wherever the shackles have been broken from the wrists of innocent men and the flags of Liberty unfurled over the bastions of free men's deeds.

"Freemasonry stood with the Pilgrims at Plymouth Rock and walked with the pioneers over the wilderness trails. Freemasonry helped Jefferson write the Declaration of Independence; was present with Washington in the formation of the Constitution and insisted on a Bill of Rights in the supreme law of the land, guaranteeing to men a freedom of person and of property. The principles of our Craft are inextricably interwoven in the history of this nation 'conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.' The principles of liberty and of equality have been enriched by the ideals of brotherhood. In the radiance of more light cable tows are lengthened to fasten in fraternal fellowship men who live beyond the seven seas and thirteen rivers, thus laying a basis for broad concepts of national, international and world fellowship. Around the altars of countless lodges we have asked for light. And we have received light. Let us therefore in this hour of confusion, anxiety and apprehension endeavor to reflect according to the measure in which we have received the light that has shown upon our pathway. It may be a flicker, a glimmer, a steady glow or a brilliant radiance, yet it helps to push away the shadows so that others can walk without stumbling. To us may come the charge."

Hear M:W: Richard O. Rumer, Grand Master of Missouri:

"Freemasonry is not a form or a ceremony. It is a force—a force which comes from within the breast—a force which requires men to do that which was enjoined upon them by their Creator and which drives them into an association in the form of our Lodge organizations. Being thus, the most important officers in our Fraternity are those who manage and control the Lodges into which men come. They should receive all of the help and encouragement it is possible to give them from every available source, and we should be forever grateful to that great group of men, the officers of our Chartered Lodges, whose constancy of attention insures the stability of our Institution."

Brother Stabley D. Sundeen, Grand Orator, Nevada, quoted the following version of the Golden Rule, taken from an old Indian manuscript:

"Happy is the man who hath sown in his breast the seed of benevolence; the produce thereof shall be charity and love.

"From the fountains of his heart shall rise rivers of goodness, and the streams shall overflow for the benefit of mankind.

"He assisteth the poor in their troubles; he rejoiceth in furthering the prosperity of all men.

"He censureth not his neighbor; he believeth not their tales of envy and malevolence, neither repeateth their slanders.

"He forgiveth the injuries of men, he wipeth them from his remembrance; revenge and malice have no place in his heart.

"For evil, he returneth not evil; he hateth not even his enemies, but requiteth their injustice with friendly admonition.

"The griefs and anxieties of men excite his compassion; he endeavoreth to alleviate the weight of their misfortunes, and the pleasure of success rewardeth his labor.

"He calmeth the fury; he healeth the quarrels of angry men, and preventeth the mischief of strife and animosity.

"He promoteth in his neighborhood peace and good will, and His name is repeated with praise and benediction."

Brother Sundeen later observed:

"I have always felt that sooner or later all men must arrive at the conclusion that there is a bit of Divinity within himself and I think it is our duty to seek it."

Brother Arthur Hughes, Grand Orator, delivered a brilliant Centennial oration before the Grand Lodge of Minnesota, in which he said:

"Leadership is a priceless asset. Without it, Masonry in Minnesota or elsewhere would have no history. With inferior leadership, the story of the past century would not be worth the telling.

"Yet leadership alone is not enough. Even the most inspired leadership must fail lacking loyal and intelligent followers. How many brethren toiled faithfully and without stint to improve a struggling Lodge on the windswept prairies of this state during the past century no man can tell; but how numerous they must have been can be inferred from the flourishing condition of the craft today.

"Etched deep in the history of every Lodge is the influence of a few men who shaped its destiny, bore the brunt of the bitter years, and were largely responsible for its survival and its success. Every one of us could name two or three moving spirits who fit the brief description I have given. For the most part, the wind has passed over them, and they are gone, and the place thereof shall know them no more. For the most part, the honors so justly their due have not been paid them. There may be a fading photograph upon the wall; their names are recorded often in minutes which will never again be read.

"Yet this is perhaps of no great consequence. Can honor's voice provoke the silent dust, or flattery soothe the dull, cold ear of death? And who are we, that even the echoes of any tribute of ours should penetrate the purlieus of the Celestial Lodge above?

"And still we do have an obligation to review the past; an obligation to ourselves and to those who shall come after us. For our own profit we should think on these things. We may learn that it is given to but few to function impressively as the Most Excellent King Solomon. * * * * Many and varied are the attributes needed to make a successful Lodge. Every one of us has a contribution to make if he only will."

Brother Robert Sapp, Grand Orator, included the following paragraph in his oration before the Grand Lodge of Alabama:

"How does the world come to times like we are in today? There are many answers. Some will tell you it was maladjustment of the economic system of our Country and of our World. Others would tell you that it's a society out of joint and unfair to large groups of people within its bounds. Others would tell you that it is diplomatic double talk on the part of our Statesmen that has brought confusion in our world. All of these have influence but none of them go to the root of the matter. The heart and core of this matter lies in the fact that our civilization today has deserted its sense of moral and spiritual values. The great rich heritage that has been ours through all these generations. We have thought that the absence of faith was the sign of vigor. We have actually taught that religion is a take it or leave it proposition, something that we could take or leave as we proceed to an evening at the Symphony or a game of golf. We are suddenly coming to realize that we have lost our sense of direction in America. We have just discovered that the seeds of national decay are not in the political or social structures of a Nation, but rather the seeds of National decay are always found in the heart and character of the individuals who make the Nation. We can only have a new Nation and a new World as we have new people. The hope for a new Nation and the hope for a new World lies in the reconversion of the human spirit to the great moral and religious teachings of Masonry and of the Christian Church."

M:W: Brother Ingvald O. Hembre, Grand Master, set this challenge before the Masters and Wardens assembled in the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin:

"The symbolic Lodge is the foundation of all Masonry. When Masonry is in a healthy condition in each of the constituent Lodges, then the Grand Lodge is in a healthy condition. The success of that local Lodge rests squarely on the shoulders of the Master of the Lodge and his corps of officers. You are here today representing that Lodge and its membership. You will have an opportunity to share your problems and successes, your experience and your needs, as we build together for tomorrow.

"We live in a 'one world' age. Our most distant Lodge of Masonry in this 'one world' is no farther away than tomorrow's breakfast. The Worshipful Master and the brethren of the far distant Lodge are working on the same design of Masonry. In a world sick at heart with distrust, avarice, greed, and hate, these Lodges are as beacon lights to men who would find a way to live in peace and harmony with each other. Masonry can make a great and significant contribution to the accomplishment of a universal brotherhood of man living and working together in a way of life dedicated to the dignity of the individual man, and the immortality of the soul. As Masters and Wardens of your Lodges, you occupy a key position in the accomplishment of that dream which is the hope of mankind. Your Grand Lodge is but an instrument to facilitate the accomplishment of the great objectives of the fraternity. The effectiveness of that instrument depends upon you and your successors."

M:W: Brother J. Heber Lewis, Grand Master, in giving an account of his year's activities, told the brethren of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky:

"Masonry was intended to be a blessing to mankind. Have we made it so? Have we served with that fervency and zeal that should actuate all true Masons?

"Acts of Charity bring their own reward. A happy smile, a cheerful word or hearty handshake bring a warmth of sunshine and stir affection of the heart, not only of the recipient, but also the giver.

"We pass this way but once. Riches may be made and lost. Man lies down and is forgotten, but the monument of kindly deeds, devoted service and cheerful disposition built in the hearts of men not only lives throughout all time, but is a kindly monument that may be had by the humblest subject.

"May it be your pleasure to erect such a monument. May we live to see the day when Masonry will be enshrined in the hearts of all men, and we, as brothers go marching on in an irresistible tide that shall sweep into oblivion all envy and discord. Crowning our lives with the blissful knowledge that we have done our best to make this old war-torn world of ours a better place in which to live, filling our hearts with the tender recollections of the good we have done, and dying with the satisfaction of knowing that we, like Paul of old, have fought a good fight, kept the faith and are only passing on to that land where love is supreme and the noontide of happiness forever shines.

"Brethren, my sole concern is that we, as Masons, shall strive to be on the outside with our aprons off, what we profess to be inside with our aprons on.

"Remember, Brethren, you may be the only Bible some people will ever read."

"In the words of Brother Dave Jackson, 'God bless you, my Brother, it means so much to be a Mason.'

"I'd like to think

When life is done

That I had filled a needed post,

And here and there

I'd paid my fare

With more than idle talk or boast.

That I had taken gifts divine,

The truth of life and manhood fine,

And tried to use them, now and then,

In service to my fellow men."

In his September 1952 quarterly address to the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts, M:W: Thomas S. Roy, Grand Master, included the following "Answer to Anti-Masonic Religious Propaganda," which is so clearly stated, and which answers questions with which we are so frequently confronted, that it is quoted here in its entirety:

"In a pamphlet under the title, 'Does God want you to be a lodge member?' which was found in a church not far from Boston, I found the address of a religious publishing house which specializes in anti-masonic literature. I sent some money, and in return, received some forty anti-masonic tracts or pamphlets. They have been written, for the most part, by men who represent the ultra-conservative wing of protestantism. The writers have not always been careful with the truth; at least they state as fact what has never been established as such. They forget that one of the ten commandments is, 'Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.' They draw malicious inferences not at all warranted by a correct interpretation of the facts. They cite Masonic authorities such as Mackey and Preston, and identify the teachings of Freemasonry with the opinions of those men rather than with the moral teachings of Freemasonry itself. Incidentally, they know all there is to know about obligations and our ritual. One of those pamphlets contains what purport to be the physical penalties of all the degrees,—Symbolic Lodge, The York and Scottish Rites. As you can imagine, their criticisms bear down hard on an organization that seems to need the use of such imprecations. Inasmuch as some of those obligations seem to demand that the candidate promise to impose on others who betray the secrets of the Order the same punishment as he invokes on himself, it cannot be wondered at that Freemasonry is condemned by many.

"Their sharpest criticism, however, is aimed at our most vulnerable spot: namely, the apparently selective morality implied in part of our obligations. There was a time when men thought of themselves as obliged to do anything they could get away with in their business dealings with their fellow men, 'Caveat emptor,' (let the buyer beware), was the slogan. Under the conditions that then obtained, the obligation had some cogency. A Mason had to be honest in his dealings with a brother Mason. But there can be no double standard in ethical questions for Masons today. A Mason must be equally honest with all men, nor shall we protect the wrong-doing of any. In this respect our practice is above our ritual. For in practice, not only will we not protect a brother Mason in his wrong-doing, but in unethical conduct, we will bring charges against him and have him excluded from our fellowship if it can be proved that he has brought reproach upon the good name of Freemasonry. The action of this Grand Lodge this afternoon in confirming the suspension of a member, and at other times in expelling members for unmasonic conduct, is all the proof needed that this is true.

"Freemasonry may lead in asserting and practicing the highest in ethical idealism, but it must never be behind the accepted morality of any generation. It must be above suspicion and beyond criticism. Particularly we must not have our ritual trailing our practice.

"These religious critics of ours are harsh in their criticism of the religious factor in Freemasonry. Their criticism takes this form: Freemasonry is a religion; it does not conform to the beliefs and practices of the Christian religion; therefore it is a false religion; therefore any person having membership in Freemasonry is guilty of promoting a false religion, and perforce is not worthy of membership in a Christian church. We have been ill-served by some of our Masonic historians in this respect. In their zeal for linking Freemasonry with antiquity, they have almost concluded that similarity indicates origin. Mackey speaks of our affinity with the Eleusinian Mysteries of ancient times. He has given a phallic significance to some of our symbols. Freemasonry would be well-advised to stick to its immediate origin, and not to try to satisfy the craze for antiquity that plunges us into a maze of conjecture that adds nothing to our prestige, and exposes us to the criticism that is not deserved in the light of our present ideals, goals and practices. We claim no direct relationship with pagan religions.

"Unfortunately, some of the apologists of Freemasonry in other days have tried to establish the worth of the Order by making claim for it not consistent with its organization and purposes. One of them made the statement that 'Genuine Freemasonry is a pure religion.' That is an unfortunate and misleading statement. But it has been taken at face value by these religious critics who proceed to show the kind of religion it is, and gives them the basis for their argument that Freemasonry is a false religion and therefore to be condemned.

"Our answer to this is that while Freemasonry is religious, it is not even in the remotest sense a religion. We have prayers, it is true, invocations to deity. But Congress opens its sessions with prayer, and no one has ever suggested that our legislature is a religion. The Republican and Democratic Conventions opened with prayer—and such prayers they were! But not even the most ardent member of either convention would call it a religion. Colleges have religious services, some of them daily Chapel, but nobody ever called a college or educational program a religion. What it means is that these organizations, even as ours, are composed of religious people who believe that their religion should enter into all of life.

"We have none of the marks of a religion. We have no creed, and no confession of faith in a doctrinal statement. We have no theology. We have no ritual or worship. We have no symbols that are religious in the sense of the symbols found in church and synagogue. Our symbols are related to the development of character and of the relationship of man to man. They are working tools to be used in the building of a life.

"Our purpose is not that of a religion. We are not primarily interested in the redemption of man. We seek for no converts. We solicit no new members. We raise no money for religious purposes. By any definition of religion accepted by our critics, we cannot qualify as a religion. All of which means that a man has not subscribed to a new religion, much less an anti-Christian religion, when he becomes a Mason, any more than when he joins the Democratic Party, or the Y. M. C. A. And there is nothing in Freemasonry that is opposed to the religion he brings with him into the Lodge.

"We are condemned because we say that a man may be obligated on the scripture of his own religion, and that we thus place all religions on an equality. But Freemasonry does not assert and does not teach that one religion is as good as another. We do not say that all religions are equal because we admit men of all religions. We refuse to apply a theological test to a candidate. We apply a religious test only. We ask a man if he believes in God, and that is a religious test only. If we asked him if he believed in Christ, or Buddha, or Allah, that would be a theological test involving a particular interpretation of God. Belief in God is faith; belief about God is theology. We are interested in faith only, and not theology. We do not set ourselves up as judges of the qualitative values of the theological interpretations of God. When Freemasonry accepts a Christian, or a Jew, or a Buddhist, or a Mohammedan, it does not accept him as such, but as a man, worthy to be received into the Order. We ask him to pledge himself by the highest and holiest loyalty in his life to be true to his vows. To ask him to vow on a book in which he did not believe would be the kind of hypocrisy condemned by the highest teachings of the Christian religion. To say that we reject Christ because we do not mention him would be as reasonable as to say that we reject the prophecies of Isaiah because we do not mention them. It is the glory of Masonry that a man who believes implicitly in the deity of Christ, and a man who says that he cannot go that far, can meet as brothers in their acknowledgment of the sovereignty of the Supreme Being, the Maker of Heaven and earth, and in acknowledgment of their duty to love him with heart and mind and soul and strength. They can unite in fulfilling the great purpose of Freemasonry, the development of human character, and the establishment of the collective life of mankind in brotherhood. In doing this we dare to hope that we are more than neutral in helping the church in its great task.

"We are not a religion, and we are not anti-religious. We are a completely tolerant organization. We stand for the values that are supreme in the life of the church, and we are sure that he who is true to the principles he learns in Freemasonry will be a better church member because of it. Indeed, just the other day I heard the Rector of the largest Episcopal Church in another city say that he was a better Christian and a better Rector because of Freemasonry. Freemasonry rightly conceived and practiced will enhance every worthy loyalty in a man's life. It will not weaken a man's loyalty to his church, but will strengthen it by the increased sense of responsibility to God and dependence on God taught in our ritual. It will not drain his strength from the service of the church, but increase his strength for the service of the church. It will not draw him away from the doctrines of his church, but stimulate his interest in the values of religion that enrich and ennoble the life of man.

"As distinguished from the church or the synagogue, Freemasonry does not claim to know all there is to know about deity, and therefore makes no assertion of infallibility. Our quest is for light, more light, further light; for truth, more truth, further truth. Because we do not claim to have received full light, to have a monopoly of, or a corner on, truth, we can claim to be a tolerant group. We believe that there should be some place where men can meet without having to assert or defend the peculiarities of their doctrines. There should be some place where men can meet and know that their right to worship God in their own way is respected completely; a place where a man learns that the only respect he can claim for his beliefs is the respect he accords to the beliefs of others. There should be some place where men can face the realities of life and know that the only barriers that separate men are those of ill-will and enmity. Freemasonry is that place, for it unites men in a unity that transcends the accidents of creed and class, a unity created by our common loyalty to the realities of religion as expressed by the prophet Micah twenty-seven hundred years ago when he wrote: 'He hath showed thee, O man, what is good, and what doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.'"

As we approach the conclusion of this year's effort, we quote the report of the Committee on Fraternal Relations presented to the Grand Lodge of New Jersey by M:W: Brother Walter S. Gray, P. G. M., Chairman. We quote this report in full because its penetrating, though satirical appraisal of the multitudinous details that threaten at times to swamp Grand Lodge officers, places them in their proper proportion when compared with the great spiritual and moral force that is Masonry:

"Worry is becoming a disease in many Masonic jurisdictions. Like a heavy cold, it lacks a cure. Physicians almost prefer to permit a cold to turn into pneumonia. They claim they can lick pneumonia, but not the common cold. The problem of worry is in the same category. No antidote seemingly will be discovered until the disease grows worse.

"What are Masonic leaders worrying about?

"We are living too long, thereby filling beyond capacity Masonic homes. Too many men are joiners, not builders. Masonic illiteracy is widespread. The doctrine of physical perfection in man is endangering Masonic growth. A wooden leg disturbs acceptance of a candidate but a wooden head may shed no slivers. We are worried lest the lower end of man, not the upper, is made of ash or maple, if not cork—but unmindful of an ivory pate.

"Old H. C. L. affects everything including lodge dues and members decline to up them. If it isn't chain letters it now is chain prayers. Automatic suspension for N. P. D. is liable to make some political Mason mad. Dual membership is a sop to the rich. The master's hat too often looks like it came from the gutter rather than the haberdasher. Should rituals be coded, cyphered or discarded? One noted P. G. M. 'kids' a colleague for being painted in oil with a Masonic emblem in his lapel not the square and compasses. Landmarks of yesterday are outmoded today. The 'ancient' needs modernizing. Why provide pensions for Masonic employees?

"These are some of the things Masonic leaders are worrying about as this Committee reviews proceedings of 57 Grand Jurisdictions. They wish they knew constructive answers to the problems. We wonder if it lies in the reply Calvin Coolidge gave the press when it badgered him for a comment on the book by Rupert Hughes so caustic about the life of George Washington. Coolidge looked out his White House window to the tall, stately shaft symbolizing the service given by the Father of His Country and succinctly remarked—"his monument still stands."

"Brethren, Masonry still stands! So will it stand long, despite our worries. Let worry be changed to constructive work upon the minds of mankind and Masonry will remain the beacon light of real, true, genuine brotherhood whose goal is peace on earth, good will toward men. In that spirit do we file for your reading interest our pleasant task of 'touring' the Masonic world, registering its criticisms, noting a few prescriptive remedies and relying on your own intuition to so live, to so act and to so interpret the principles of this fraternity that you will make yourselves, your lodge, your home, your community, state and nation a finer heritage for posterity—ever remembering that:

"It isn't the cut of the clothes you wear,
Nor the stuff out of which they are made,
Though chosen with taste and the greatest care,
And it isn't the price you paid;
It isn't the size of your pile in the bank,
Nor the number of acres you own;
It isn't a question of prestige, or rank,
Nor of muscle, nor sinew, nor bone,
It isn't the servants who come at your call,
It isn't the things you possess,
Whether many, or little, or nothing at all—
It is service which measures success.'"

Quotations in full have been used liberally throughout this review for two reasons: (1) In an effort to transmit unchanged the meaning of the author, and (2) as source material for officers of Lodges and District Deputy Grand Masters who seek materials for Lodge programs.

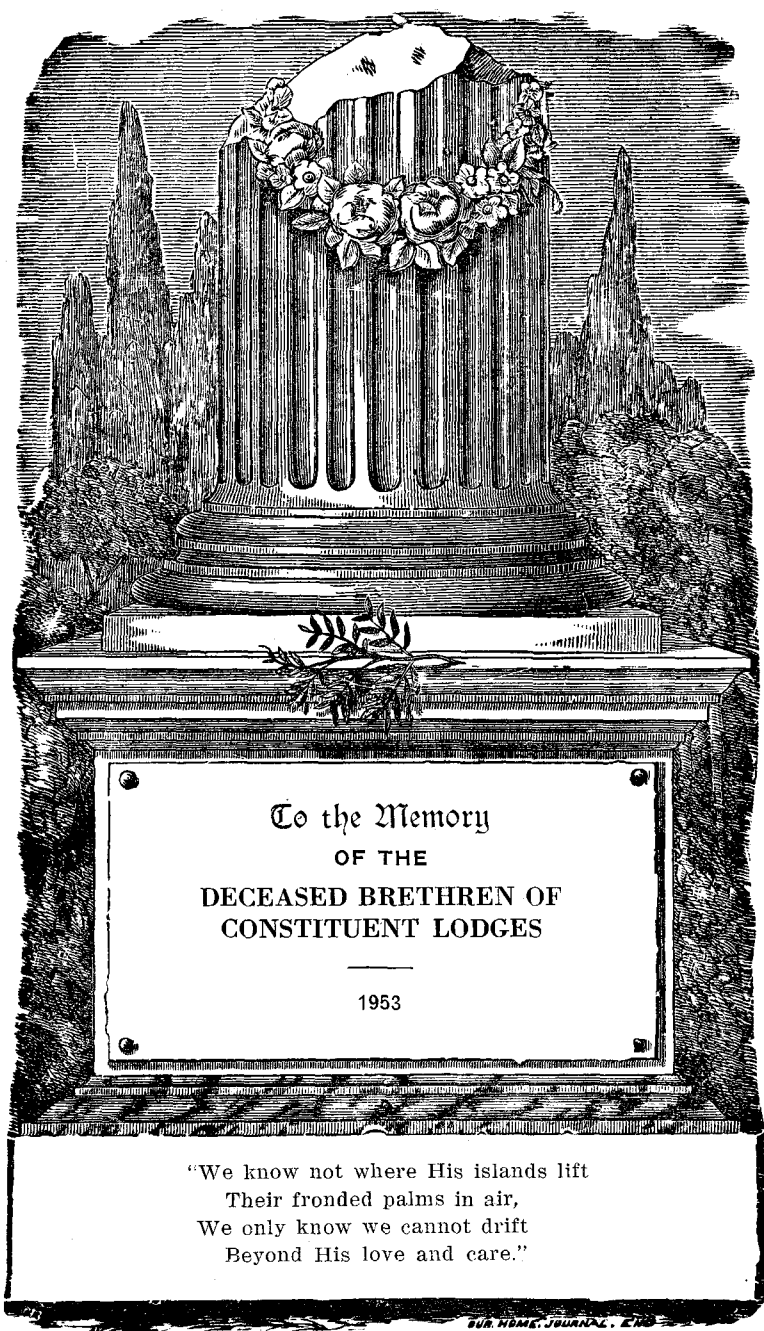

Fraternally submitted,
ROBERT W. CRETNEY, P. G. M.,
Chairman, Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

To the Memory
OF THE
DECEASED BRETHREN OF
SISTER GRAND LODGES

1953

"There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some other shore,
And bright in heaven's jeweled crown
They shine for evermore."

To the Memory
OF THE
CONSTITUENT LODGES

1953

"We know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air,
We only know we cannot drift
Beyond His love and care."
